Q. IV. What Ministers have died since the last Conference?

A. 1. In Great Britain, the thirty-three following:—

(1.) JOHN M'OWAN; who was born at Crieff, Scotland, in the year 1791. He was trained to a regular attendance at public worship, and carefully instructed in Scriptural truth, which led, under the Divine blessing, to diligent Bible study and prayer. When quite a youth he removed to Glasgow, where he was induced to attend the ministry of the late Rev. Valentine Ward. The first sermon he heard Mr. Ward preach deeply impressed him, and he soon found 'peace in believing.' Immediately after his conversion he found 'his own brother,' the late Rev. Peter M'Owan, and 'brought him to Jesus.' Erelong he began to preach, and in 1815 was accepted as a candidate for our ministry.

With an unblemished reputation and well-regulated zeal, he laboured in the full work of the ministry for nearly half a century. He was an able preacher, a wise counsellor, and well versed in the doctrines of Christianity. His administration of our discipline was at once faithful and discreet. When placed in positions requiring great fidelity and prudence, his conduct fully justified the confidence reposed in him. His unostentatious and genuine piety, combined with kindness and unswerving integrity, won for him sincere respect in all his Circuits, more especially from those friends who had the advantage of close acquaintance with him. In 1862 Mr. M'Owan retired as a Supernumerary to Bowdon, in the Altrincham Circuit, where he employed himself in such work for Christ as his strength would permit, and in the cultivation of a serene and devoted piety. He enjoyed uninterrupted health throughout a long life, and yielded at length rather to the decay of nature than to disease. His last illness was brief though painful; but in great weakness and partial blindness he possessed his soul in quietness and assurance, and beautifully exemplified the Christian character. 'The weary wheels of life stood still at last,' on the 3rd of September, 1876, in the eighty-fifth year of his age, and the sixty-second of his ministry.

(2.) JOHN PARKES; who was born at Derby, September 8th, 1807. He was converted when about nineteen years of age, and from that period to his death he 'walked with God.' He was accepted as a probationer for the ministry in 1831, and appointed to the West Indies, where for eighteen years he ministered the Word of life with fidelity and great profit to the people. Returning home he spent seven years in English Circuits, and then returned to his former sphere of labour, where for seven years more he sustained the responsibilities of Chairman of the Antigua District. On his second return to England he toiled in the Master's service for nine years in some important Circuits, though with health manifestly impaired by long residence in the tropics.

As a Superintendent he was judicious and faithful. His preaching was practical and evangelical. It was his delight to set forth the higher privileges of the Christian believer and to urge their attainment. His prayers were remarkable for choice and appropriate thought expressed in chaste and Scriptural language, and above all for their fervour and power with God. His life was in harmony with his teaching, his character being truly noble and holy. In 1872 he became a Supernumerary, but spent the rest of his days in such ministerial and pastoral service as failing strength permitted. His afflictions were borne with Christian meekness. He died at Castle-Donington, September 9th, 1876, in the seventieth year of his age, and the forty-sixth of his ministry.

(3.) WALTER SOPWITH NICHOL; who was born at Newcastle-upon-Tyne, August 28th, 1841. His parents being eminent for their piety, he enjoyed all the advantages of a godly training. At the age of fifteen he entered on business-life, and soon evinced such aptitude as promised to give him a high mercantile position. Although often the subject of powerful religious convictions, it was not until December 26th, 1858, that, under a sermon by the Rev.

John W. Close, he came to decision for Christ. His heart, filled with love to God, soon felt the 'yearning pity for mankind' which prompted him to earnest efforts to secure the salvation of others. When his attention was directed to the ministry, he shrank from its responsibilities, but ultimately became fully persuaded that it was the Master's will. He was sent, by the Conference of 1861, to Didsbury, where for two years, by his attention to study and genial Christian character, he won the esteem of his tutors and fellow students. His earnest and faithful ministry had great attractions for the young, and was owned of God in turning many to righteousness and building up the Church. He entered on his latest sphere of labour—Hull, Waltham-street—in feeble health, and ere six months had passed was compelled to desist from all public duty. He obtained permission of the last Conference to retire for one year, but this period had scarcely commenced before his earthly career was closed. His very painful affliction was borne without murmuring, and he gave many proofs that his soul was resting on the Saviour. As the end drew nigh, the nature of his disease precluded all conversation. On the 16th of September, 1876, he passed to the land where there shall be no 'more pain,' in the thirty-sixth year of his age, and the fourteenth of his ministry.

(4.) Henry Wilcox; who was born at St. David's, Pembrokeshire, October 24th, 1813. He was converted to God in his youth, and commenced preaching before he was twenty years of age. Having been accepted as a candidate for our ministry, he was admitted into the Theological Institution at Hoxton. He received his first appointment as a Welsh preacher in 1837, and continued to labour with acceptance and success until 1872, when, by impaired health, he was compelled to become a Supernumerary. He continued, however, to preach and to perform other ministerial duties, as far as he was able, to the end of his days. He possessed a vigorous mind, which he had cultivated by regular reading and study, and he rendered efficient service by his pen, as well as by his public and private ministrations. He was a good man and an effective preacher, and being of an affable disposition and catholic spirit, was much beloved by all who knew him. His end was somewhat sudden, being the effect of paralysis, but he was found ready. He died in peace at Devynnock, near Brecon, October 1st, 1876, in the sixty-third year of his age, and the fortieth of his ministry.

(5.) Alfred Barrett; who was born at Attercliffe, near Sheffield, October 17th, 1808. The associations of his early life were such as to foster that spirit of intelligent inquiry and devout consecration of which, in after years, he was a striking example. There are no records of the circumstances which led to his conversion, but at a very early age it was his habit to spend much time in secret prayer, and the tone of his life was devout. When fifteen years old he became a member of the Wesleyan-Methodist Society. At this time he was the subject of very deep religious convictions. So profound was his sense of the hatefulness of sin and of the holiness and justice of God that, although regarded by those who knew him as an example of whatsoever things are pure, and true, and honest, and lovely, and of good report, his estimate of himself was such that his agony of mind was distressing. The night of his sorrow was long and dark; but at last there was shed upon his soul a sweet sense of the love of God, and he was enabled to 'rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory.'

Under the inspiration of this newly-found joy, he entered heartily into various spheres of Christian work. Though engaged in business and distinguished by diligence in his vocation, he devoted his leisure hours to theological study, and to the holding of services in the homes of his father's workpeople. The Rev. Edmund Grindrod and his colleagues, impressed by the fervour of his spirit, and the beauty of his life, urged him to give himself to the Christian ministry. After much prayer for Divine direction, he renounced his commercial prospects and tempting offers of advancement, and commenced a course of preparation for the sacred office, under Mr. Grindrod's direction.

He entered the Wesleyan ministry in the year 1832. From the first he fulfilled the promise of his youth. His ministry was everywhere confirmed by the blessing of God. After labouring in some of the most important Circuits, and leaving behind him in every place the savour of saintly life and service, he was appointed to the Governorship of Richmond College. In the discharge of the duties of this responsible position, in which he was specially successful in training the students for evangelistic work, his strength gradually failed; and a short time after leaving Richmond he became a Supernumerary.

Mr. Barrett was a man of high intellectual capacity, and of refined and cultivated tastes. By hard study, more particularly in the departments of patristic and systematic theology and moral philosophy, he greatly enriched his natural resources—always consecrating his mental as well as his spiritual wealth to the service of his Master. He contributed by his pen to the literature of the Church, and won for himself, by many useful and valuable works, a high literary reputation. His sermons, carefully prepared and hallowed by much fervent prayer, were remarkable not only for beauty of language and depth of thought, but for the impressive energy with which they were delivered, and above all, for the unction with which they were accompanied. He never preached without impressing his hearers with the conviction that they were listening to a man who lived in blessed communion with God.

In Circuit life he was marked by a self-denying devotedness to every branch of his work. Powerful in the pulpit, unrivalled in the Bible-class, and not less remarkable for the faithful and fruitful discharge of pastoral duties, he was also diligent in the more subordinate functions of his office, in all of which he gave full proofs of his ministry. Firm and conscientious in his administration, he succeeded in winning the loyal attachment of his people to the discipline of Methodism, and in animating the Societies under his charge with the spirit of his own work. His prayers were truly the outpourings of his earnest soul. Their fervour, their devotional thought, their comprehensiveness, their confidence, told of the closeness of his fellowship with God. In the Class-meeting he was singularly felicitous, exhibiting not only a profound acquaintance with human nature, and the varying phases of religious life, but also a tender sympathy with all sorrow and struggle, and a rare power of ministering counsel and consolation.

In social intercourse he maintained at all times the dignity of the Minister, and the refinement and courtesy of the Christian gentleman. In the inner circles of friendship and home his gentle and affectionate bearing won the confidence of all whose privilege it was to be admitted into his society, while his deep spirituality of mind and unaffected devoutness of manner bore witness to the reality of his walk with God. He cherished a sincere affection for his brethren in the ministry, and was never heard to utter a word in their disparagement.

No estimate of Mr. Barrett's life and character would be complete which did not take note of his constitutional tendency to depression. There were times when a degree of melancholy seemed to him almost inseparable from the conviction of life's realities and responsibilities. In some instances these exercises of soul were prolonged through days and weeks of sadness and gloom. The claims of public duty under such circumstances were severe and almost overwhelming, but he bore up patiently and bravely, 'serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears and temptations which befell' him, and exhibiting at such times the evidence of ripened devotion even when mourning bitterly over personal failures and defects.

The closing years of his life were spent in comparative retirement. His wasting strength laid him open to severe and frequent attacks of his constitutional depression. But as the end drew near the shadows were lifted, and in the 'evening-time' there was 'light.'

He died at Clapton, in the full assurance of faith, on October 26th, 1876, in the sixty-ninth year of his age, and the forty-fifth of his ministry.

(6.) Samuel Dousland Waddy, D.D., the son of a well-known and highly-esteemed Methodist Minister; who was born at Burton-on-Trent, in the year 1804. Converted to God in early life, he at once manifested the decision and energy of character which distinguished him throughout his ministerial career, and began that course of conscientious and well-directed study of which the rich results were so apparent in his sermons and his speeches. Endowed with extraordinary intellectual vigour and vivacity, and rare force and firmness of will, he dedicated all his energies to the cause of Christ. By the Conference of 1825 he was accepted as a probationer for the Methodist ministry. On the basis of his schooling at Woodhouse-Grove he built up a solid and serviceable scholarship, with much more of soundness than pretension; a scholarship directed mainly to the elucidation of the Holy Scriptures, the acquisition of a mastery of his native language, and a style formed on the purest models. From the earliest years of his ministry his preaching was marked by freshness, fidelity, directness, and point, by careful exegesis, by the sturdy defence of revealed truth against unbelief and error, by force and elegance of language, and by gravity and dignity of manner; and especially in the latter half of his ministry by a rare breadth and massiveness, and by a fervent and affectionate evangelism.

His eminence as a preacher and a speaker, so early attained and so honourably held to the close of his career, was the result of laborious study, solicitous and manifold preparation. His quickness of thought and readiness of speech never betrayed him into negligence. His administrative ability, diligence, and faithfulness were not inferior to his power in unfolding and enforcing Divine truth, and in advocating the interests of the kingdom of God. As a Superintendent, his urbanity and geniality won the affection of those whom he was called to rule, while his capacity for business and his just sense of the responsibilities of his office commanded deference and confidence. His systematic and impartial pastoral labours greatly added to the effect of his preaching. As a colleague he was considerate, indulgent and unexacting, never permitting his Connexional engagements to entail on those associated with him any part of his own share of Circuit work.

His gifts and his energy soon marked him out for special office in the Connexion; and whatever interests were confided to him, he guarded and promoted with all his might. In 1859 he was elected to the chair of the Conference, and discharged his Presidential duties with all firmness, fidelity, diligence and effectiveness.

Methodism owes him lasting gratitude for his great services to its educational interests; in the first instance by awaking the Connexion to a conviction of the need of adequate provision for the intellectual training of its sons within its own economy; and then by his long and successful Governorship of Wesley College, Sheffield,—an establishment which he was mainly instrumental in founding.

His piety was deep and fervid. His splendid social qualities and his energetic business habits did not dissipate his devout recollectedness; nor did his keen interest in public affairs, and his thoroughly practical bent of mind, damp his ardour as a student of Holy Writ or disturb his personal communion with God. To this was doubtless owing the absolute control under which he held his almost matchless wit,—a control still more wonderful than that brilliant faculty itself. He never allowed his humour to intrude into the pulpit, very rarely even to appear on the platform; and it never, in the slightest degree, violated reverence, charity, or decorum.

Seldom has a man been entrusted with an intellect at once so strong and so sprightly; seldom have the earnest student, the powerful preacher, and the effective administrator been so happily united in the same person. Samuel Dousland Waddy was a great and noble man, of strongly-marked individuality, strict integrity, and high-toned honour, admirable alike in public and in private life. Dr.

Waddy knew well how to 'rule his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity.' His spotless example, clear, practical teaching, and personal devotion to Christ and His Church were signally honoured by God, and his devotion to Methodism was such as to render it almost impossible for his children to think of joining any other section of the Church of Christ than that to which he himself belonged. It was his happiness to see them all heartily united to the Church of his choice.

His long and active ministerial course was followed by a period of feebleness and suffering, during which the passive Christian graces were beautifully unfolded and matured. He died at Clifton, on the 7th of November, 1876, in the peace, confidence, and hope of the Gospel which he had so earnestly and eloquently preached.

(7.) JOHN MORRIS; who was born at Booth's Town, near Manchester, on July 20th, 1812. When about ten years old his father dropped down dead at his side. This solemn event was used by the Holy Spirit to awaken in his mind concern about his soul, and the widowed mother fostered the impressions thus produced. After finding peace with God, there came upon him the irresistible conviction that he ought to devote himself to the work of the Christian ministry. Others saw that he was indeed called of God to this sacred office; leisure for study was secured to him, and he ultimately entered the Theological Institution at Hoxton, being the first Wesleyan student admitted there. The new position was somewhat trying to him, but a strong will, and a fervent desire to be fully equipped for his sacred duties, bore him above all difficulties. The study of Theology was a passion with him, and his success in it was marked. He was well versed in the Calvinistic controversy, it having been forced upon him in his native village as soon as he began to preach. Throughout his course he kept his mind fresh and vigorous by extensive reading, and he always brought 'beaten oil' into the sanctuary. His sermons were the fruit of much thought and prayer, and had a character of their own. They dealt with the essence of things, and were remarkable for simplicity and raciness of style, lucid exposition of the truth, enforcement of evangelical doctrine, and power in grappling with the conscience. Moreover, they generally glowed with heaven-kindled ardour. In troublous times he was most loyal to the Church of his choice, and always faithful in the administration of its godly discipline. After a long, useful, and honourable career, his health gave way, and in 1875 he retired as a Supernumerary to Manningham. In a little while his strength so far returned as to allow of his again engaging in services which had ever been his delight. Yet this was not for long. He was struck with paralysis in October, 1876. At times he was very prostrate and depressed. Truths that he had prized beyond thousands of gold and silver seemed now and again to elude his grasp. He shrank from the pain of dying, and he was sorely tempted. But he left his reasonings at God's feet, and found refuge in a living, Divine Redeemer. On November 15th he suddenly entered into the heavenly rest, in the sixty-fifth year of his age, and the forty-first of his ministry.

(8.) Thomas James; who was born at Wednesbury, in the year 1820. He had pious parents, and at an early age became the subject of religious impressions, which were considerably deepened under the ministry of the Rev. John H. Bumby. He obtained a knowledge of salvation by the remission of sins when seventeen years of age, at a Class-meeting. From that time until his twenty-fifth year, when he entered the ministry, all his energies were consecrated to the glory of Christ in such spheres of godly service as Providence opened before him. As a Minister of the Gospel, Mr. James possessed qualities of mind and heart that guaranteed his acceptance in every Circuit he entered, and endeared him to colleagues and Church officials as a genial, joyous, confidential friend. The first five years of his ministry were spent in the West Indies, where he laboured with great zeal and success. After his return home he occupied a series of Circuits, to the spiritual delight and advantage of all who attended his ministrations, and to the entire satisfaction of his ministerial brethren, who for several years evinced their appreciation of his judgment and administrative ability by appointing him to the Chairmanship of a District. He had, with a genuine tenderness of spirit, a keen insight into men and things, and a comprehensive acquaintance with the polity of Wesleyan-Methodism, and he exercised his solemn trust with great fidelity and power.

But suddenly, in the midst of health and usefulness, he was struck down with paralysis—the strong man bowed himself, and his public career came to a premature close.

During the earlier stages of his prostration he had intervals of relief, and at such times rejoiced in God his Saviour with great joy, and often exclaimed, 'My only trust is in the bleeding Lamb. The Cross on which He bowed His head shall lift me to the skies.' But for a succeeding period of nearly five years, as his physical frame became feebler and his articulation less distinct, his former exultancy subsided into a peaceful trust in Christ. 'Patience' had indeed 'her perfect work' in him; and loving attendants felt it to be a privilege to watch his sacred resignation to the Almighty will.

On the evening before his decease, as a chapter in the memoir of Mrs. Mortimer was being read to him, he tried to articulate, 'How beautiful a death! how I should like to die so!' His desire was fulfilled. He retired to rest as usual on Monday evening, passed a peaceful night, and on Tuesday morning a slight sound attracted attention towards him. The summons had reached him, the great change had taken place, his spirit had returned to God. He died at Bath, November 21st, 1876, in the fifty-sixth year of his age, and the thirty-second of his ministry.

(9.) Benjamin Alfred Gregory, M.A., son of the Rev. Benjamin Gregory. He was born at Rochester, February 26th, 1850. From infancy, and before he could speak plainly, he gave evidence of the sensitive conscientiousness which distinguished him to the end of his life, and he always appeared to be under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. But his first religious decision took place when he was about eleven years of age, at a service conducted by the Rev. William Taylor, of California. He entered into the full liberty of God's children three years later, while he knelt at the Communion-table after a Covenant service held at Altrincham. From that time he walked in the light. In 1874 he was accepted as a candidate for the ministry. He was a young man of rare intellectual endowments and high culture, having graduated at Oxford, where he won a First Class in honours.

All his energies were faithfully devoted to the cause of Christ. Both as a preacher and as a writer he gave promise of great service to the Church. As a pastor he was systematic and laborious. He had an intense desire to become a successful preacher. He thought no work too insignificant, no field too narrow, if only he might win souls for the Master. While a Classical Tutor in the Manchester Grammar-School, he frequently preached in the Mission halls and in the streets, and taught a class of rough boys in a village Sunday-school; and at Oxford he engaged in village-preaching and other Christian work. The period during which he was permitted to labour in the ranks of our ministry was brief, but he was enabled by the Divine blessing to turn many to righteousness. He was known to have visited twenty-six families, held two prayer-meetings, and met a Class on the day of his fatal seizure. The infectious disease of which he died was caught in the course of his pastoral labours. He did not anticipate an early death, for he had many plans of future usefulness. One of these he lived to carry out. At special religious services held at Padstow, a fortnight before his death, more than fifty persons professed to find peace with God, and in the first of these services, according to his own testimony, he entered into the rest and joy of a full salvation. He was now ready for his deparature, his loins being girded about, and his lamp burning. He obeyed the sudden call, 'Behold, the Bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet Him!' and entered in to the marriage supper of the Lamb.

His illness was short but severe. He died on December 14th, 1876, at Padstow, in the twenty-seventh year of his age, and the third of his ministry.

(10.) James P. Dunn, the second son of the late Rev. Moses Dunn, was born at Attleborough, March 12th, 1818. He was educated at Woodhouse-Grove and Kingswood Schools, where he not only acquired habits of studiousness which he ever afterwards retained, but also displayed much of that manly courage which distinguished him in after years. On leaving Kingswood he became an assistant-master in a public school, where his high sense of duty and strict discipline in the school-room were as characteristic as his exuberant spirits when he could mingle as a friend with his pupils. Under a sermon preached by the late Rev. G. B. Macdonald he was led to surrender himself to Christ and join the Methodist Society. When seventeen years of age he preached his first sermon, and was accepted as a candidate for the ministry by the Conference of 1839. Of great independence, of wide and liberal sympathies, he was also a warm-hearted and genial friend. With a keen sense of the humorous, he combined profound reverence for sacred things, and the vivacity and hopefulness of his disposition continued to the last.

As a thinker he was calm and clear, as a preacher powerful and impressive, and in his prime he wielded a vigorous pen. By careful study he sought truth; in stating it he was exact, and was bold in its defence. The theme he most delighted to dwell upon was 'Christ, and Him crucified,' and he was often very successful in its application. In prayer he was accustomed to enlarge upon the daily wants of his people, and to plead with much energy and unction. He was especially valued as a Class-leader, on account of his wide knowledge of human nature, and his sympathy with the sorrowful. Being disabled by repeated attacks of paralysis, he became a Supernumerary in 1874. During his retirement he greatly desired once more to preach the Word, but the silenced servant obtained grace to submit to his Divine Master's will. Difficulty of articulation prevented clear disclosure of the state of his mind in the later months of life, and the suddenness of his departure hindered any dying testimony; but the last Scripture he was heard to quote gathered up the gratitude of his life: 'Bless the Lord, O my soul; and all that is within me, praise His Holy Name.' In the slumber of night 'God took him.' He died at Witney, December 28th, 1876, in the fifty-ninth year of his age, and the thirty-eighth of his ministry.

(11.) William Wood Stamp, D.D.; who was born at Bradford, Yorkshire, May 23rd, 1801, and died at Waterloo, Liverpool, January 1st, 1877. He was a son of the Rev. John Stamp, of honoured memory, and was educated at Woodhouse-Grove School, in company with a remarkable group of scholars who afterwards reflected distinction on the School by their eminent services in the Methodist ministry. He was converted to God in early manhood, during his residence in London as a medical student, and derived great benefit from attending the Society-Class conducted by the devout Joseph Butterworth.

Convinced that he ought to devote his life to the ministry of the Gospel, and encouraged by competent advisers, he spent his leisure in preaching to the poor in and around London, until the Conference of 1823 appointed him to Circuit work. The early years of his ministry were passed in laborious Circuits, and were marked by the prayerful diligence, thoughtfulness, and self-restraint which distinguished the later years of his honoured course. His mind was vigorous, active, and clear, and well stored with sound learning, general information, and theological truth. His piety was consistent and steadfast, and ruled his judgment, conscience, and will. His preaching was the true expression of his personal qualities, and he was careful to 'warn every man, and teach every man in all wisdom,' that he might 'present every man perfect in Christ Jesus.' The Divine Spirit largely bestowed upon him the word of wisdom and the gift of government. He studied the history and polity of Methodism with thoroughness and discrimination, and the fruits of his literary labours, and of his watchful attention to all matters of Methodist administration, evince his lively and persistent interest in its stability and progress. He was in all things a true-hearted Methodist, and withal sufficiently catholic to love all who love the Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. As Superintendent of successive Circuits for forty years, he was carefully attentive to all points of discipline, and in his administration combined firmness with kindness. His selection of persons for nomination to official service was eminently judicious. He looked out for opportunities of extending the work of God both in neglected and in promising neighbourhoods; and while resolute in opportune action, he generally, by his forbearance and sound judgment, won the co-operation of divergent minds in carrying out his plans. Always faithful to principle, he knew how to administer the laws of the Connexion with a due regard equally to their letter and their spirit. During his long tenure of office as Chairman of important Districts, he secured the confidence, esteem, and admiration of ministers and laymen, by his intelligence, firmness, and urbanity, and guided discussion by serviceable hints and with judicial impartiality. The Conference of 1860 expressed its regard for his virtues, talents, and services by electing him as its President, and at the close of the year recorded its hearty thanks to him for his diligent, faithful, and judicious discharge of his official duties.

Dr. Stamp retired from Circuit work in 1873, after an active ministry of half a century. His remaining years were devoted to Connexional service, preaching when his strength permitted, conducting an extensive correspondence on difficult questions of discipline, and attending important Connexional Committees, in which his knowledge, experience, judgment and impartiality were highly valued.

In the relations of private and social life, Dr. Stamp exhibited 'the fruit of the Spirit in all goodness and righteousness and truth.' His love of kindred was strong. His kindness to children won their confidence, and led them to gather around him in the social circle as they would around a father beloved. His generous conduct toward his colleagues attached them to him for life. His wide circle of confiding friends attest his unfailing fidelity as a friend and counsellor.

This faithful and wise servant of the Lord Jesus spent the first day of this year in his usual course of duty, and at night, after an illness of two hours, 'he was not; for God took him.' 'Blessed is that servant, whom his Lord when He cometh shall find so doing.'

(12.) Thomas Stokoe; who was born at Ouseburn, near Newcastle-on-Tyne, on November 7th, 1803. Early in life he was awakened to a sense of his guilt, but did not fully decide to devote himself to God until he was aroused by a heart-searching discourse preached by the Rev. E. Batty. Entering into his closet, he wrestled with God until deliverance came. He now joined the Methodist Society, and such was his uniform piety that at the age of nineteen he was made Leader of a Class, which soon numbered over fifty members. He entered the ministry in 1826, and for forty years laboured with acceptance and success in various Circuits, to some of which he was appointed a second time. In 1857 he was elected Chairman of a District, and discharged the duties of that office with great judgment and fidelity. In 1866 failing health compelled him to retire from the active work. During the last ten years of his life he was zealously employed as a Supernumerary in the Walsall (Wesley) Circuit, and by his incessant labours as a preacher and pastor won the esteem and confidence of all sections of the Church and all classes of society. He had a noble and unselfish heart, was an example of cheerful piety and industry, was thoroughly free from pride and the love of applause, and had a devout spirit. All his time and strength were consecrated to God's service. He was modest, upright, and ever anxious to secure the Master's approval. His attachment to Methodism was unwavering, and he took a lively interest in all Connexional matters. He was much esteemed for firmness of principle, judicious management of Church affairs, and faithful administration of discipline. As a preacher he was acceptable and useful, his discourses being distinguished by sound Scriptural exposition and earnest appeals to the conscience. None could attend his ministry without being much impressed by his manner of conducting the worship of God.

In August, 1876, his strength gave way. He had no acute pain, but great prostration, and, as the symptoms of his approaching end became manifest, he said, 'I do not know what God is going to do with me; but all is right.' On one occasion, after a little repose, he broke out: 'I see them! I see them! I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever. It is light, there is light.' Then folding his arms across his breast, he gradually and peacefully passed away to rest, on January 7th, 1877, in the seventy-fourth year of his age, and the fifty-first of his ministry.

(13.) Evan Davies; who was born at Cellan, near Lampeter, November, 1819, and died at Llangollen, on the 11th of January, 1877, in the thirty-first year of his ministry. He was brought to the saving knowledge of Christ at Neath Abbey, in December, 1839, in the twenty-first year of his age. He became a Local Preacher in 1841, and entered the ministry in 1846. As a preacher he was always evangelical and earnest, and at times very impressive, his ministry being attended with much unction. He was honoured by being the instrument of bringing many souls to Christ. Devout faithfulness was a prominent trait in his character. He was greatly comforted in his last affliction, and declared that the truths which he had preached were the unfailing sources of his happiness. When visited by a brother minister, he said in Welsh, with emphatic assurance and in a manner peculiar to himself, 'Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.'

(14.) William Jewett; who died January 16th, 1877, in the ninety-first year of his age. He was converted to God in youth, in the York Circuit, in which he was born, and where he ended his long and useful ministry of sixty-eight years. He first laboured for a brief period in the West Indies, and afterwards in many English Circuits. During the time of his retirement from the Itinerancy, which was long, he rendered willing and valued service. He was a good man, and always ready to speak a word for Christ to all with whom he came in contact. His end was peace. Among his last words were, 'My love, my warmest love, my undying love, to all the brethren.'

(15.) William Sugden; who was born at Oakworth, on the 19th of June, 1808. He was much indebted for his Christian life and usefulness to pious parents. When a child of eight years he had a strong wish to join the Church; but as this was not thought desirable by his family, he did not do so till the thirteenth year of his age. Speaking of his experience at this time, he says, 'I was enabled to rest my guilty soul on Christ; God graciously received me, and shed abroad His love in my heart.' After a period of earnest and useful work in his own Circuit, constrained by the advice of Christian friends and the urgency of Ministers, he offered himself for the ministry, and was received by the Conference of 1836. By his careful attention to every part of a Methodist minister's duty, and more especially by his earnest and faithful preaching and indefatigable pastoral visitation, he won the confidence and affection of his people, and was instrumental in the conversion of many souls. In every Circuit his ministry was successful; in some, that success was very marked. After the Conference of 1868 he retired to the home of his youth, not to rest, but to pursue his loved work, preaching as often as required and visiting daily from house to house. His attachment to the Church of his fathers was very warm, and he supported its institutions with much liberality.

On Sunday evening, December 10th, 1876, after preaching for the Primitive Methodists at Oakworth, he was seized with fatal illness. During this affliction, which was peculiarly painful, he hoped for recovery, but was perfectly resigned, saying, 'Nevertheless, not my will, but Thine, be done.' The ministers of the Circuit invariably found his experience to be in substance, 'Christ is precious, but I want a fuller view of the Atonement.' With eagerness he caught up and used the verses of hymns and passages of Scripture that were suggested to him. On one Sabbath, when thought to be dying, in response to an inquiry, he clasped his hands, and with upward and eager gaze, said, 'O Christ, I am Thine!' Shortly after this he passed into a state of unconsciousness, and died, January 18th, 1877, in the sixty-ninth year of his age.

(16.) Joseph Dawson (B); who was born at Wymeswold, Leicestershire, February 28th, 1847. Blessed with a godly home, he was from childhood strictly moral in his deportment. In his twenty-first year, being convinced of his need of a change of heart, he sought and found peace in believing. At the Conference of 1875 he was appointed to the Cardiff (Loudoun-Square) Circuit, in which he laboured with acceptance for fifteen months. He was punctually attentive to his various duties, and constantly engaged in his Master's business. His sermons were carefully prepared, and left on his hearers the impression that his object was to save souls. Severe illness compelled him in the early part of this year to retire to his home. Though cherishing the hope of returning to his beloved employ, he gradually sank. His last words were, 'I did not think the Lord was about to take me to heaven so soon; but it is all right. Glory to God! Glory to God!' He fell asleep February 13th, 1877, in the thirtieth year of his age, and the second of his ministry.

(17.) George Blanchflower; who was born at Rocklands, in Norfolk, January 19th, 1817. In the village Methodist chapel he was very early brought under religious influences which, unhappily, his own home did not supply. A long period of unrest was followed by great peace, when, at the age of twenty, he received into his heart the Gospel of forgiveness, as he listened to the preaching of William Dawson, of Barnbow. He recognized the Voice which, in the long hours of his darkness, had often called him, while he 'did not yet know the Lord.' Many a dim unworldly thought concerning his own career now took the shape of definite conviction, which the voice of the Church confirmed by setting him apart for the work of the ministry. For eleven years he fulfilled this service in the West Indies, where, in all fidelity and love, he accomplished much good. He had gathered about him the grateful affection of many hearts, when sickness compelled his return to his own land. Here, with unsparing devotion, he served Christ and His Church, feeding diligently the flock of God, and bringing many into the fold, until, during his second year's residence at Warrington, his health suddenly failed. After a time of unconsciousness, lit up by one brief interval of speechless recognition of those around him, his labours ended in eternal rest. In him, a transparent simplicity of character was blended with great shrewdness and sagacity, and cheerfulness shone consistently with thoughtful piety. His unbending integrity commanded respect and trust, while his tenderness of spirit won the love of all who knew him intimately. In preaching, he never sought the attractions of mere ornament; every tone and gesture betokened his own earnest belief in the truth which he taught, and a fervid persuasion that he must bring his hearers to the same faith. As Chairman of a District he rendered valuable service by the wisdom and faithfulness with which he considered every detail of duty. On occasions of difficulty his courtesy, tenderness, tact and singleness of purpose contributed in no small degree to conclusions highly favourable to the work of God. This faithful man and 'good minister of Jesus Christ' passed hence on the 28th of February, 1877, in the sixty-first year of his age, and the thirty-fourth of his ministry.

(18.) Joseph Bate; who was born in Tipton, Staffordshire, on January 9th, 1824. When fifteen years old he was converted to God, and joined the Wesleyan-Methodist Society. After three years' residence at Didsbury College, he was appointed, in 1848, to the Diss Circuit, but the failure of his health compelled a temporary rest. In 1874 and 1875 he experienced very severe domestic affliction and bereavement, but his faith in God never failed. While in the Ulverstone Circuit he was seized with paralysis, and at the Conference of 1876 became a Supernumerary. For awhile he partially improved, but on March 6th, 1877, he quite unexpectedly expired. A few days before his death he said to his daughter, 'I am ready to go at any moment the Master sends for me.'

He was a diligent reader, a useful and acceptable preacher, and was firmly attached to the doctrines and polity of Methodism. He entered into rest in the fifty-fourth year of his age, and the thirtieth of his ministry.

(19.) Samuel Wilkinson; who was born at Newton Hill, in Cheshire, on March 17th, 1817. He owed much to parents who honoured God's name, and especially to his mother, a sister of the late Rev. Richard Reece. He found peace with God in his father's barn, when about sixteen years of age, and in a year or two began to preach. So proficient was he as a student at Hoxton, and so exemplary in character and conduct, that he was rewarded with an extra year's residence in the Theological Institution. The years of his most diligent and devoted ministry were chiefly passed in the more important Circuits.

Frank, manly, trustworthy, possessed of bright and genuine humour, which he yet wisely and conscientiously restrained, and ever unselfish, sympathizing and kindly, he powerfully attracted others. Very few could equal him in the attention which he paid to individuals, or the way in which he visited from house to house. For the poor, the sick, the sorrowful, he naturally cared, and in thousands of homes, 'when the ear heard' him, 'then it blessed' him, and 'when the eye saw' him, 'it gave witness to' him. Though somewhat reticent about his interior life, yet 'the fruits of righteousness' which abounded in him showed that he was careful to abide in Christ. The prayers in which he led others to the 'throne of grace,' made them feel that to him it was an oft-frequented and much-loved resort. His preaching dealt with the great verities of our holy religion, and was intensely practical. It was impressive; not showy, but substantial; full of exposition of the truths which save and sanctify, and appealing powerfully to men on God's behalf. He was a judicious and faithful Superintendent; conciliatory, yet firm; sometimes manifesting rare tact in the management of men and affairs, and always treating his colleagues and the people with urbanity and confidence, and ever ready to sink personal considerations to promote 'the peace of Jerusalem.'

His incessant toil had its reward on earth in his being made a blessing to multitudes, and he doubtless turned 'many to righteousness.' For some months previous to his death his health was in so critical a state that the excitement attendant on public work would have been fatal; but he the more gave himself to Circuit business, and engaged with almost his old assiduity in the pastoral work he loved so well. He hoped that he should soon be again able to discharge all his duties. It was, however, otherwise ordered. On Thursday, March 8th, 1877, apoplexy seized him, and on the following Monday morning he passed peacefully away, in the sixtieth year of his age, and the thirty-eighth of his ministry.

(20.) Hugh Johnson; a native of Barnard-Castle. He had a pious home-training, and was thus early led to Christ. During a revival of religion in his native town, while the Rev. Hugh Beech was stationed there, he was deeply convinced of sin. That night in his home he wept long and made supplication for mercy; his mother, his sister, and his brother Michael (afterwards an honoured Minister) being by his side, but it was some days before he received remission of sins. Thereafter, to the close of life, he walked humbly with God. Devoutness, steadiness and seriousness characterized a piety which was maintained by private reading of the Scriptures and communion with God. Somewhat prone to think meanly of himself, others would not hesitate to say that he was 'an Israelite indeed, in whom' was 'no guile.' While a student at Abney House, he diligently sought to furnish himself for the Christian ministry. To discharge its duties became his joy; he was indeed a willing worker, never seeking high things for himself, but aiming singly at his Master's glory and the good of souls. Hence his sermons set forth the essential truths of the Gospel, and the spirituality of the vocation wherewith believers are called. They were the results of careful study, and were clear, forcible, and earnest. The people in his several Circuits were won by the kindliness of his heart, and his cheerful and unwearied efforts to do them good; and they honoured him for his thoroughness, conscientiousness, and fidelity. All perceived that he was 'a holy man of God.' He was exemplary in visiting the members of his flock for their spiritual welfare. As a Superintendent he was painstaking and judicious, treating his colleagues with brotherliness. At the Conference of 1875 he had to retire from active service, but carried into comparative privacy a zeal for Christ which prompted him to labour for Him. In the autumn of 1876 he was smitten down by paralysis, and during months of feebleness he manifested his wonted sweetness, spirituality, and submission to God's will. On lying down for the night, March 26th, 1877, he was seized with apoplexy, and the next day his spirit went home. He died in the sixtieth year of his age, and the thirty-seventh of his ministry.

(21.) James Findlay, a native of Cullen, on the Banffshire coast, was born on Christmas-day, 1815. His parents were amongst the first Methodists in that District, and suffered much persecution in their early days. 'From a child' he knew 'the holy Scriptures' and walked in the fear of God; but it was not till his eighteenth year that he was conscious of being 'born again.' After seven years of diligent service and painstaking self-culture, he was called to the ministry, though he drew back at first, from a strong sense of his deficiencies, when he found himself not admitted to the Theological Institution. His thirty-seven years' ministry was marked by ever-growing excellence and power, by the originality of a keen and vigorous intellect, the warmth of a glowing and tender heart, the rich instructiveness and profound insight into the Scripture of one who in no small measure had the mind of Christ. He possessed unusual intrepidity, along with a high sense of honour and a fine moral sensitiveness, that made him sternly severe, without respect of persons, towards everything base or wrongful, pretentious or insincere. At the same time he was retiring and diffident, apt to esteem others better than himself; and his friendships, while discriminating and reserved, showed a large and generous mind and a love for all true lovers of the Lord Jesus Christ. Sound and careful in judgment, and anxiously attentive to every detail of ministerial business, he 'ruled well' in the Church of God, as one who 'naturally cared' for her state. He also knew how to rule 'his own house' and to 'command his children after him.' He seemed to be ripening for a fruitful and beautiful old age, when he was mysteriously smitten by disease while yet full of strength for labour and of eager and busy interest in his work. For a month or two he lingered till patience had 'her perfect work,' and then meekly and peacefully, with a grateful and unfaltering trust in his Redeemer, yielded his soul to God. He died at Trowbridge, Wilts., on the 28th of March, 1877.

(22.) George Beard; who was born in Southwark, in 1793. His parents were earnest Wesleyan-Methodists; his father an energetic and devoted Local Preacher. When but seven years of age he was savingly converted, and almost from the first he took an active part in public worship. About the age of eighteen he became a Local Preacher, and in that capacity was successfully employed in the Southwark Circuit until, in 1826, he was appointed a Missionary to the West Indies. On this part of the Mission field he laboured till 1838, and then in various Circuits in this country till the year 1866, when he became a Supernumerary. He possessed considerable vigour of mind. His sermons were simple and original, and delivered with great earnestness. The evening of his life was spent in the midst of his children at Charlestown, Cornwall, where, so far as his failing strength would permit, he sought to promote the work of God. In his last illness, which was but short, he was very graciously sustained. 'Father, you are on the Rock?' said his eldest daughter to him at a period of restored consciousness. With a countenance beaming with joy and hope he replied, 'O, yes!

> "His blood for me did once atone,
> And still He loves and guards His own."'

He died April 5th, 1877, in the eighty-fourth year of his age, after having been in the ministry nearly fifty-one years, and having experienced the converting grace of God seventy-seven years.

(23.) James Johnson; who was born at Scalloway, Zetland, March 21st, 1839. He was brought to God when twelve years of age, mainly through a way-side exhortation by the Rev. B. N. Haworth. In 1861 he was accepted as a candidate for our ministry, and after two years at Didsbury, was appointed to Zetland, where he was so entirely consecrated to his work, that he counted not his life dear unto him in seeking the salvation of the people on the islands. He was an original thinker; his sermons were carefully prepared, and his delivery was very fervent and impressive. In every Circuit in which he laboured, he is remembered as a faithful and strictly conscientious Minister. He was indefatigable in pastoral visitation, and while engaged in that work he took typhus fever, which greatly weakened his hitherto strong constitution. A severe attack of bronchitis, in the Fareham Circuit, so prostrated him as to cause his retirement at the Conference of 1874, when he removed to Lymington. Though suffering from constant weakness, his confidence in God did not waver, but he rejoiced in perfect submission to His will. On the 7th of April last it became evident that his end was near; conscious of his condition, he said, 'All is well; I have no fear.' He sent his love to the brethren, and asked those who were with him to sing 'Rock of Ages.' With great joy he subsequently remarked, 'O, to think that in a few minutes I will be in glory!' A little after midnight he again said, 'Glory!' and in a few minutes the Master called him to Himself.

(24.) JOHN EDWARDS (B); who was born at Trerose, Cornwall, on June 6th, 1835. Blessed with pious parents, who gave him a wise and holy training, he was soundly converted to God when twenty years of age. Shortly afterwards he began to call sinners to repentance, and, in response to the call of the Church, offered himself for the work of our Ministry in 1861. In every Circuit where his lot was cast he laboured with fidelity, acceptance, and success. The simplicity of his trust in Christ as his own Saviour, the singleness of his aim in the ministry, his humility, his whole-heartedness, and the total absence of self-seeking which marked his character, greatly endeared him to all who knew him, and his memory will be long and gratefully cherished. At the last Conference he was appointed to the Camelford Circuit, where his services were highly appreciated during the brief period in which he was spared to exercise his gifts and graces. Early in April, while on a visit to his father, he was struck down with typhoid fever, which terminated fatally about three weeks afterwards. He bore his sickness with Christian fortitude and calmness, and his end was triumphant, his last words being 'Glory! Hallelujah! Worthy the Lamb that was slain for us!

Glory! Adieu old world!' He gently fell asleep on April 30th, 1877, in the forty-second year of his age, and the sixteenth of his ministry.

(25.) George T. Perks, M.A.; who was born at Madeley, Salop, on the 29th of August, 1819. He was favoured with a godly ancestry, and from a child knew and reverenced the Scriptures, which, in the sixteenth year of his age, were applied to him with convincing effect as enforced by the Rev. Jabez Rought. His conversion was thorough, and he never afterwards faltered in the course which he had chosen. He had superior natural endowments, which were developed and matured by conscientious study; and when he was early called to the ministry, his character had a singular ripeness which forbade men to despise his youth. He had lofty conceptions of the attainments required for the ministry, in view of the claims of the Church and of the times, and so laid the foundations of his knowledge broadly, and availed himself of every facility within his reach to acquaint himself with any subject which might bear upon the work of his life. Philosophy and Ecclesiastical History were especially congenial studies.

His early discipline in the former he used to good effect both in his ministry and in his writings, omitting no opportunity of exposing the fallacies of certain modern philosophical principles which conflict with the Word of God. But he especially applied himself to the science of Theology in all its branches. He was a noble example of strict dogmatic teaching, and was never weary of defending systematic Theology against the attacks of those who undervalue it. Thus he became well furnished for all required service, and went far to realize his own ideal of a Minister of the Lord Jesus. His great love of Scripture grew with his growth, and as his sermons glowed with its spirit, and his public prayers were steeped in its language, it became a peculiar element of power in his ministry. Though he had no lack of apt and happy words in which to give forth the weighty thoughts of God that were within him, his quotations from Scripture were frequent and powerful. He wielded the sword of the Spirit mightily; for he knew that, as David said of the sword of Goliath, 'There is none like that.' His capabilities were soon recognized; and though he never courted prominence, he grew in usefulness and honour, and secured a legitimate appreciation which remained with him to the end. His was a singularly well-balanced character, and displayed in harmonious combination qualities not often found together.

He was catholic in his sympathies, and yet unswervingly loyal to the Church of his choice. His delight was to revel among 'the deep things of God;' but he made himself at home, for conscience' sake, in every part of every duty entrusted to his care. He was wise in counsel, tolerant of the views of others, manly in his independence, diffident almost to a fault, never desiring 'the uppermost rooms,' but always ready, if called there, to bear himself worthily and well. He had a delicate sensibility which shrank from giving pain, but a conscientiousness, equally delicate, which gave him the moral courage for difficult duty, so that he would 'in no wise suffer sin upon' his brother. In all the relations of home-life, faithful and tender; in all the relations of ministerial life, circumspect and earnest; able, judicious, godly, and a lover of good men and of the truth, it was no wonder that his brethren loved and trusted him, and drew largely upon him for special and distinguished service. He filled the office of Secretary of the Conference in 1872, and in the following year was elected President. These offices he sustained with ability, dignity, and honour.

He was appointed Secretary of the Wesleyan Missionary Society in 1867; and so the best years of his life were given to its interests, and he devoted to it all the vigour of his masculine understanding and all the wealth of sympathy which dwelt in his generous soul. By judicious counsel, and by eloquent advocacy, by prudent enterprise, and by unfailing zeal, he served the Gospel of the Kingdom in this its broadest sphere of proclamation. When summoned to visit Africa on behalf of the Society, he went forth cheerfully; and by his excessive journeys and labours probably overtaxed his strength, and weakened a constitution which for years had not been of the strongest. The heavier pressure of anxiety and toil which came upon him at the last Conference he undertook as unto the Lord, and he put conscience in his work until the end. He left home to advocate the Missions at Rotherham, on Saturday, the 26th of May; preached on the following morning with impressiveness and power; felt premonitions of illness in the course of the evening service; and during the night of Monday, the 28th of May, went calmly home. With a keen appreciation of the beauty of a life ennobled by work done for Christ, he was enabled, in ready submission, to hail the midnight call. He was saved mercifully from the pangs of separation, and knew but little of the agony of dying. He heard the Master's voice and answered to it, and there was but a brief interval between his latest words, 'It is all right,' and the 'Well done' with which he was welcomed into rest.

(26.) William Baker (a); who was born at Peasmarsh, in the County of Sussex, September 15th, 1785, and died at Gloucester, June 7th, 1877, in the ninety-second year of his age, and the sixty-ninth of his ministry. At the Conference of 1808 he was appointed to the Banbury Circuit, and for a period of forty-nine years sustained the arduous toils of the Itinerancy in some of the most extensive and laborious Circuits in the Connexion. His preaching was characterized by a clear statement of truth and a faithful enforcement of Christian duty. He spoke not 'enticing words of man's wisdom,' but 'the words which become sound doctrine,' using 'great plainness of speech,' and commending himself to 'every man's conscience in the sight of God.'

During his long ministerial course he was enabled by the grace of God to maintain an unsullied reputation, and to exhibit the fruit of the Spirit, especially that charity which 'is not easily provoked;'

no member of his family remembering a single instance of his having given way to infirmity of temper.

At the Conference of 1857 he became a Supernumerary, and spent the last twenty years of his life at Gloucester, where he engaged in preaching, leading a Class, and visiting the sick, until declining strength compelled him to relinquish all public duties. His last illness was brief, but attended with great suffering, which he bore with exemplary patience, testifying to the preciousness of Christ. With a glow of delight suffusing his countenance, he entered into rest.

(27.) James Ryall Webb, son of the late Rev. Thomas Webb; who was born at Hayle, in 1825, and died in Manchester, June 10th, 1877. The good seed sown in his heart in a godly home and at Kingswood School ripened in his nineteenth year into religious decision under the ministry of the Rev. John Rattenbury in Manchester. As a Local Preacher in Hereford he gave promise of the energy and fervour which became marked features of his character. His ministerial course began in 1851. Mr. Webb's sermons, which dealt chiefly with the great verities of the Gospel, were carefully prepared and earnestly delivered. His successful management of important Circuits showed that he had the qualities of an efficient administrator of our polity, and gave promise of still more valuable service in this and similar departments of labour. In character he was singularly transparent and frank, in spirit cheerful and generous. His sociable disposition was ever kept under the restraint of Christian and ministerial propriety. After many years of almost unbroken health, he was prostrated by an illness which he soon felt was 'unto death.' Cut down in the flower of his strength, he anticipated the end without anxiety or dread. He cast his care upon God, with a confidence which never faltered and sometimes rose into joy. There was no trace of murmuring over purposes broken off. He often spoke of 'blessed manifestations' with which God comforted His servant. Among his last words were, 'I know Whom I have believed.' In the first hour of the earthly Sabbath he entered into eternal rest.

(28.) James Parkinson Fairbourn (the son of the late Rev. John Fairbourn); who was born at Preston, February 3rd, 1816, and died at Oldham, June 27th, 1877. He was converted to God when a boy, at Woodhouse-Grove School. He commenced his ministry at Barnard-Castle in 1837, and thirty years afterwards terminated his active labours at Bishop-Auckland, originally a portion of his first Circuit.

In 1867, owing to failing health, he became a Supernumerary, but laboured subsequently as his strength permitted. In all the relationships of life he was a consistent Christian. He was an affectionate and judicious husband and father, an evangelical and practical preacher, a discreet and faithful pastor and colleague. Considerable force of character, united with great tenderness of spirit, and hallowed by an ever-growing piety, rendered his public ministrations very acceptable and edifying. His whole career was marked by independence of opinion, combined with entire loyalty to Methodism. When compelled by bodily weakness to desist from the work he loved so well, he submitted implicitly to the will of God, and during years of severe affliction no murmur was heard to escape his lips. He met the last enemy in calm reliance on Christ. His end was eminently peaceful, the last words on his lips being, 'Come, Lord Jesus.'

(29.) William Satchell; who was born in Dorsetshire, in 1802, was brought up among the Congregationalists, but at an early age heard the Methodist preachers, and became deeply impressed with the sinfulness of sin. He sought the Lord earnestly for some weeks, till he found redemption through the blood of Christ. About the year 1827 he began to preach, and for fifty years was permitted, with very few interruptions, to proclaim 'the glorious Gospel of the blessed God.' In 1831 he was accepted by the Conference, and sent to Salem, South Africa, where he laboured for four years. He was afterwards appointed to the West Indies, where he spent twenty-one years. While there he helped to redeem one hundred slaves. In the year 1857 he returned home, and spent fifteen years in English Circuits, toiling in them all to promote the work of God. In 1872 he became a Supernumerary, settling at Newark, where he engaged in the duties of a Methodist Preacher until three months before his departure. Never was he so happy as when employed in the service of the sanctuary. His last days were attended with much feebleness, but he anticipated death without fear, and looked to the future with hope, expressing himself as ready to depart. On June 27th, 1877, he calmly passed away, resting on the atonement of the Lord Jesus, in the seventy-fifth year of his age, and the forty-sixth of his ministry.

(30.) George Clough Harvard; who was the fourth son of the Rev. Dr. Harvard, one of Dr. Coke's companions in his mission to the East, and was born at sea, three days after the family left Ceylon, the heroic mother not counting her life dear that the father might get away from what seemed likely to be to him a fatal climate. The boy was educated at old Kingswood School, and made good advancement in learning. When about sixteen years of age, he was brought to God; and being impelled soon afterwards to preach the Gospel of Christ, it was manifest that he was called of God to consecrate his life to the work of the Christian ministry. He was in part prepared for this by a two years' residence in the Hoxton Theological Institution. He was constitutionally genial and gentle, frank, amiable, and gracious; and the 'effectual working' of the Divine Spirit developed these natural endowments into qualifications for special usefulness. His dignity of demeanour sometimes hid his real character from cursory view, but he was accessible and familiar as a little child. Pursuing his own quiet course of independent thought and action, he yet always submitted himself to the restraints of Scripture and of conscience, and of the ecclesiastical system to which, not without deliberate, but ultimately steady, choice, he had gratefully and lovingly attached himself.

His public discourses were full of fresh, vigorous, stimulating, and sometimes original thought, conveyed in a style always clear, and often sententious and incisive. They commanded the attention of the intelligent and cultured; they won the sympathy of those who were spiritual in desire or attainment; for he was in a remarkable degree a devout and diligent student of the Bible. His masculine mind held firm grasp of its many-sided and well-proportioned system of truth; whilst his fine taste revelled in its beauties and adornments. His administration of the Sacraments was peculiarly attractive, solemn, and joyful. His pastoral duties were punctually and laboriously discharged. He sat frequently, patiently, and assiduously in 'the house of mourning,' as one that comforteth the mourners, for 'the Lord God' had given to him 'the tongue of the learned' in heavenly things, that he should 'speak a word in season to him that is weary.' Strong convictions occasionally constrained him to take part in discussion; never, however, without especial solicitude to maintain fairness, amenity, and candour.

His friendships were firm, cordial and faithful. Towards his colleagues he bore himself with chivalrous honour and confiding affection; superior to aught approaching to jealousy, and ever upholding their good name and that of all his brethren in the ministry. His daily life, alike before his flock and his family, was exemplary, and revealed a piety which, if not demonstrative, was yet true and deep. He was devoted to duty, and devout in doing it. Chastened during his later years by domestic sorrow, keenly felt by a sensitive nature, he set his affection more longingly 'on things above;' and seems to have been favoured with secret monitions of his approaching end, at once welcome and preparative. It was thus that, in the words of the Litany he loved to use, he was delivered from 'sudden death,' and at last he 'was not; for God took him.' He passed away on June 28th, 1877, in the fifty-ninth year of his age, and the thirty-seventh of his ministry.

(31.) SAMUEL DODGE; who was born at Manchester in 1841. Favoured with a godly parentage he received a pious training, and from his earliest years was blessed with serious thoughts and desires. At fifteen years of age he had an illness which deepened his religious impressions. Soon after his recovery he was led, with many other young persons at Gravel-Lane, Manchester, to seek the Lord with all his heart. He then obtained a sense of personal acceptance with God through faith in Christ, which he retained to his dying hour. From that time his life was adorned by those Christian graces which make piety lovely in the family and in the circle of friendship, and he grew in sound and intelligent Christian experience. His mental constitution was of the softer mould, and when grace was added to nature its gentle influence was a power for good.

In 1863 he was received as a probationer for our ministry, and after two years' preparation at Didsbury he entered on his ministerial work in the Ramsay Circuit, Isle of Man. Both there and in the Circuits where he subsequently laboured, his ministry was useful to the salvation and edification of many. His preaching was marked by intense reality, and a simple, unadorned communication of the truth as it is in Jesus. The bent of his mind was thoroughly practical, and in the use of the abilities given to him he sought to be a faithful servant of Christ. In his pastoral work he was diligent, gentle, and sympathetic, especially with the sick and needy. As a colleague he was kind, prudent, thoughtful, and was ready for all the work of a Methodist Preacher.

An illness that set in about six months before his death brought on a consumption, which cut short his career. Throughout his illness he was hopeful that he should, after a year of rest, again preach the Word of life, but foreseeing that the issue might be otherwise, he committed himself to God, and had a steadfast confidence in Christ as his all-sufficient Saviour. He said that his affliction was greatly sanctified to him, and if he desired to live, it was that he might with greater holiness and zeal preach the truth he loved. But his resignation to the Divine will never faltered. He said, 'I leave it all with Jesus.' He departed this life on the 11th of July, 1877, in the thirty-seventh year of his age, and the twelfth of his ministry.

(32.) JOHN IMISSON; who was born at Adwick-on-Dearne, March 14th, 1807. When about twenty-three years of age he was led to the Saviour through the influence of a pious mother. His penitence was deep, and it was some time before he could rest on Christ for salvation. From that time to the day of his death he walked 'in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost.' Soon after his conversion he began to call sinners to repentance, and in 1835 was accepted as a probationer for our ministry.

For forty years he laboured with great diligence and fidelity. He was greatly beloved in the Circuits to which he was appointed. His preaching was plain, but thoroughly evangelical and practical; his appeals to the hearts of his hearers were earnest and powerful. His labours were owned by the Head of the Church, and many will be the crown of his rejoicing 'in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at His coming.'

His last illness, though most painful, was borne with perfect patience and resignation. In the prospect of a speedy departure his mind was undisturbed, his faith unshaken; he often repeated 'Rock of Ages, cleft for me,' etc. 'O! the grace of God;' and spoke of the joyous reunion of friends in heaven.

He died at Hemsworth, July 13th, 1877, in the seventieth year of his age, and the forty-first of his ministry.

(33.) JOHN TALBOT; who was born in London in the year 1809. His parents carefully trained him 'in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.' At a very tender age he was powerfully wrought upon by the Spirit of God. When about fifteen years old, and while sitting under the thoughtful and impressive ministry of the late Rev. John Scott, he was led to dedicate himself to God. He now, with holy zeal, entered into various spheres of usefulness. Shortly after his conversion he became a Local Preacher, and having for three years employed his talents with increasing acceptance in this capacity, he was received as a probationer by the Conference of 1829. Throughout a lengthened career he faithfully served his generation by the will of God. He was a thoughtful and painstaking Minister, whose sermons, though not brilliant, were marked by solidity and compactness of thought, and were always instructive and edifying.

In important official positions, as Superintendent of a Circuit and Chairman of a District, he efficiently served the Connexion. Firmness and gentleness were distinguishing traits of his character, and integrity and uprightness kept him. Amiable in disposition, courteous in manner, gentlemanly in deportment, and endeavouring to follow peace without the sacrifice of purity, he was greatly beloved by many, and ever loyal to God, to his conscience and to the Church of his choice. At the Conference of 1875 he became a Supernumerary in the St. Helen's Circuit, where by personal labour he helped the work of the Lord to the last hour of his life, preaching twice on his last Sabbath on earth, and praying in his latest moments for each member of his family separately. He died at Rainhill, on Saturday, July 14th, 1877.

N.B.—The obituary notice of the Rev. David Hay, who died during the Conference, will be inserted in the Minutes of 1878.

2. In Ireland, four; viz.,—

(1.) Robert Hamilton, a native of Larne, in the County of Antrim. Having been converted in early life, he was received as a probationer for our ministry in the year 1836. He was stationed in some of our most laborious Circuits, and in several instances was favoured with a considerable amount of success. As a preacher he was earnest and practical, and his entire course was marked by undeviating faithfulness. He attended to every part of his work with great exactness, being especially diligent in visiting from house to house. He loved his work, and was most reluctant to retire from its active duties, even when much enfeebled by disease. He was a Supernumerary for a period of eight years, but afterwards resumed the Itinerant work. At the last Conference he found it necessary finally to retire, and was on his way from Castleblayney, where he had been stationed, to Belfast, where he intended to reside, when he became seriously ill in Clones; and there, after some weeks of patient suffering, he passed peacefully away, on the 2nd of September, 1876, in the sixty-seventh year of his age, and the forty-first of his ministry.

(2.) Charles Wood, of Magherafelt, who was born near Corlespratten, in the year 1826. From boyhood he was serious, and regularly attended a Class-meeting. He was convinced of sin at an open-air service conducted by the late Rev. Edward Johnston, on Sunday, 23rd June, 1848, and obtained peace at a prayer-meeting held on the same evening in a private house. Soon after his conversion he began to make himself useful. He was instrumental in the hands of God of much good, and in 1852 was received as a candidate for the Methodist ministry. As a preacher he was clear and definite, and delighted in upholding the leading doctrines of Methodism. As a pastor he was particularly conscientious in keeping his appointments; indeed his fidelity in this respect led him so to overtax his strength as very probably to hasten his end. Shortly after last Conference it was evident to his friends that his days were numbered. His last illness was severe and protracted, but he was divinely sustained. For a few days before his death he spoke little; but he derived much support and comfort from the assurance that 'all things work together for good to them that love God.' On the morning of his decease, when asked if he had any fears now that death seemed so near, he emphatically answered, 'No; why should I now fear?' He fell asleep in Jesus on the 11th of January, 1877, in the fifty-first year of his age, and the twenty-fifth of his ministry.

(3.) JOHN NELSON; who was born near Lisbellaw, and was baptized by the Rev. John Wesley on the occasion of his only visit to Lisbellaw, just ninety years ago. His parents were amongst the early friends of Methodism in Fermanagh; and from the day of his baptism his godly mother regarded him as, in a special sense, dedicated to the service of Christ. He was very early in life the subject of the special training of the Spirit, and in opening youth, in connection with a remarkable revival of religion at Lisbellaw, rejoiced in a sense of God's pardoning love, and became a devoted follower of the Saviour. His zeal and usefulness in the cause of Christ soon marked him out as intended by the Head of the Church for a wider sphere of service, and in the year 1809 he was received on trial by the Methodist Conference, and appointed to the Irish Mission,—a sphere of service which he occupied for several years with great success, and in which he had many precious opportunities of preaching the Word of life in the markets and fairs to his Roman Catholic fellow-countrymen, not a few of whom will be the crown of his rejoicing in the day of the Lord Jesus. For fifty years he occupied a prominent and honourable position in our ministry, filling some of our most important spheres of labour with more than ordinary acceptance and success. In several of the Circuits in which he laboured, his ministry was greatly owned of God in extensive revivals of religion, the fruit of which was in many instances rich and abiding. He was truly 'a workman needing not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth,' while as a pastor he watched for souls as one that must give an account; and in the day of Christ many will testify that he has not lived in vain. He was a man greatly beloved by his ministerial brethren, whom they delighted to honour, and who shared their highest esteem and confidence. Perhaps never had the Irish Conference a more loyal son, or a minister more generally beloved on the several Circuits on which he laboured. In spirit he was meek and gentle, and in manner kind and courteous; giving no offence in anything that the ministry might not be blamed. He was distinguished by a close walk with God, a transparent sincerity and uprightness which no one could even suspect of anything low or unworthy; and a gentleness which was 'not easily provoked.' He was 'an Israelite indeed, in whom' was 'no guile;' 'an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.'

During nearly twenty years of comparative retirement as a Supernumerary, he gladly laboured as his strength would allow, and exhibited a beautiful specimen of Christian old age, full of love to God and man; bright, and happy, and uncomplaining; full of hope in relation to the future of the Church and of the world; loving and being beloved, he calmly waited for his great change. His last illness was short and painless, and never was descent to the grave more gentle. His confidence in God was unwavering, and his hope full of immortality. As he entered the valley of death, again and again he repeated,—

'Walk with me through the dreadful shade,
And, certified that Thou art mine,
My spirit, calm and undismayed,
I shall into Thy hands resign;
No anxious doubt, no guilty gloom,
Shall damp whom Jesu's presence cheers;
My Light, my Life, my God, is come,
And glory in His face appears!'

One of the last things he said was, 'Give my best love to the Conference.' He lay in a gentle slumber for some hours, and on Sabbath evening, the 20th of May, 1877, entered into the heavenly rest, in the ninety-second year of his age, and the sixty-eighth of his ministry.

(4.) John Foster; who was born in Lisnaweery, in the County of Tyrone. His parents were godly Methodists, and brought him up in the fear of the Lord. He was converted to God when about twelve years old, and soon began to exercise his gifts in endeavouring to lead others to the same happy experience. Having laboured with success as a Local Preacher for some years, he was accepted as a candidate for the ministry by the Conference of 1833. As a preacher, he was plain, earnest, and faithful; as a pastor, he was diligent and sympathizing, giving special attention to the training of the young. In his own family he was gentle, unselfish and affectionate; and he was esteemed by all who knew him as an upright man, and a consistent, faithful, and devoted Minister of the Lord Jesus Christ. For some years before his death his health was declining, yet he laboured with indefatigable zeal unto the close of life. The final summons was unexpected; he filled his last appointment on Thursday, the 14th of June, 1877, and on the next Sabbath he passed suddenly and peacefully away, in the seventieth year of his age, and the forty-fourth of his ministry.

3. In our Foreign Missions, five; viz.,—

(1.) Donato Patucelli; who was born at a village on the lake of Garda, in 1811. At fourteen years of age he entered the Episcopal Seminary of Brescia to be educated for the priesthood, pursuing his studies subsequently at Milan, where, in 1838, he received ordination, and at the same time obtained from the University of Pavia the title of Professor of Italian Literature. In 1841 he became Private Secretary of the Bishop of Brescia. His talents as a preacher early attracted the attention of the Austrian Government, and in 1847 he was offered the Bishopric of Brescia, but rejected the offer from patriotic motives. Driven into exile in 1849, he took refuge in Switzerland, and settled in the Canton Ticino, as near to his beloved Italy as possible; where, from identity of language, he could still find a sphere for the exercise of his great oratorical powers.

In open war with the Papal system, though only half-enlightened as to the truth in Jesus, he soon fell under the Episcopal anathema. In 1855 he was excommunicated and suspended by the Curia of Milan, and twice his life was attempted by the blind instruments of Papal fanaticism. As soon as the war of 1859 had united Lombardy with the Italian Kingdom, he returned to his native province, and, fixing his residence in Milan, supported himself by teaching. He continued, however, to say mass occasionally, until, on the opening of our Methodist Mission in that city, the preaching of his old friend, Ferdinando Bosio, who had himself recently left the ranks of the Romish priesthood to embrace the ministry of a purer Gospel, drew him to frequent our services. He now found what he had during his whole previous life been darkly seeking, a salvation free, full, and present, 'by grace, through faith; not of works, lest any man should boast.' Nor did he delay to 'stir up the gift of God' that was in him; but eagerly sought to dedicate to the service of his Saviour his remarkable powers of easy and forceful speech. Of noble carriage, of genial and happy temperament, of disposition singularly affectionate and generous, he fulfilled a ministry which, though short in its term, won him much affection from his brethren, and much acceptance with the people of his charge. 'Would to God that I were twenty years younger!' was his frequent expression of the only trouble that seemed to cast a shadow over his cheerful spirit. After his conversion his grasp of the great saving doctrines of the Gospel was singularly clear and firm, and his sermons were as evangelical in substance as they were apt and vigorous in style. For two years before his death the premonitions of the disease that ultimately carried him off were frequent, and he himself was fully aware that the summons might come at any time, and would in all probability come suddenly. Yet his spirit was in no way perturbed, and when, in discourse or letter, he alluded to the nearing end, it was always with characteristic cheerfulness and confidence. He died while his brethren were assembled in their Annual District Meeting. Stricken into unconsciousness almost in a moment, there was time but for one last word of fraternal affection and of assurance that it was well with him; and then he 'fell on sleep,' in the sixty-sixth year of his age, and the eleventh of his ministry.

(2.) Gardener Scates; who was born at Mildenhall, Suffolk, August, 1843. When he was eighteen years of age he was converted to God through the instrumentality of Dr. and Mrs. Palmer, and from that time he felt it his duty to call men to repentance. In 1868 he was accepted as a candidate for the ministry, and, having been designated to the Mission work, was sent to Richmond, where he proved himself to be an earnest and successful student, working indeed beyond his strength. At the end of three years he was appointed to the Cape, and laboured for some years in the Cape Town (English) Circuit, where he endeared himself to all who knew him, and became exceedingly useful. At the Natal Conference, which he attended as one of the delegates from the Cape Town District, he accepted an appointment as Superintendent of the Diamond Fields, where his naturally delicate constitution suffered considerably. At the close of the District Meeting he left for the purpose of taking a few weeks' rest at Bloemfontein, but he was suddenly seized with typhoid fever, and died on February 15th, 1877. The work to which he had devoted his life occupied his thoughts whilst dying. On one occasion he said, 'The Gospel, the Gospel alone can meet the wants of the human race, because it touches every point of our character, and reaches to the well-spring of our being.' On another occasion he said, 'Let us serve God faithfully;' and then offered a prayer remarkable for simplicity and power, and closed with this personal allusion, 'O Lord, I give myself to Thee, to Thee!'

His Chairman says, 'We could ill spare him; he was a faithful Minister of the Lord Jesus Christ. His character, his working ability, his pulpit power, and his thoroughness made him a valuable fellow labourer.'

(3.) William Penrose; who was born November 25th, 1851, in Cornwall. He was converted to God, during a revival, at Liskeard, in the year 1867. His convictions soon led him to put forth efforts to save others. Being of an ardent temperament he boldly testified for Christ. Having completed his apprenticeship he removed to London, and, joining the Hornsey-road Society, at once found congenial occupation in the Sabbath-school. His talents and energy made themselves felt, and being accepted as a probationer for our ministry, he was sent to the Richmond College, where he completed two years of diligent and conscientious study. He said, 'Here I spent two of the most happy years of my life.' There being a call for a man for Western Africa, after much prayerful thought he cheerfully consented to go. He was appointed to Akrah, in the Gold Coast District, in 1874. He entered into this arduous field in the spirit of a genuine Missionary. He was resolute without presumption, cautious without timidity, and cheerful without levity. He grappled manfully with the complex difficulties of his work. Ever buoyant in spirit and spiritual in purpose, his life was one of unreserved consecration.

The Master greatly owned his labours. After some two years' service his health completely broke down. A change of climate became imperative. He reached this country considerably improved by the voyage. Though shaken by fever, hopes were entertained of a speedy recovery: but his work was done. Landing on the 12th of May, 1877, he became much worse on the 14th, and on the 22nd triumphantly passed away to be with Christ. During his last illness his conversation most plainly evidenced the ripened spirituality of his desires and hopes. 'Jesus is precious' were among the last words of this devoted young Missionary.

(4.) S. Somosoondrum, Native Minister; who died at Royapettah, Madras, May 25th, 1877, in the forty-fifth year of his age, and the fifteenth of his ministry. He was our first caste convert in Southern India. He was brought to decision for Christ through the teaching of the Rev. J. Hobday. Talking to the Missionary one day about peace with God and how it was to be obtained, he was asked what Jacob did, and replied, 'Wrestled with the angel.' On the following day, at dawn, after a whole night spent in prayer, he made his way to the Missionary's house, and in his eagerness to communicate his new-found joy he forgot the usual salutation, and burst forth with the exclamation, 'Sir, I have found the angel!' He was baptized by the Rev. E. E. Jenkins, in 1854. The details of his conversion were so remarkable as to render it almost classic in the history of our Church in the Madras District. The heroic courage and manly Christian bearing which he manifested during a season of severe persecution, and the unswerving fidelity to his convictions which he displayed when attempts were made by his relatives to turn him from the truth, encouraged others who were desirous of renouncing heathenism, yet feared to avow their convictions.

The influence of the example he then set is living still. The loving, Christ-like patience with which he endured persecution disarmed all ill-feeling, and won even the hearts of his embittered relatives, so much so that his parents and friends often sought his counsel when in difficulty. In after years he preached with great acceptance in Negapatam, the town from which he was hunted when he first put on the open confession of Christ. He was a man of more than ordinary scholarly attainments, and was connected with the Madras University. His preaching-talent was of a very high order; his sermons indicated a deep and accurate acquaintance with the Word of God, were intensely practical, and were delivered in a fervent, forceful manner. As a pastor he was exemplary, and his unobtrusive bearing and his abandonment to the Saviour were such as to win upon all with whom he associated. His influence over our students and converts was most powerful. In 1876 he had an attack of cholera, from the effects of which he never rallied. His death was most triumphant. After commending his family to the care of the Church, he fell asleep. His last words were, 'I die trusting in Jesus!'

(5.) P. NATHANIEL, Native Minister; who was one of our earliest converts from Hinduism in Bangalore. He was brought to God through the instrumentality of the Rev. Thomas Cryer, whose memory he cherished to the last with the greatest affection. After serving the Tamil Mission in Bangalore as schoolmaster and catechist for a number of years, he was received into the ministry in 1860. He did not possess eminent abilities, but was remarkable for simplicity and uprightness of Christian character, earnest zeal, singleness of purpose, and unwearied labours as a preacher and pastor, and for the godly influence he exercised as the head of a Christian household. In his later years, when blind and extremely feeble, he talked almost all day long of the love of Christ; and when he died in April, 1877, he left a precious testimony to the power of the Gospel to raise and bless the Hindu.

Q. V. Are there any OBJECTIONS to any of our Ministers, or Preachers on Trial?

A. They were examined, one by one.

Q. VI. What persons, who were in full Connexion with the Conference, have now CEASED TO BE RECOGNIZED as Ministers among us?

A. 1. THOMAS CLARK, JOSHUA HAWKINS, THEOPHILUS L. TAYLOR, and JOHN S. WILLIAMS, who have changed their doctrinal views.

2. ALFRED BEER, FRANCESCO CARDINI, ROBERT EARDLEY, B.A., JOHN LEAL, JOHN H. SCOTT, GEORGE SMITH (C), FREDERICK E. TOYNE, and RICHARD WRENCH, who have voluntarily retired from our work.

3. WILLIAM REEVE and JOHN WALTER who have also retired.

Q. VII. How are our Ministers and Preachers on Trial STATIONED for the ensuing year?

A. As follows; viz.,—

[N.B.—Each of the places mentioned in these Stations, and numbered consecutively from 1 to 794, is the head of a Circuit; and the Minister first named is the Superintendent.

The Superintendent and other Minister or Ministers, stationed in or appointed to the several Circuits undermentioned, is and are appointed by the Conference to preach and to perform all acts of religious worship and Methodist discipline, in each and every one of the Wesleyan-Methodist Chapels already erected, or to be erected, in each Circuit respectively, within the space of twelve calendar months, at such time or times, and in such manner, as to him or them shall seem proper; subject, nevertheless, to the Superintendent Minister.]

OFFICIAL APPOINTMENTS.

Q. IX. Whom do we appoint to be our Delegate in Ireland?

A. Our PRESIDENT, the REV. WILLIAM BURT POPE, D.D., or, in his unavoidable absence, one of the following Ministers:—the REV. ALEXANDER M'AULAY, Ex-President; the REV. JAMES TOBIAS, nominated by the Irish Conference; the REV. W. MORLEY PUNSHON, LL.D.; the REV. JOHN H. JAMES, D.D.

N.B. 1. The PRESIDENT, or other Minister, acting as Delegate under the authority of the preceding appointment, who shall preside at the next Conference in Ireland, shall exercise the powers confided to him under and by virtue of the thirteenth clause of Mr. Wesley's Deed Poll, dated the 28th of February, 1784.

2. The REV. ALEXANDER M'AULAY, the REV. W. MORLEY PUNSHON, LL.D., and the REV. JAMES H. RIGG, D.D., are appointed to accompany the President to the Conference in Ireland, which will commence in Dublin, on Wednesday, June 19th, 1878.

The following appointments are also made; viz.,—

1. The PRESIDENT is appointed to visit Scotland in the month of October, for the purpose of promoting the Missionary cause, and also of attending the Financial District Meeting. The REV. JOHN BEDFORD and the REV. FREDERIC W. MACDONALD are to accompany the President to Scotland.

2. The PRESIDENT is appointed to attend the Annual Meeting of the South-Wales District Committee, to be held at Carmarthen, in the spring of 1878. The REV. DR. WILLIAMS, the SECRETARY, is appointed to accompany the President.

3. The EX-PRESIDENT and the REV. JOHN W. GREEVES are appointed to attend the Annual Meeting of the North-Wales District Committee, to be held at Bangor, in the spring of 1878.

4. The EX-PRESIDENT is appointed to attend the next Annual Meeting of the Isle of Man District Committee, with power to appoint a substitute in the event of his inability to attend.

5. The Rev. James Hocart, Sen., is appointed the President of the next French Conference, to be held in Nîmes, in the month of May or June, 1878.

6. The Rev. Gervase Smith, D.D., is appointed our Representative to the next General Conference of the Australasian Wesleyan-Methodist Church, to be held at Sydney, in May, 1878, and to visit the several Colonies connected with that Conference.

6. The Conference adopts the following rules in relation to the Schools :—

(1.) In any case in which the Educational Allowance has been received by the parent, the claim upon the Schools' Fund shall be understood to have been met and satisfied for that year.

(2.) In all cases of an additional year being granted, on payment, to boys who have not been at school six years, the sum of £25 shall be paid, which sum shall be inclusive of the £6 6*s.* from the Children's Fund; but in all cases of a request for a year additional to the six years, the payment shall be £30, inclusive of the £6 6*s.* These payments shall be due in four instalments, one after each quarter day. This rule shall be construed in harmony with clause thirty-two of the Scheme of Management (see Appendix, No. III.).

(3.) For the convenience of the Officers of the Fund, the payment for education to both boys and girls shall commence at nine years instead of eight years, and be continued until fifteen years; the ninth year to be reckoned from the Christmas before payment.

(4.) The parents of boys and girls in the Schools are specially cautioned not to claim for them from the Children's Fund, much confusion having arisen in some cases from inattention to this rule.

7. The Conference directs that a certificate of health, signed by a medical practitioner, shall be required at the commencement of each term, in the case of all boys and girls received into, or returning to, our Connexional Schools.

8. The Conference adopts the following regulations in relation to the Schools for girls :—

(1.) That until as ample provision be made for the Connexional education of the daughters as for the sons of our Ministers, no girl shall be received into the Schools under twelve years of age, and that the time of continuance in the Schools be restricted to four years.

(2.) That in future each applicant be required to pass a preliminary examination, as in the case of boys.

9. Entrance Examinations :—

(1.) For Boys.—Reading. The Candidate must be able to read, with intelligence, a few lines of poetry, selected by the examiner.

Writing.—Small hand. Eight lines to be slowly dictated from a reading-book.

Arithmetic.—The four simple rules and the four compound rules (Money).

Geography.—Outlines of the Geography of England.

English Grammar.—To point out nouns, adjectives, and verbs.

(2.) For Girls.—Reading. The Candidate must be able to read, with intelligence, a few lines of poetry, selected by the examiner.

Writing.—Small hand. Eight lines to be slowly dictated from a reading-book. This will be also a test of spelling.

Arithmetic.—The four simple rules and the four compound rules. (Money and Weights and Measures.)

Geography.—Outlines of the Geography of Europe in general, particularly of England.

English Grammar.—To parse simple sentences correctly and readily.

History.—To have a fair knowledge of Bible History and of the History of England.

The Candidate must give evidence of skill in plain needlework.

10. Income and Expenditure.—(1.) On the recommendation of the Committee appointed at the last Conference, it was resolved to appoint a Committee, consisting of the Officers of the Schools' and Children's Funds, and a representative from the Governing Body of the School for Boys, and each Local Committee of the Schools for Girls, who shall meet at the close of each year, and review the expenditure of the year, make an estimate of the probable expenditure of the ensuing year, and report to the Conference.

(2.) The following Committee is appointed to meet during the year, and to consider the whole question, financial and otherwise, of Wesleyan-Methodist Education, other than primary, with a view to the solution of the difficulties which at present attend the administration of the Schools' Fund :—The PRESIDENT, EX-PRESIDENT, and SECRETARY of the Conference, the Ex-Presidents, the Treasurers and Secretaries of the Schools' Fund, the Treasurers and Secretary of the Children's Fund, the Treasurers and Secretary of the Education Committee, the Treasurer and Secretaries of the Governing Body of the Kingswood and Woodhouse-Grove School, the Governors and Head-Master of the School ; the HOME-MISSION AND CONTINGENT FUND.

Q. XVII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the HOME-MISSION AND CONTINGENT FUND?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee of Management, and of the Army and Navy Committee, and the Resolutions of the Committee of the Fund, held in Bristol, on Monday, July 23rd, 1877, and directs that those Resolutions, and the Returns from the Army and Navy and Reserve Forces, be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendixes, Nos. VI. and XI.)

2. In accordance with the foregoing, the Conference resolves:—

(1.) That the Home-Missionary Committee are directed to complete their Report on Lay Agency, and on the changes desirable in the Organization and Administration of the Fund with as little delay as possible. They are authorised to send copies of that Report to the May District Committees for consideration; and, after reviewing the suggestions of all the District Meetings on the questions which may be raised, they shall prepare a revised and complete Report for the next Conference.

(2.) Grants to increase Allowances.—That temporary Grants, for a period to be agreed upon between the Circuit and the Home-Missionary Committee, may be made to any Circuit, with the approval of the District Committee to which it belongs, to bring the Allowances of its Married Ministers up to £130. Such Grants are not to exceed, at the commencement, £1 for £1 raised in the Circuit, and are to be made on the condition that the Allowances shall not afterwards be reduced below £130.

(3.) Ministers' Houses.—That, in view of the embarrassment occasioned by the deficiency in the number of Ministers' Houses, the Conference directs the May District Meetings to consider how the number may be increased so as to secure that the supply shall equal the demand; and commends the following Resolution of the Leeds District Meeting in May last to their attention:—

> That, considering the great and increasing difficulties connected with providing Houses for newly-married Ministers, this District Committee suggests that the Conference should recommend Circuits to provide Houses for Married Ministers at the end of three years wherever practicable.

(4.) District Sustentation Funds.—That the following Resolutions be reprinted:—

> That receipts from the Surplus of District Sustentation Funds shall be administered on the following principles:—
> i. That the sum or sums so received shall not be used to relieve the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund of obligations which exist under present regulations, and that aid from such sum or sums shall not be confined to the claimant Circuits.
>
> ii. That such surplus receipts may be used in the encouragement of Sustentation Funds in the Districts, by making Grants to Committees of District Funds for their detailed Circuit distribution.

iii. That the Grant given in all cases shall be dependent upon there being a Sustentation Fund in the District, and upon the sum voted being met by at least an equal amount.

3. Considering the necessity of vigorous and sustained effort for the extension of our Home-Mission work, the Conference directs that in the Financial District Meetings and in the September Quarterly Meetings special attention shall be given to this subject, and that arrangements shall be made for holding as many Home-Missionary meetings as possible in the various Circuits, and for the appointment of Collectors, and the formation of Juvenile Home and Foreign Missionary Associations where they do not at present exist.

4. The Conference recommends that in every Circuit a Home-Missionary Committee and a Secretary be appointed to promote in detail systematic efforts to increase the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund.

5. Juvenile Home and Foreign Missionary Associations.—The Conference is glad to know that there has been a gratifying increase in the number of Juvenile Home and Foreign Missionary Associations during the year, and it entertains the hope that these useful Associations—aiding at once our Home and Foreign Missions—will be established in all our Circuits.

The Conference is decidedly of opinion, that wherever sums, large or small, are collected avowedly for the Foreign or Home Missions, the whole amount should be remitted to the Treasurers of these Funds respectively, to be administered under the direction of their Committees: and that sums so remitted to the Home-Mission Fund should entitle a Circuit to favourable consideration, if it request a Grant for any effort within its boundaries which may be a legitimate object for the application of moneys collected for Home-Missions. (Minutes, 1863.)

On this subject the following modification has been made:—

In the case of Circuits which are not in a position to ask for the appointment of a Home-Missionary Minister, and to give the pledge required, but which feel the necessity of adopting some plan of Home-Missionary operations, the subjoined allocation shall be allowed:—

One-third of the sums received by Juvenile Home and Foreign Missionary Associations, to be paid to the Funds of the Foreign Missionary Society, 'it being expressly understood that in every case the contribution to the Foreign Missions shall be at least equal to what has been presented from Christmas Offerings, on the average of several preceding years:'

One-third to the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund:

One-third to the Circuit, to be expended in support of local movements of a directly Home-Missionary character, under the direction of the Superintendent, and of a Committee to be appointed at the December Quarterly Meeting.

In all other cases the former Minute of the Conference remains in force.

6. The Conference deems it expedient to repeat more emphatically the Regulation made in 1875:—

That Grants for Removal Expenses, as well as for Afflictions, shall be submitted to the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit on which the amount will be charged, and be approved by the District Meeting to which that Circuit belongs.

N.B.—Removal Expenses are charged on the Circuit from which the Removal has taken place.

7. Home-Mission Regulations.—Each Home-Missionary Minister is directed, with the concurrence of the Superintendent Minister, to forward with his Journal, signed as now by the Superintendent, to the General Secretary, for the information of the Committee, a copy of the Circuit-Plan; and a quarterly statement of the number of full and accredited Church-members, and of persons on trial, in connection with the place or places specially assigned to him as his Mission-District.

8. Mr. John Vanner and the Rev. John Bond are re-appointed the Treasurers; the Rev. Alexander M'Aulay is re-appointed the General Secretary; and the Rev. John W. Greeves the Financial Secretary. Mr. Greeves is also re-appointed the Deputy-Treasurer.

The Conference adopts the Report of the Committee of Distribution. (See Appendix, No. VII.)

ARMY AND NAVY COMMITTEE.

The Committee for counsel and direction relative to Wesleyan-Methodists in the Army and Royal Navy consists of those members of the Home-Missionary Committee of Management who reside in London, with the addition of the Rev. Richard Hardy and the Rev. Richard W. Allen, and Captain Smith.

The Rev. Alexander M'Aulay is the Secretary of this Committee.

All communications on subjects relating to Methodism in the Army or Royal Navy are to be addressed to the Rev. Alexander M'Aulay, Wesleyan Centenary Hall, Bishopsgate-street Within, London, E.C.

RELATION OF MINISTERS APPOINTED TO THE ARMY AND ROYAL NAVY TO THE SUPERINTENDENTS OF CIRCUITS.

The Conference has directed that the following Regulations shall be reprinted :—

1. That when a Minister is appointed for the benefit of Wesleyans in the Army or in the Royal Navy, or both, and is supported by the Army and Navy Committee,—

If the men attending Parade Services have such services specifically held for them, all such services shall be conducted by the Minister especially appointed for their benefit.

If the men are marched to our ordinary forenoon services, in any of our Chapels, the appointments of the Army and Navy Minister, and his work on Sundays, shall be arranged between the Army Committee, through their Secretary, and the Superintendent Minister of the Circuit in each case.

2. That the whole of the week days shall be employed by the Army and Navy Minister in his specific work, who is not to have other work laid upon him without his consent.

3. That, in all things connected with his military engagements, the Army and Navy Minister shall correspond with, and act under the direction of, the Army Committee; and, in all other ecclesiastical matters, he shall act in concert with the Superintendent and the other Ministers of the Circuit in our usual way, attending the weekly meeting of the Ministers of the Circuit in which he may reside. (See Minutes, 1870, Vol. xviii., p. 152.)

The Conference resolves that the Ministers who are appointed to labour in the Army and Royal Navy are not to be considered as Ministers of the Circuit where they may be stationed, so as to be claimed for Circuit work, unless special arrangements be made, in any case, with the Army Committee and with the Conference. After their proper work has been efficiently done, they may, by mutual arrangement, give such help to the Circuit as they may be enabled to do, and as they have invariably done in times past. Their personal conduct is to be under the cognisance of the Superintendent of the Circuit and the District Meeting, with the before-mentioned conditions. (See Minutes, 1874, p. 213.)

WORN-OUT MINISTERS' AND MINISTERS' WIDOWS' AUXILIARY FUND.

Q. XVIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the affairs of the Auxiliary Fund?

A. 1. The Conference adopts the Report and Resolutions of the Committee, and directs that they be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix, No. VIII.)

2. The affectionate thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. John Rattenbury, for the great service which he has rendered to the Connexion, and in particular, to his brethren in the ministry, by collecting, during the last three years, so large a sum as £90,000, by his own personal exertions and private representations, in augmentation of the resources of the Auxiliary Fund, and on behalf of the Supernumerary Ministers' Widows.

3. In accordance with Resolution 2 of the Committee at its meeting held on July 20th, 1876, the Conference directs that one public Collection, at least, shall be made in all our Chapels, on behalf of this Fund.

4. The Conference resolves that in the proposed scale of allowances to Ministers' Widows twelve pounds be substituted for eleven.

5. Mr. John Napier and the Rev. John Rattenbury are requested to continue in the office of Treasurers; and the Rev. Henry H. Chettle to continue in that of Secretary.

6. The following persons are appointed the Committee of Management for the ensuing year; who shall superintend the general working of this Fund, and also consider and decide upon such peculiar cases of affliction or distress, among the Supernumerary Ministers or Ministers' Widows, as may be recommended by the District Committees for special and occasional relief:—

7. The Conference resolves that, in some rare cases, a fourth year's residence in the Institution shall be allowed to specially deserving Students, but that in no instance shall such privilege be granted without the express sanction of the Conference.

8. The Conference, having regard to the special requirements of Missionary Students who may be intended for service in the East, resolves further, that such Students shall be allowed to remain in the Institution an additional year after the conclusion of the usual term, with a view to their instruction in subjects having direct reference to the work for which they are designated.

9. In the case of Candidates for the Ministry, who are on the President's List of Reserve, and have been sent into Circuits during the year, the District Meetings to which they may belong are directed to express an opinion as to the desirability or otherwise of their admission to the Institution.

EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

Q. XX. What are the Resolutions of the Conference respecting the EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY?

A. 1. The Conference resolves that the Special Examination of Candidates for the Ministry shall be conducted by a Committee in two Sections, having charge of Examinations to be held simultaneously at Richmond and Didsbury respectively.

2. That the two Sections of this Committee shall be constituted as follows:—

(1.) THE SOUTHERN SECTION, to meet at Richmond, shall consist of the President and the Secretary of the Conference, the Ex-Presidents resident in London, the Secretaries of the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society (one excepted), the Tutors and Governor of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution, the General Secretary of the Theological Institution, the Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch; the Connexional Editor; the Financial Secretary of the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund; one of the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee; the Revs. Dr. Rigg, Dr. Moulton and S. J. P. Dunman; together with twelve other Ministers of the two London Districts, six of whom shall be annually elected by the District Committee of each of the said Districts in May.

(2.) The Northern Section, to meet at Didsbury, shall consist of the Ex-President of the Conference; the Ex-Presidents living in the Manchester and adjoining Districts; one of the Secretaries of the Missionary Society; the Tutors and Governors of the Didsbury and Headingley Branches of the Theological Institution; the Local Secretary of the Didsbury Branch; one of the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee; the Rev. David C. Ingram; together with twenty-one Ministers of the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts, seven of whom shall be annually elected by the District Committee of each of the said Districts in May.

3. That, in future, Candidates from the two London Districts shall be summoned to the Southern Examination, and Candidates from the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts to the Northern Examination: all other Candidates shall be summoned at the discretion of the General Examination Secretaries, with due regard to the cost of travelling.

4. That two Sub-Committees, to read and report on the manuscript sermons of the Candidates, shall be annually appointed as follows:—one for the Southern Section, consisting of six Ministers, three of whom shall be chosen by the District Committee of each of the two London Districts from among the Ministers elected by it as members of the Examination Committee; and another for the Northern Section, consisting of six Ministers, two of whom shall be chosen by the District Committees of the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts respectively, from among the Ministers elected by them as members of the Examination Committee.

5. That the Literary Examination Paper for the Examination shall be prepared in succession by the Classical and Mathematical Tutors of each of the three Branches of the Theological Institution; and that the Theological Paper for the Examination shall be prepared in succession by each of the three Theological Tutors of the said three Branches.

6. That the Classical and Mathematical Tutors of the Richmond Branch shall be the Literary Examiners for the Southern Section of the Committee; and that the Classical and Mathematical Tutors of the Didsbury and Headingley Branches shall be the Literary Examiners for the Northern Section of the Committee.

7. That the Examiners of the Papers in Theology written by the Candidates shall be appointed as follows:—each of the London, the Liverpool, and the Manchester Districts shall appoint one Examiner from among the Ministers elected by it as Members of the Examination Committee; thus providing two Examiners for each of its two Sections.

8. The General Secretary of the Theological Institution and the Rev. Charles H. Kelly are appointed General Secretaries of the Examination Committee.

9. The Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution and the Rev. S. J. P. Dunman are appointed to act as Examination Secretaries for the Southern Section; and the Local Secretary of the Didsbury Branch and the Rev. David C. Ingram to act as Examination Secretaries for the Northern Section.

EDUCATION.

Q. XXI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of Wesleyan Education?

A. 1. The Conference adopts the Report and Resolutions of the Education Committee of Review, held in Bristol, on Friday, July 20th, 1877; and directs that they be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix, No. X.)

2. In adopting the Report of the Committee of Review, the Conference expresses its opinion that, in view of the working of existing arrangements for Public Elementary Education, it is highly desirable that the number of Wesleyan Day Schools should at least be maintained. The Conference therefore strongly recommends that before any steps are taken towards the closing or transfer of any Wesleyan Day School, the proposal to close or transfer it be communicated to the Education Committee, in order that they may have an opportunity of suggesting alternative proposals for the consideration of Local Managers.

3. The Conference directs that the Statistics of the Day and Sunday Schools of each Circuit be read in the March Quarterly Meeting, but that if sufficient time be not then available for the discussion of the Statistics and for inquiry into the state of the Schools, such discussion and inquiry shall take place in the June Quarterly Meeting.

4. The Conference directs that the Education Schedules, having been duly filled up and presented to the March Quarterly Meeting, shall be sent by the Superintendents to the Education Secretary of the District not later than April 20th.

5. The Conference directs all who are contemplating the erection or alteration of premises for the establishment of new Day Schools to communicate with the Education Committee for the purpose of receiving counsel as to their projected undertakings, and the adaptation of the premises to the system of instruction designed to be adopted.

6. (1.) In view of the interpretation which is put upon Section xxiii. of the Elementary Education Act by the Lords of the Committee of Council, to the effect that any transfer of a School, settled upon our School Model Deed No. I., to a School Board, for any term whatever, for the purposes of such School Board, must be sanctioned not only by the signatures of the Trustees, but by the Conference, testified by the President in writing; the Conference directs that in every case in which the transfer of such a School is proposed, the Superintendent, with the Managers and Trustees acting in concert, shall first consult the Education Committee on the subject; and that if, for reasons given, that Committee recommends such a transfer, the rules of the Conference in relation to the sale of Trust Property shall be applicable thereto; the Education Committee considering all questions affecting School management, and the Chapel Committee considering questions affecting Trust Property.

(2.) In respect to Schools settled on the School Model Deed No. II., or on any other Deed by which the consent of the Conference is rendered necessary for the alienation of property which it is proposed to let or lease to School Boards, the Conference recommends the Trustees to act upon the same principles as those laid down in the foregoing Clause in relation to Schools settled on the School Model Deed No. I.

(3.) In all cases of transfer which may hereafter occur, the Conference recommends that provision be made in the instrument of transfer to secure the resumption of the premises by the Trustees without their being required to reimburse any money laid out upon them by the School Board solely for its own purposes.

7. The Conference directs that the October Examination of Pupil-Teachers in Religious Knowledge be held on the last Saturday in October, instead of on the first Saturday, as previously arranged.

8. The very cordial thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. Theophilus Woolmer (A), Mr. Frederick Howard, and Mr. William Vanner, for their services as Treasurers. The Rev. Theophilus Woolmer (A) having found it necessary to retire from the office of Treasurer of the Fund, which he has held during the last six years, the Conference records its deep and grateful sense of the great value of the services which he has rendered as Treasurer, and its appreciation of the eminent ability, sound judgment, and unfailing courtesy which he has displayed in that capacity.

9. The Rev. John Walton, M.A. (who is now appointed), Mr. Frederick Howard, and Mr. William Vanner (who are re-appointed), are the Treasurers of the Education Fund. The special duty of Mr. W. Vanner shall be the charge of the Sunday-School Union branch of the finance.

10. The Rev. George W. Olver, B.A., is re-appointed Principal of the Southlands Training College, Battersea.

11. The Rev. George O. Bate is re-appointed the Secretary of the Education Committee.

12. The Rev. Charles H. Kelly is re-appointed the Secretary of the Connexional Sunday-School Union.

N.B. (1.) All communications relating to Day Schools and Teachers, Training Colleges, Middle-Class Schools, and General Education affairs, are to be addressed to the Rev. George O. Bate, Wesleyan Training College, Horseferry-Road, Westminster, S.W.

(2.) All communications relating to the Connexional Sunday-School Union are to be addressed to the Rev. Charles H. Kelly, 2, Ludgate-Circus Buildings, London, E.C.

13. The Education Committee shall consist of the following persons; viz.,—the President and the Secretary of the Conference; the Ex-President; the Treasurers; the Secretary of the Committee; the Principals of the two Branches of the Normal Institution; the Secretary of the Connexional Sunday-School Union; the Principal of the Children's Home; the Book Steward; the Connexional Editor; and the

with the Principal of the Home; Mr. James Barlow, J.P., Treasurer of the Lancashire Branch; Mr. John R. Barlow, B.A., Honorary Secretary of the Lancashire Branch, and Mr. Francis Horner, the Honorary Secretary; who are, ex-officio, members of the Committee.

The following Gentlemen, who are members of other Christian communions, have, with the approval of the Conference, consented to serve on this Committee; viz., the Rev. William Tyler, Mr. R. J. Jenks, Mr. James T. M'Dougall, and Mr. John M'Gregor, M.A.

N.B.—All communications on the business of the CHILDREN'S HOME should be addressed to the REV. T. BOWMAN STEPHENSON, B.A., 6, Church-terrace, Bonner-road, Victoria-Park, London, E.

Post Office Orders should be made payable at the General Office, London. Cheques should be crossed 'The City Bank.'

RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE OF THE LORD'S DAY.

Q. XXIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on receiving the Report of the LORD'S-DAY COMMITTEE?

A. 1. The Conference receives with gratitude the Report now presented; and, while thankfully recognising and welcoming every indication of a growing regard for the day of God in this and other lands, rejoices with especial satisfaction in the formation of an International Confederation of Lord's Day Societies for the revival in Europe of reverence for, and observance of, the Lord's Day upon the basis of Holy Scripture; and, in response to the appeal made to them for the representation of Wesleyan Methodism in the National Central Committee, appoints the REV. WILLIAM H. RULE, D.D., with the Secretaries, to take part in this hopeful and auspicious movement.

2. The Conference also rejoices to hear that the efforts made, during the year, to secure the closing of Public-houses in England and Ireland on the Lord's Day have met with so much favour and support, both within Parliament and throughout the country, as to encourage and sustain the confidence of final and complete success in this conflict with one of the greatest evils of our times. It is thankful also to learn that the renewed attempt to effect the opening, by direct legislative sanction, of the State Museums and Art Galleries has again been so signally and decisively defeated ; and, impressed with the importance of upholding in its integrity the Divine claims of the Sabbath, reminds all the members of our Church of their solemn obligation, and high privilege, to protect the sacred day against encroachment and attack, and keep it with religious care.

3. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. George Maunder and the Rev. John Baker, M.A., for their faithful services during the past year. The Conference receives with deep regret the retirement of the senior Secretary, the Rev. George Maunder, and gratefully records the valuable services which, with unfailing judgment and zeal, he has for many years rendered in this important Department, and appoints the Rev. John Baker, M.A., and the Rev. William Hudson, the Secretaries of the Lord's-Day Committee for the ensuing year.

The following Ministers and Gentlemen shall be the Committee for the next year:—The President and the Secretary of the Conference; the Ex-President; the Secretaries ;

Rev. Thomas Allen,
—— William Arthur,
—— Robert Balshaw,
—— James Chalmers,
—— Thomas Chope,

EXAMINATION OF PREACHERS ON TRIAL.

Q. XXIV. What directions does the Conference give concerning the Examination of PREACHERS ON TRIAL?

A. 1. The Conference resolves,—

(1.) That the Examination of Preachers on trial shall be conducted by a Connexional Board of Examiners, to consist of one Examiner in each subject contained in the course of reading prescribed for the four years of probation.

(2.) That, in addition to the Probationers' Examination Committee, two General Examination Secretaries shall be appointed.

(3.) That arrangements shall be made at each Financial District Meeting for a Central Examination of Preachers on trial in each District, or more than one if necessary; at which Central Examination or Examinations the Probationers in that District shall attend. In the event of any Preacher on trial being unable to pay the necessary travelling expenses, they shall be defrayed, together with other expenses of the Examination, from the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund, and from the Theological Institution Fund, in such proportions as the Committees of those Funds may decide.

(4.) That at each Financial District Meeting a District Probationers' Examination Secretary shall be appointed, or more than one, so as to provide a Secretary to take charge of each Central Examination in the District; and that the District Secretary shall be held responsible for the efficient conduct of the Central Examination. Full and clear instructions as to the course to be pursued are to be forwarded to the District Secretaries by the General Secretaries.

(5.) That the Examination shall take place throughout the Connexion on the same day in the first week of April.

(6.) That the Examination-Papers, prepared under the direction of the Committee, shall be sent by the General Secretaries to each District Examination Secretary, whose duty it shall be to distribute them at the Central Examination, and by the earliest post transmit to the General Secretaries the Papers written by the several Probationers at those Examinations.

(7.) That the Probationers' Papers shall be forwarded by the General Secretaries to the Examiners for valuation, and that each Examiner shall send to them the results of his valuation of the Papers shown by numbers, together with any remarks upon them which he may think desirable. In the case of the North and South Wales Districts, such variations from the foregoing arrangements are permitted as the Examination Secretaries find necessary.

(8.) That the General Secretaries shall compile from the returns of the Examiners a complete Report upon the reading of each Probationer, and forward it to the District Examination Secretary, to be presented by him to the May District Meeting, together with such remarks on the Examination of the Preachers on trial in the District as he may think desirable. The numbers obtained by each Preacher on trial in the several subjects of examination shall be entered on the District Minutes. The Resolutions of the District Meetings on the Examination of Preachers on trial shall be forwarded to the General Secretaries.

(9.) That the General Secretaries shall prepare and present to the Conference a General Report upon the Examination of the Preachers on trial. An Abstract of this Report shall be printed in the Minutes, and the Report itself shall be printed and sent to all Chairmen of Districts, to the Ministers who form the Board of Examiners, and to every Preacher on trial.

2. The following Ministers are appointed the Probationers' Examination Committee; viz., the Theological and Classical Tutors of the three Branches of the Theological Institution, the Connexional Editor, the two General Examination Secretaries, the Revs. Dr. Rigg, Benjamin Hellier, and George W. Olver, B.A. The Rev. Dr. Moulton is re-appointed the Secretary of this Committee.

3. The Rev. George O. Bate and Dr. Moulton are appointed the two General Examination Secretaries.

4. The following are the subjects of Examination for the year 1877—8; viz,—

(1.) For Preachers in the first year of trial:—

i. Pearson on the Creed. Article II.
ii. Paley's Evidences.
iii. The Acts of the Apostles.
iv. In Greek, St. John i.—iv.

(2.) For those in the second year:—

i. Rev. Dr. Williams on the Epistle to the Hebrews.
ii. Luthardt's 'Fundamental Truths.'
iii. Westcott's 'Bible in the Church.'
iv. St. Luke's Gospel.
v. In Greek, Acts vii.—xii.
vi. In Hebrew, Joshua i.—vi.

(3.) For those in the third year:—

i. Wesley's Sermons, i.—xxx.
ii. Luthardt's 'Saving Truths.'
iii. Butler's Analogy. Part I.
iv. Genesis.
v. Lightfoot on Colossians and Philemon.
vi. In Hebrew, Psalms xi.—xviii.

(4.) For those in the fourth year:—

i. Broadus' Homiletics.
ii. Rev. T. Jackson's 'Institutions of Christianity.'
iii. Butler's Analogy. Part II.
iv. St. John's Gospel.
v. In Greek, Romans v.—viii.
vi. In Hebrew, Isaiah i.—v.

5. The following are the subjects of Examination for the year 1878—9; viz.,—

(1.) For Preachers in the first year of trial:—

i. Pearson on the Creed. Article II.
ii. Angus' Bible-Handbook. Part I.
iii. The Acts of the Apostles.
iv. In Greek, St. John v.—viii.

(2.) For those in the second year:—

i. Wesley's Appeals.
ii. Rev. Dr. Williams on the Epistle to the Romans.
iii. Westcott's 'Gospel of the Resurrection.'
iv. St. Matthew's Gospel.
v. In Greek, Acts xiii.—xvii.
vi. In Hebrew, Exodus xx.—xxiv.

(3.) For those in the third year:—

i. Wesley on Predestination.
ii. Fernley Lecture by the Rev. Dr. Pope.
iii. Butler's Analogy. Part I.
iv. Genesis.
v. In Greek, 1 Timothy.
vi. In Hebrew, Psalms xix.—xxvi.

(4.) For those in the fourth year:—

i. Broadus' Homiletics.
ii. History of the Christian Church during the Second Century.
iii. Butler's Analogy. Part II.
iv. St. John's Gospel.
v. In Greek, Romans i.—v., with Dr. Vaughan's notes.
vi. In Hebrew, Isaiah xl.—xliii.

6. All who read Greek and Hebrew are required to take the subjects given in these languages; but those who take the subjects in both languages are exempted from the examination in the Books of Scripture in the English Version.

7. All Probationers whom the President of the Conference shall send into the work before Christmas, 1877, shall be examined in the subjects of the First Year.

8. The day of Examination for the ensuing year is to be April the 3rd, 1878.

9. Should any Probationer be prevented by illness, or otherwise, from attending the Annual Examination, the Chairman of the District in which he may be stationed shall, in concert with the General Secretaries, make suitable provision for his examination.

10. The Conference sees no sufficient reason for the exemption of those brethren who have formerly been Ministers in other Churches, from the usual course of reading and examination prescribed by the Conference for Preachers on Trial, and directs that they be required to observe such regulations.

11. The following Ministers are appointed the Board of Examiners for the ensuing year; viz.,—the Revs. Thomas Akroyd, John S. Banks, Arminius Burgess, Samuel Coley, William Davison, George G. Findlay, B.A., John D. Geden, Thomas B. Goodwin, Richard Green, Benjamin Gregory, Stephen P. Harvard, Benjamin Hellier, Ebenezer E. Jenkins, M.A., John Martin (A), Dr. Moulton, Frederick P. Napier, B.A., George W. Olver, B.A., Dr. Osborn, George Oyston, B.A., William T. Radcliffe, G. Stringer Rowe, Samuel Evans Rowe, John V. B. Shrewsbury, Jacob Stephenson, B.A., James D. Tetley, William J. Tweddle, Dr. Williams, and Robert N. Young.

12. The hearty thanks of the Conference are presented to the Board of Examiners for their valuable services during the past year.

EXTENSION OF METHODISM IN GREAT BRITAIN.

Q. XXV. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of the Fund for the Extension of Methodism in Great Britain?

A. 1. The Conference adopts the Report of the Committee for the Extension of Methodism in Great Britain, and directs that an Abstract of the same be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix, No. XII.)

The Conference expresses its satisfaction that the sum of £41,051 has now been promised to the Fund, and that the Committee have thus been enabled to begin the distribution of Grants. It trusts that the Committee will not relax its efforts to obtain a still larger support to this Fund, in order that, by its assistance, all those necessitous localities which it was originally designed to benefit may ultimately be provided with suitable places of worship.

2. Sir Francis Lycett and Mr. William Mewburn are re-appointed the Treasurers of this Fund. The Rev. Theophilus Woolmer (A) is re-appointed the Secretary. All communications on the subject of this Fund should be addressed to him at 11, Wickham Road, New-Cross, London, S.E.

TEMPERANCE.

Q. XXVI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of Temperance?

A. 1. Considering the magnitude of the evil of Intemperance, and the repeated declarations of previous Conferences that the Temperance work of Methodism ought to be further organized and developed, the Conference adopts the Schemes for Bands of Hope and Circuit Temperance Organizations which have been under the careful consideration of the Temperance Committee for the last two years, and directs that these Schemes be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix, No. XVI.)

The Conference further expresses an earnest hope that in the working of these Regulations the spirit of generous conciliation in which they have been prepared will be constantly observed by all classes of our people.

2. The following Ministers and Laymen are appointed the Committee for the next year; viz.:—

The President of the Conference,	Rev. T. Bowman Stephenson;
The Secretary of the Conference,	Mr. W. S. Allen, M.P.,

Marriage Premiums are to be paid to the Steward, the Rev. Charles Haydon.

Subscriptions are to be paid, through the Financial Secretaries of Districts, not later than the first week of the Conference. Arrears are to be remitted to the Secretary, the Rev. Peter C. Horton.

The Annuities are paid by the Rev. Charles Haydon.

Resolved, That the special thanks of the Meeting be respectfully presented for the following very acceptable Donations and Legacy to the Funds of the Society, viz.,—The Wesleyan Methodist Newspaper Company, for the 'Watchman' and 'Recorder,' £125. A Gentleman, on Annuity, in addition to £120 already given, £140. Legacy of the late Mrs. Brocklehurst, widow of the late Rev. William Brocklehurst, £5. A Lady, by the Rev. C. Haydon, Donation on Annuity, in addition to £500 previously given, £200.

LAY REPRESENTATION IN THE CONFERENCE.

The Conference, having carefully considered the Report of the Mixed Committee appointed last year, to which certain recommendations of the Mixed Committee of the previous year were referred, now adopts the following Scheme of Lay Representation, and directs that it be brought into operation at the Conference of 1878:—

I. The Conference, when considering such matters as are hereinafter declared to be within the province of Ministers and Laymen acting conjointly, shall consist of the President of the Conference, and of 240 Ministers and 240 Laymen.

(i.) The Ministerial Members of the Conference when the Lay Representatives are present shall be, in addition to the President and all other Members of the Legal Conference for the time being who shall have declared at the May Meeting of the District Committee their intention to attend the Conference:—

(a) Any Assistant Secretary of the Conference not being a member of the Legal Conference.

(b) All Chairmen of Districts in Great Britain, not being members of the Legal Conference.

(c) Six Ministers in Full Connexion, stationed in Foreign Districts, who may be in England at the time of the sitting of the Conference. The Conference when consisting of Ministers only shall determine in what manner such Ministers shall be chosen; or if there be not six such Ministers in England at the time of the sittings of the Conference, in what manner their places shall be supplied.

(d) If, in any year, any Department would not, in the judgment of the Conference, be adequately represented by Members of the Legal Conference, provision shall be made for the Ministerial Representation of such Department by the preceding Conference when consisting of Ministers only.

(e) The remaining Ministerial Members of the Conference, when composed of Ministers and Laymen, shall be elected at the Annual Meetings in May of the District Committees in Great Britain, as follows: —The Ministerial Members of each District Committee shall elect from their own number so many Ministers as, by the allocation of the Conference preceding, are entitled to attend the ensuing Conference. From the Ministers so elected, the Ministerial Members of each District Committee shall elect by vote, taken by ballot after nomination, so many Ministers as were allocated by the preceding Conference to represent such District in the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen.

N.B.—The newly-elected members of the Legal Conference in each year shall be members of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen.

(ii.) No Layman shall be eligible as a Representative, whether elected annually by the Conference or by the May Meeting of the District Committee, unless he be a Member of Society of five years' continuous standing, and, at the time of his election by the Conference or nomination in the District Committee, a holder of office as a Trustee of Connexional Property, a member of a Circuit Quarterly Meeting, or a member of a District Committee. Any Layman nominated in a District Committee must be a Member of Society in some Circuit within that District.

(a) One-eighth of the Lay Representatives shall be elected annually by the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen; but in the case of the first Conference to be held after the adoption of this Scheme, by the preceding Conference. This number shall in all cases include the Lay Treasurers of the following General Connexional Funds—namely, the Foreign Missions Fund, the Schools' Fund, the Chapel Fund, the Metropolitan Chapel Building Fund, the Children's Fund, the Home Mission and Contingent Fund, the Auxiliary Fund, the Theological Institution Fund, the Education Fund, and the Fund for the Extension of Methodism in Great Britain, for the time being. One-third of the remaining number elected in the first instance by the Conference shall retire at the end of the first year; one-third at the end of the second year; and one-third at the end of the third year. This arrangement for retirement in rotation shall be continued from year to year, and the Lay Representatives so retiring shall not be immediately eligible for re-election by the Conference.

(b) For the present, the election of the remaining Lay Representatives to the Conference shall be by the separate vote of the Laymen, taken by ballot after nomination, in the May Meetings of the District Committees; such nomination to be by the Lay Members only. The Circuit Stewards of each Circuit shall be called upon at the March Quarterly Meeting to declare their ability and willingness to attend the ensuing Annual Meeting of the District Committee in May, or the contrary. If they, or either of them, shall declare inability or unwillingness to attend the said District Committee, the Quarterly Meeting shall have the right of electing by and from its own members, and by open vote, a Representative or Representatives to supply the vacancy or vacancies so created.

(c) The number of Laymen to be elected in each District shall be determined by each preceding Conference, when consisting of Ministers and Laymen; but, in the case of the first Conference to be held after the adoption of this Scheme, by the preceding Conference.

II. The business to be transacted by the Conference when consisting of Ministers only shall be completed before that which is to be transacted by Ministers and Laymen conjointly is entered upon.

III. The deliberations of the Conference, when consisting of Ministers and Laymen, shall be confined to the duly-appointed members of that Conference; but any Minister permitted by the District Committee to attend the Conference when composed of Ministers only, may be present during the Sessions of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen; and the Lay Members of Connexional Committees may be present during the proceedings of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen. Seats for the purpose shall be reserved for Ministers and Laymen.

The admission of any other persons shall be determined and arranged according to circumstances, at the discretion of the Conference.

IV. The following subjects shall remain within the exclusive province of the Conference when consisting of Ministers only, viz.:—

(i.) The formal constitution of the Conference: Filling up of vacancies in the Legal Conference: Election of the President and Secretary: And the appointment of other Officers of the Conference.

(ii.) Ministerial Lists: Admission and Continuance of Preachers on Trial; Arrangements for the Examination of Candidates and of Preachers on Trial; Admission into full Connexion, and Ordination.

(iii.) All Questions affecting Ministerial Character and Ability, and of Discipline arising thereupon, or in any wise relating thereto.

(iv.) All Final Appeals in matters of Discipline relating either to Ministers or Members.

(v.) Ministers becoming Supernumeraries: Supernumeraries returning to the work.

(vi.) Obituaries.

(vii.) Stations: and all Appointments of Ministers.

(viii.) Pastoral consideration of the number and state of the Societies, and Pastoral Address.

(ix.) Pastoral Reports: Kingswood and Woodhouse-Grove School, Clapton and Southport Schools, Sheffield and Taunton Colleges, the Leys School, Cambridge, and any similar Institution.

(x.) Supervision of Connexional Literature.

(xi.) Reception of Addresses, and Preparation and Adoption of Replies.

(xii.) Official Appointments, Deputations, and Delegations.

(xiii.) Conduct of Public Worship, in accordance with the rules and usages of the Connexion.

(xiv.) Time and Place of holding the next Conference, and the Order of its Business.

(xv.) And all Ministerial and Pastoral subjects of like nature with any of those specified in this Resolution, or affecting the Ministerial or Pastoral Supervision of the Connexion.

N.B.—It is understood that the Management of the Book-Room remains as at present.

V. The following subjects shall come within the province of the Conference when consisting of Ministers and Lay Representatives, viz.:—The business now classed in the printed Minutes of the Conference, under the several heads of—

(i.) Committees of Privileges and Exigency.

(ii.) Missions (Foreign).

(xii.) Extension of Methodism in Great Britain.

(xiii.) Temperance.

And also all questions relating to—(xiv.) District Sustentation Funds.

(xv.) Proposed alterations and Divisions of Circuits or Districts against which there is any Appeal.

N.B.—The Conference when consisting of Ministers only shall have power to consider and decide all questions as to alterations and divisions of Circuits or Districts on which the Quarterly Meetings and District Committees shall be agreed, and against which there is no appeal; and also all propositions for the calling out of additional Ministers which shall have received the sanction of the Home-Mission Committee.

(xvi.) And all financial and general subjects of like nature, with any of those specified in this Resolution, or affecting the financial or general affairs of the Connexion.

But all matters connected with, or arising out of, the consideration or decision of the subjects specified in this Resolution, which in the foregoing Resolution are stated to be within the province of the Conference when consisting of Ministers only, shall be considered and decided accordingly.

VI. The consideration and determination of all questions raised by any Resolutions of District Committees, or by Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings, or otherwise, shall come within the province of the Conference when exclusively Ministerial, or when the Lay Representatives shall be present, according to the subject-matter thereof respectively. In all cases in which there may be any doubt as to the province to which a matter belongs, the President shall decide.

VII. No new law on any subject within the province of the Conference when composed of Ministers only, proposed during any Conference, shall come into force until it shall have been submitted to the District Committees, when Ministers only are present, and until their reports, if any, shall have been considered, and such law shall have been confirmed by the next Conference when so composed; and no new law on any subject within the province of the Conference when composed both of Ministers and Lay Representatives, proposed during any Conference, shall come into force until it shall have been submitted to the District Committees when Laymen are present, and until their reports, if any, shall have been considered, and such law shall have been confirmed by the next Conference when so composed.

N.B.—Nothing in this Resolution shall be so construed as to interfere with the rights of the Circuit Quarterly Meetings as set forth in the Minutes of Conference 1797, vol. i., New Edition, p. 393, and 1852, vol. xii. p. 117.

RETIREMENT OF THE REV. JOHN FARRAR AND OTHERS.

The Conference learns with profound regret that the Rev. John Farrar is compelled to request permission to retire from active service in the ministry. In acceding to this request, the Conference desires to place on record its sense of Mr. Farrar's personal worth, his stainless reputation, and the invaluable service which, for an unwonted term of years, he has rendered in almost every department of Methodist ministerial work.

The Conference recalls with gratitude to God Mr. Farrar's faithful and efficient services as Tutor at Richmond, as Governor at Woodhouse-Grove, and more recently as Governor of the Headingley Branch of the Theological Institution. It thankfully remembers the ability and courtesy with which he has presided over some of our most important Districts, the diligence and fidelity with which he sustained the office of Secretary of the Conference for a long period of years, and the grace and dignity with which on two occasions he occupied its Chair.

Not less grateful is its recollection of the power and fervour of his ministry, the readiness and skill with which he has contributed to our literature, and above all, the unaffected simplicity and purity of his personal life.

While earnestly hoping that Mr. Farrar may be spared for many years to lend the weight of his experience and counsels to its annual assemblies and to its various Committees, as well as to minister the Gospel with ripened wisdom and power, the Conference assures its honoured brother that he will be followed into his comparative retirement by the loving prayers, not only of many hundreds of Ministers who have had the privilege of his oversight and friendship, but of countless numbers who have been refreshed by his ministrations and stimulated by his example.

The Conference also regrets that it has this year to record the retirement of several other esteemed and beloved Brethren from the more active labours of the Christian ministry. It cherishes an affectionate remembrance of the services which they have rendered to the Connexion by their edifying ministrations, and some of them by the ability and faithfulness with which they have filled the chair of important Districts; and it prays that they may enjoy, throughout the evening of life, the richest consolations of Divine grace, and that in their more limited spheres they may still contribute to the welfare of our Societies, and the extension of the kingdom of Christ.

DEPUTATION FROM THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH SOUTH, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

The Conference heartily welcomes the esteemed brethren who have come as Representatives of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, Bishop E. M. Marvin and the Rev. E. R. Hendrix, and is gratified to renew fraternal intercourse with that numerous and important branch of the Methodist Communion.

APPROVAL OF CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY BY CIRCUIT QUARTERLY MEETINGS.

1. The Conference regards it as a settled principle, affirmed in its Minutes (Vol. I., p. 677, New Edition), that every Candidate for the Ministry must be approved by the Circuit Quarterly Meeting.

2. The Conference believes that this law was intended to secure the concurrent action of the pastorate and the people in the recommendation of Candidates for the Ministry.

3. The Conference therefore directs that if, in future, any case should occur in which this concurrent action is not secured, the Chairman of the District in which the Circuit is situated shall be held responsible for making special inquiry into the circumstances, and for reporting thereon to the District Meeting and the Conference.

PASTORAL OVERSIGHT OF THE YOUNG, AND RECOGNITION OF NEW MEMBERS OF SOCIETY.

The Conference refers these subjects to the following Committee, and directs this Committee to complete its Scheme, to send its Report to the May District Meetings to be discussed when Ministers only are present, and having considered the suggestions of the several District Committees, to prepare a Report for the next Conference, viz :—

The President, the Ex-President, and the Secretary of the Conference, the Rev. George O. Bate, Samuel Coley, Walford Green, Benjamin Gregory, John Hartley, Dr. James, Ebenezer E. Jenkins, M.A., Dr. Jobson, John S. Jones, Charles H. Kelly, Joshua Mason, Dr. Osborn, Dr. Punshon, Dr. Rigg, George Scott (B), and Dr. Moulton (Convener).

REVISION OF THE LITURGY AND BOOK OF OFFICES.

The Conference resolves that the Report of the Committee now presented be remitted to an enlarged Committee for revision and completion, and that the Report and recommendations of such Committee, as revised and completed, be sent to the May District Meetings for consideration by the Ministers as a Pastoral subject; and that the suggestions of the District Meetings thereupon be sent back to the Committee, which shall consider the same, and prepare a final Report to be presented to the next Conference. The Conference further resolves that the same Committee shall consider and report as to the revision of the Covenant Service.

Conference, the Ex-Presidents; the Rev. John Baker, M.A., Robert Balshaw, Frederick W. Briggs, M.A., Samuel Coley, Frederic Greeves, John Harris (A), John Hartley, Benjamin Hellier, Henry W. Holland, Ebenezer E. Jenkins, M.A., Hugh Jones (A), Frederic W. Macdonald, John Martin (A), George Maunder, Dr. Moulton, Marmaduke C. Osborn, Dr. Rigg, William T. Radcliffe, Edward J. Robinson, S. Evans Rowe, William F. Slater, Joseph C. Woodcock, Theophilus Woolmer (A), Robert N. Young, and Benjamin Gregory (Convener).

GIVING OUT OF HYMNS.

The Conference deems it desirable that, except in the case of Hymns used during Public Worship as Chants or Anthems, our customary practice of giving out the Hymns shall be strictly adhered to.

RESOLUTIONS ON SACRAMENTAL WINE.

1. The Conference cannot sanction the use of anything which is not the 'fruit of the vine' in the administration of the Lord's Supper.

2. The Conference cannot sanction any usage in the administration of that Ordinance which is the expression of Christian unity, which would tend to divide members into two classes.

3. It believes that the use of Rota Tent Wine, so extensively used among professing Christians at the Supper of the Lord, would avoid all reasonable cause of offence, either to abstainers or non-abstainers.

REGISTRATION OF MARRIAGES.

It is the judgment of the Conference, that in order to secure the best legal registration of marriage, and to relieve Nonconformists from the invidious distinction of the Civil Registrar being present at their marriages only, the law should be so altered as to provide one uniform method of Registration, that the only Registrar should be the Civil Registrar, and that his presence should be required at all Marriages celebrated in all the places of Worship in England and Wales; and further, that in order to carry this into effect, the restriction of hours during which marriage may be legally solemnized should be abolished.

DAY OF SPECIAL PRAYER ON BEHALF OF SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.

The Conference commends to the attention of Ministers, and the Officers of our Sunday-Schools, the suggestion of the Connexional Sunday-School Union, that Sunday, October 21st, 1877, should be set apart for special prayer on behalf of Sunday-Schools throughout the world.

METROPOLITAN METHODIST LAY MISSION. 1876.

The Conference receives with much satisfaction the Report of the Metropolitan Methodist Lay Mission. It rejoices in the extinction of the debt with which that Mission was burdened, and regards the generous response made to the appeal on its behalf as evincing a deep conviction of the importance of the objects which it contemplates, and an unabated confidence in the agency by which it seeks to attain them. The conference, regarding the Mission as calculated, under the blessing of God, to meet some of the special and pressing wants of the metropolis, commends it to the cordial and liberal support of the Connexion.

MANCHESTER AND SALFORD LAY MISSION.

1. The Conference receives the Report of this Mission with satisfaction, and rejoices in the degree of success with which it has pleased God to bless the Mission.

2. The Conference directs that the ensuing Financial Meeting of the Manchester District shall appoint a Committee for the management of the Mission during the year.

3. The Lay Treasurers of this Mission shall be members of the Manchester District Meeting, when financial and general affairs are under consideration.

CONTAGIOUS DISEASES ACTS.

The Conference records its hearty approval of the course pursued by the Wesleyan Association for the Repeal of the Contagious Diseases Acts, in disseminating information respecting the character and operation of these immoral Acts, by means of Public Meetings, through the medium of the 'Methodist Protest,' and otherwise through the public press; and repeats its solemn testimony against these Acts, and its recommendation to our people to unite and persevere in more vigorous efforts to procure their repeal.

MISCELLANEOUS RESOLUTIONS.

1. Thanks to the retiring President.—Resolved unanimously, That the respectful and affectionate thanks of the Conference are due, and are hereby presented, to its late President, the Rev. Alexander M'Aulay, for his zealous, faithful, impartial, and courteous discharge of the duties of his office, both during the Session of the last Conference and throughout the year.

2. Thanks to the Secretary.—Resolved unanimously, That the best thanks of the Conference be presented to the Rev. Henry W. Williams, D.D., for his useful and acceptable services as Secretary of the Conference during the past year.

3. The Ex-President's Sermon.—Resolved unanimously, That the thanks of the Conference be presented to the Ex-President, the Rev. Alexander M'Aulay, for the earnest, faithful, and eminently useful Sermon preached by him on Sunday morning, July 29th.

4. The President's Sermon.—Resolved unanimously, That the respectful thanks of the Conference be presented to the President, the Rev. William B. Pope, D.D., for the seasonable, effective, and profitable Sermon which he preached on Sunday evening, July 29th, and that he be requested to publish it.

5. The Ex-President's Charge. — Resolved unanimously, That the respectful thanks of the Conference be presented to the Ex-President, the Rev. Alexander M'Aulay, for the faithful and impressive Charge which he addressed to the newly-ordained Ministers on Wednesday morning, August 1st, 1877; and that he be requested to prepare it for publication.

6. The Fernley Lecture.—Resolved unanimously, That the respectful thanks of the Conference be presented to the Rev. Ebenezer E. Jenkins, M.A., for the seasonable, eloquent, and profound Lecture which he delivered on the foundation of the late Mr. John Fernley, on Tuesday evening, July 24th, in the King-street Chapel, Bristol.

7. Suggestions from District Meetings.—It is resolved, That the Convener of the Conference Committee on Memorials from Circuits and Suggestions from District Meetings is authorised to obtain, immediately after the Annual District Meetings, from the Secretaries of the District Committees, copies of any Suggestions which may have been made, and that nothing shall be deemed to be a Suggestion of a District Meeting but what is recorded in answer to the Question on the subject in the District Minutes.

The Rev. Francis W. Greeves is re-appointed the Convener of the Committee referred to.

8. It is resolved that the Annual Meetings of the several District Committees shall be held between the 12th and the 19th of May, 1878, with the exception of the Lincoln, North Wales, South Wales, Isle of Man, and Zetland Districts.

STANDING ORDERS.

1. Home-Missionary Ministers. — The Conference directs that a special inquiry shall be made at the May

District Meetings, whether the Regulations for the employment of Home-Missionary Ministers, adopted by the Conference, have been faithfully observed in the Circuits to which Home-Missionary Ministers are appointed; and that a Report in each case shall be made to the Conference.

2. Candidates for Ordination. — The Conference directs that Candidates for Ordination shall, at or before the May District Meeting, preach before three Ministers of the District, who shall report to the Meeting.

3. Preachers on Trial.—(1.) The Conference, having been informed that, in several Circuits, the Preachers on Trial have very rarely an opportunity of receiving the Lord's Supper, resolves that, in compliance with a former injunction on this subject, the Superintendents be required to make the necessary arrangements, in their Circuit-Plans, for securing to their junior Colleagues proper facilities for partaking of this Holy Sacrament. (2.) Whenever it shall be found to be practicable, Preachers on Trial shall preach during the District Meetings.

4. Candidates for Admission on Trial. (1)—Those Preachers who are recommended for admission on Trial shall preach in the presence of at least three of the Ministers of the District Committee, (at or about the time of its Annual Meeting in May,) to be selected by the Chairman, exclusively of the Superintendents by whom the Candidates respectively are proposed; and a special report of the Sermons shall be made in the District Meeting, and immediately forwarded in writing to the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates.

(2) The Conference directs that arrangements shall be made by the May District Meetings for the hearing of each Candidate by one Minister of the District, in addition to those who have heard him before his recommendation by the District Committee, such Minister to forward his Report to the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee.

5. Attendance of Ministers at Official Meetings.—Mistakes having arisen on this subject, the Conference deems it proper and necessary to declare, that all the Ministers and Preachers on Trial appointed to a Circuit have a constitutional right to take part as members in our Leaders' Meetings, and in all other official meetings of the Circuits to which they are appointed.

6. Minor District Meetings.—In all cases in which the holding of a Minor District Meeting is rendered necessary, such Meeting, except under the Regulation passed by the Conference in 1840, (Minutes, Vol. IX., p. 94,) shall be held in the District in which the accused party resides, the accused and the accuser selecting respectively two Ministers from the said District, who, with the Chairman thereof, shall constitute the Minor District Meeting.

Should either party refuse or decline to choose two Ministers, to act as members of the Meeting, the Chairman is empowered and directed to nominate them so that the number required by rule may be made up.

7. Committee on Appeals and other Cases.—At each Conference, the President shall nominate, not later than the second day, a Committee of twenty-one members of the Conference, to whom shall be referred, without discussion, all cases requiring further inquiry touching the character of Ministers or Preachers on Trial, immediately after the reading of the Minutes of District Committees thereupon, or of any notice of charge or appeal relating thereto, or for any reason which the Conference may deem sufficient.

Any complainant or appellant, or any person under inquiry, may object to one in three of the members of the said Committee sitting on his case; and the President shall then appoint some other member of the Conference to act instead of the member so objected to.

Special Cases to be decided upon by the Conference may be referred to the whole Committee; but it shall, for ordinary purposes, be divided into three sections, for each of which a Convener shall be appointed, who shall be responsible for preparing the business of the Committee.

8. Supply of Vacancies.—Instances having occurred in which Superintendents and other Ministers, needing Circuit-supplies on occasion of sickness and various casualties, have applied to the President of the Conference, without first taking counsel with the Chairman of the District; the Conference directs the brethren to return to the old plan of first communicating with the Chairman in every such case, who is also directed to satisfy himself, by personal inquiry, that a local supply cannot be obtained.

9. Liverpool Minutes.—The Resolutions adopted by the Conference in the year 1820, and usually called the 'Liverpool Minutes,' besides being read and considered in the Annual Meeting of each District Committee, (as our standing Regulations require,) shall also be read at the Weekly Meeting of Ministers in each Circuit, next following the September Quarterly Meeting; and the Chairmen of Districts are directed to make inquiry concerning the due observance of this regulation.

10. District Minutes.—The Chairmen of Districts are required to procure three complete copies of the Minutes of the several Annual and other Meetings of the District Committees, transcribed according to the order of time in which such Meetings shall have been held, and duly signed by the Chairman and Secretary. One of these copies shall be inserted in the District Records; a second shall be reserved for the use of the Chairman and Financial Secretary at the Conference; and a third shall be delivered to the Assistant-Secretaries, on the Thursday preceding the Conference, and by them to the President during the first week of each Conference, to be preserved, under his direction, as a document appertaining to the Connexion. The several copies of the last class shall be written on foolscap paper, that they may be annually bound together in one volume.

11. Annual Return of Members in Society.—The number of Members in Society, and of persons admitted on trial, as taken at the March Quarterly Visitation in each year, and reported in the Circuit-Schedules presented at the District Meetings, shall be the number returned on the Minutes of the following Conference.

12. Returns of the Military in attendance at our

Chapels.—The Conference directs that the returns of the Military in attendance at our Chapels shall include the actual number of soldiers who are declared Wesleyan Methodists stationed in the Circuit, and not merely the average number in attendance at Divine Service.

13. Circuit Schedules.—In order to bring the state and progress of the work of God in every Circuit distinctly under the examination of the District Meetings, copies of the Printed Circuit Schedules, duly filled up, shall be annually produced, examined, and considered. The Chairmen of Districts are made responsible for the execution of this order. (See also Minutes for 1831, Q. xxv.; Vol. VII., p. 67.)

The Circuit Schedules containing the Returns of the Members in Society are to be forwarded, immediately after the May District Meetings, to the Rev. John W. Greeves, Wesleyan Centenary Hall, Bishopsgate Street Within, London, E.C.

The Education Schedules, having been filled up and presented to the March Quarterly Meeting, are to be sent to the District Educational Secretary, not later than April 20th.

14. Schedules and Circulars on Connexional Business.—As it is obviously desirable, that the Committees appointed by the Conference to manage the several departments of the business of the Connexion, in the intervals of its Session, should be furnished with as much statistical information as possible on the matters of business severally confided to their care, the Conference authorises them, through their appointed Officers, to send, when they deem it expedient, suitable Circulars and Schedules to the Superintendents, or to the Chairmen of Districts, as the case may require; and directs the Superintendents and Chairmen duly to return such Schedules properly filled up.

15. Annual Examination of Pupil-Teachers in Religious Knowledge.—The Conference directs that the Annual Examination of Pupil-Teachers in Religious Knowledge shall be held on the last Saturday in October and March; that the questions shall be prepared by the General Committee; that the Examination shall be held, either in the several Circuits by the Superintendent Ministers or their Colleagues, or at suitable places for Central District Examinations, as may be determined by the September District Meetings, and agreed to by the respective School Committees; and that the written answers shall be forwarded to the General Secretary, and shall be valued by a Central Board of Examiners to be elected by the General Committee. The Conference further recommends that, in connection with Central Examinations, Meetings of Teachers and Pupil-Teachers be held under the direction of the Chairman of the District and the District Educational Secretary.

16. Lay-Members of Connexional Committees.—In respect to the several Committees of the Connexional Funds, the Conference resolves, that a certain number of Lay Gentlemen shall retire annually by rotation, the same persons being ineligible for immediate re-election, except in special cases.

17. Lay-Members of District Committees to be summoned by the Chairman.—It is resolved, That, in future, the Chairmen of Districts shall be required to send a circular to the Lay-Members of the District Committee, requesting their attendance on the Wednesday, and, if necessary, on the Thursday, in the week of the Annual District Meeting, specifying the business that will be brought forward, and particularly mentioning any subject that may have been particularly remitted by the Conference to the consideration of such Meeting. A similar circular shall be prepared and sent with reference to the Financial District Meeting.

In order to the carrying out of this Resolution, the Superintendents of Circuits are required to furnish the Chairman of the District with the names and addresses of the Circuit Stewards immediately after the December Quarterly Meeting.

18. Representative to the Stationing Committee.—The Minister who shall be the Representative of each District to the Stationing Committee shall be chosen by the united votes of the Ministers and Laymen who are members of the District Committee.

19. Division of Circuits.—Before District Committees consent to the division of any Circuit, inquiry must be made whether due attention has been paid to satisfactory arrangements for the Trust-Estates affected by the proposed division, especially in reference to any debts existing thereon.

20. Boundaries of Circuits.—Whereas difficulties have arisen from the want of accurate and recorded definitions of the Boundaries of Circuits, the Conference directs that, in future, the Boundaries of Circuits which are divided shall be fully stated in the Minutes of the District Meeting to which they belong, and that the Secretary of the District shall send a copy of the record to be inserted in the Minutes of the Quarterly Meetings of the Circuits concerned; and that in such cases copies of the Ordnance maps, or some other maps, of the localities concerned, be coloured so as to show the boundaries, and deposited in the safes provided for the custody of the Trust-Deeds of the Circuits. The Conference further directs that these arrangements be made in all cases of alteration in the boundaries of existing Circuits.

21. Quarterly Fast-Days.—The days upon which the Quarterly Fast, appointed by Rule, is to be observed throughout the Connexion, for the following year, are, Fridays, October 5th, December 28th, 1877, March 29th, and June 28th, 1878.

22. Rule of 1797 concerning Admission of Members.—Mistakes having occasionally arisen respecting the meaning of the Rule of 1797, on the subject of the admission of persons who are on trial as Members of our Society, the Conference deems it necessary to repeat the statement, That it never was intended that the names of all those who are on trial should be laid before a Leaders' Meeting for distinct and formal discussion; but solely, that if there be, in the opinion of a Leader, any reasonable objection to the character and conduct of any person who is on trial, such objection may be stated by him; and that, if the validity of the objection be established to the satisfaction of the Meeting, a Member's Ticket shall not be given to the person, so objected to, at the Quarterly Visitation.

23. Trial of Members.—When a charge is brought against any Member resident in a place where no Leaders' Meeting is statedly held, the case shall be referred for investigation to the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Society in the Circuit Town. The Leader or Leaders, and the Society Stewards, of the Society of which the accused is a Member, shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting for the purposes of the investigation.

If the accused person is a Trustee, then there shall also be associated with the Leaders' Meeting, as above constituted, the Trustees of the Chapel with which the Society of which he is a Member is connected; or, if there is no such Chapel, then the Trustees of the Chapel in connection with the principal Society in the Circuit Town. But no Trustee shall, in either case, be so associated, unless he is himself a Member of Society in the same Circuit.

24. Reading of the Pastoral Address in Society Meetings.—The Superintendents are directed to appoint special Society Meetings to be held at the principal Chapels in their Circuits, for the purpose of having the Pastoral Address read, and made the subject of suitable remarks and exhortations.

25. Contingent Fund.—In future, all payments on account of Ordinary Deficiencies shall be made through the medium of the Financial Secretaries of Districts. The payments on account of Home Missionaries are to be made directly to and by the Treasurers of the Fund.

26. The Army.—The Chairmen of Districts are directed to inquire of the Superintendents of Circuits in which troops are marched to Divine service in our chapels, the average number of non-commissioned officers and men in attendance; distinguishing the number of Members in Society. These returns must include, also, the actual number of soldiers who are declared Wesleyan Methodists. The returns given are to be recorded in the District Minutes. If there be no military attendance in the District, a note to that effect shall be inserted.

27. Arrangements respecting the Stationing Committee.—The Conference resolves that, in future, the Representative of each District shall send to the Secretary of the Conference, not later than the 3rd day of July in each year, upon a Schedule to be provided by him, complete lists of (1) the arrangements provisionally made for the Stationing of Ministers in his District, (2) the invitations accepted by Ministers in his District to Circuits in other Districts, and (3) all Ministers in his District for whom no arrangement has been made;—that from these lists the Secretary of the Conference shall compile, and cause to be printed in a convenient form for use in the Stationing Committee, one complete list of all arrangements thus provisionally made, and a separate list of all Ministers for whom provisional arrangements have not been made; and that a copy of these lists shall be sent to each member of the Stationing Committee at least seven days before the meeting of that Committee.

28. Conference Plan.—The Superintendents of those Circuits in which the Conference may from year to year assemble, shall, with the previous approbation of the President, (as already required by rule,) complete and print, not later than the 15th day of June in each year, a Plan of the order of preaching in the principal chapels during the Session of the Conference; and shall also, on or before the above date, inform every person whom they have appointed to preach in those chapels, of the time and place of such appointment. And in order that the Plan thus prepared may not be violated, to the disappointment of our friends, and to the great inconvenience of other parties concerned, no Minister who attends the Conference shall be at liberty to make an engagement to preach in any other Circuit, either on the Sabbath, or on any other day, during the period appointed for the meeting of the Conference, at the time for which his name shall be inserted on the Conference Plan.

29. The Chairmen of Districts are enjoined to make particular inquiries at their Annual Meetings in reference to all the points of Discipline specified in the first Article of the Answer to Q. XXVIII. in the Minutes of 1825.

CONFERENCE OF 1878.

Q. XXVII. When and where shall our NEXT CONFERENCE be held?

A. In Bradford, Yorkshire, commencing on Tuesday, July 23rd, 1878, at half-past Nine o'clock, A.M.

N.B. 1.—The Stationing Committee shall meet on Wednesday, July 17th, 1878, at half-past Nine o'clock, A.M.

2. The Secretaries of the several Funds are directed to meet in Bradford, Yorkshire, on Saturday, July 20th, for the purpose of preparing for the Conference the accounts of their several departments.

3. The Assistant-Secretaries of the Conference, the Rev. Marmaduke C. Osborn, Robert N. Young, and Henry L. Church, are directed to attend at the same time, for the purpose of compiling from the District Minutes various Lists, etc., which will facilitate the business of the Conference.

3. The Chairmen of Districts are required to bring, or send, so as to be in time for the meeting of the Secretaries of the several Funds, by Thursday, July 18th, perfect copies of the District Minutes, including an account of the Numbers in Society in the several Circuits of their Districts, as taken at the March Visitation in 1878.

Signed in behalf and by order of the CONFERENCE,

WILLIAM BURT POPE, PRESIDENT.
HENRY W. WILLIAMS, SECRETARY.

Bristol, August 10th, 1877.

LIST OF GENERAL COLLECTIONS AND SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR 1877-78.

The following are the usual and regular Collections, which are to be made in all our Circuits during the ensuing year; viz.,—

1. The Private Donations in the Classes, on behalf of the Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Auxiliary Fund, shall be entered in the Class-Books at the next September Visitation, and collected in the month of October, and forwarded at once to the District Treasurer. (See Q. xxvii., A. 2, Minutes of 1851.)

2. The Private Subscriptions and Public Collections for the New Kingswood and Woodhouse-Grove Schools, etc., are to be made in the early part of the month of November, 1877; and the amount, without any deduction on account of Educational Allowances to Children, is to be immediately remitted to the Rev. T. Tapley Short, Headingley, Leeds, one of the General Secretaries for the Schools' Fund. All sums due on account of daughters at the Schools must also be sent to Mr. Short. Each Superintendent must also send to Mr. Short a particular account of the sums contributed to the Fund, and of all claims for Educational Allowances in his Circuit, specifying distinctly the names of the children for whose education the claims are made, the date, year, and place of their birth, and the exact number of years during which the allowance has been received.

3. The Annual Subscriptions, due January 1st, and occasional Donations, for the Wesleyan Theological Institution, are to be solicited in every Circuit in the first or second week of January, 1878; and forthwith remitted to the Rev. John Farrar, 141, Wilberforce-Road, Finsbury-Park, London, N. Post-Office Orders are to be made payable at the General Post Office, London. The Public Collection for the Theological Institution is also to be remitted to the Rev. John Farrar.

4. The Public Collections on behalf of the Auxiliary Fund are to be remitted to the Rev. John Rattenbury, 39, Hamilton-road, Highbury Park, London, N.

5. Public Collections are to be made on the Sabbath in all the Chapels in each Circuit within the Metropolitan Postal Area on behalf of the Metropolitan Chapel Building Fund. These Collections, with those made at Public Meetings, and with Donations, Subscriptions, etc., are to be forwarded before the end of March, 1878, to the Rev. Gervase Smith, D.D., 13, Leigh-Road, Highbury-Park, N.

Public Collections are to be made on the Sabbath in all the Chapels in each Circuit in the Edinburgh and Aberdeen District, on behalf of the Relief and Extension Fund for Methodism in Scotland. These Collections, with Donations, Subscriptions, etc., are to be forwarded before the end of April, 1878, to the Rev. Joseph Bush, 16, St. Catherine's-place, Edinburgh.

6. The Annual Public Collections for the General Chapel Fund are to be made, and Subscriptions solicited, in the month of February, 1878; and the whole amount should be immediately remitted to the Rev. Messrs. Tindall and Pope, General Secretaries, Oldham-Street Chapel, Manchester.

7. The Yearly Collection in all the Classes is to be made, as usual, at the March Visitation; and the money is to be paid at the District Meetings in May.

8. The Private Subscriptions and Public Collections for the Wesleyan Education Fund are to be made in the month of April, 1878; and the money is to be paid, at or before the May District Meeting, to the Financial Secretaries, and by them remitted to the Rev. John Walton, M.A., 33, Walpole-street, King's-road, Chelsea, S.W.

9. The Private Subscriptions for the Mission-Fund are to be received in all our Circuits, either weekly, monthly, quarterly, or annually, as is most convenient to the Subscribers. The annual Public Collections for that Fund are to be made in all our chapels, and other preaching-places, at the time of the Anniversaries of the several Auxiliary or Branch Societies; or, where no Public Meetings of that kind are held, in the month of May. The money so raised must be remitted, through the District Treasurers, to the General Treasurers, whose address is, Wesleyan Centenary Hall, Bishopsgate-street-Within, London, E. C.

10. The Private Subscriptions for the Auxiliary Worn-out Ministers' and Widows' Fund are to be solicited in the month of May, 1878; and a list of Subscriptions is to be sent to the Secretary, the Rev. Henry H. Chettle, 6, Claremont, Bradford, Yorkshire, not later than the 30th of June. (See Q. XXVIII., Minutes of 1851.) The money is to be paid on or before the first day of the Conference to the Financial Secretary of the District, and by him to Messrs. Napier and Rattenbury, the Treasurers.

11. The Collections in aid of the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund, for the support and spread of the Gospel in Great Britain and Ireland, are to be made in all our Chapels and Preaching-places, not later than the second Sunday in July, 1878; but, wherever practicable, before the May District Meeting, and in connection with a Public Meeting, as recommended by the Conference. Subscriptions and Donations are to be paid to the Treasurers as early as possible.

THE ANNUAL ADDRESS

OF THE

CONFERENCE

TO

THE METHODIST SOCIETIES.

Dearly beloved Brethren,

We rejoice that we have another opportunity of addressing you. We approach you with loving, hearty, and cheerful Christian greeting. Our Conference sessions have been to us seasons of refreshing in which we have realized the presence of our Divine Master, and have been comforted by mutual intercourse; in which, when it has been best with us, we have remembered you at the Throne of Grace.

We have made a careful review of the past year, and are gladdened by much of its experience, and by many proofs that God has been at work amongst us.

Our net increase of Church-members at home has been 9,351, with 28,063 on trial, and on our foreign stations 3,635. We are profoundly thankful for this increase, yet not satisfied. We long for greater results, for larger accessions to our numbers, and we desire to enlist your strong efforts to draw into actual Church-fellowship such members of your families, of your congregations, and of your schools, as are fitted for it. Do not countenance, by word, or example, or even by indifference, that spirit which, we fear, is growing, that professes to consider Church-membership as unimportant. Of this you may be sure, there can be no such thing as a Church without membership; and when active Christian people forego this, to marshal themselves under other banners and names, they take a course the tendency of which is not merely to paralyze the Church, but to destroy it. There is a mistaken opinion on this subject. Men speak as if, because some of the works in which they engage are not destitute of beneficial results, they might be excused when they not only sever themselves from Church-membership, but prevent other persons from joining it. They urge that the institutions and services to which they are attached are helpful in one way or another to the Church; forgetting that all that is good in them is derived from the Church; and so far as there is in them any sweetness, or beauty, or power it is traceable to the Church, and no more separate from it in its origin than grapes are separate from the vines on whose branches they hang. We entreat you, then, brethren, in no wise to undervalue the great privilege of Church-membership, but to make it the aim of your work to bring souls into fellowship, real and direct, with God's visible Church on earth. Children should not live houseless; soldiers must not be unattached; and individual Christians, for personal safety, instruction and nourishment, must sit among God's children as His children; and in the battle for truth must serve as acknowledged warriors, and as comrades in 'the sacramental host of God's elect.'

The Lord has made the last year one of great spiritual power. The tidings of conversions, of the renewal of religious life, of deepened holiness, come to us alike from many Circuits at home, and from many lands afar off. In various languages, by thousands of voices, has our Church preached 'Christ crucified;' and with the same result. The one Gospel, like the one sunlight, has been blessed to all nations; and similar cries of penitence, similar prayers of earnest desire, and utterances of loving faith, have gone up from tens of thousands of hearts both at home and on our mission-stations. Our statistical returns give us joy; but no registrar on earth can record the results, in their full extent, of that preaching which has been heard by millions, and has induced so many to come boldly to the Mercy Seat. We have never doubted the power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, nor felt uncertain about our duty respecting it. Our fathers preached it in its beautiful simplicity, and were helped by the Holy Ghost. They saw much fruit of their labours. And through the whole history of Methodism, the prosperity of our work has always been traceable to the same cause: not to worldly wealth, nor to an æsthetic ritual, nor to material growth; not to eloquent and able men, to an ecclesiastical organization, a compact brotherhood, or an intense family sympathy,—important as most of these things may be,—but our prosperity has always been dependent on the earnest preaching of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, accompanied by the power of the Holy Spirit. Never has the secret of success been more clearly seen by us than of late. We will profit by the teaching of the past. We will stand by the old truths, preach the old Gospel, keep to the old methods,—even though we discover additional ones that will help us—while we pray for the power of the same Divine Spirit, and expect to see yet greater results.

During the past year our late President, the Rev. Alexander M'Aulay, held several Conventions in various parts of the country for conversation on spiritual subjects and for prayer. Sometimes they were composed of Ministers only, sometimes of Ministers and laymen together, sometimes of Local Preachers, and sometimes of Class Leaders. In various instances the most blessed results occurred. In these meetings the communion of saints was vividly realized. They were not the mere assembling together of men of the same faith and of mutual sympathy. There was the true, simple spirit of worship, and the felt presence of the Great Master, Who gave oneness of soul to His children and made them feel their brotherhood. Many received a baptism from on high, and, having received good, went forth to do good.

Necessarily much time is spent on the business affairs of the Church in our Leaders' Meetings, Quarterly Meetings, and District Committees, and such time is religiously spent in the promotion of Christ's cause; but it would be well if even in these meetings time could be occasionally secured for the special purpose of meditating on holy things, and conversing on purely spiritual subjects. This, we believe, would greatly contribute to promote the piety and zeal of our Societies.

Of late there has been great glow and fervour in the religious life of the Church, and over this we rejoice; but we are aware of a danger to Christian believers at such a time, and are also awake to the fact that such a season of revival has no keener observer than the old 'enemy' in the field of the Lord.

We therefore caution you, our beloved children, who are glad in the first enjoyment of the new life,—and in whose gladness we rejoice with a joy beyond expression,—that it is absolutely necessary, in order that your piety may be deep and permanent, that you should strive to become very intelligent Christians. Cultivate your minds with particular reference to growth in grace. Many of you have had the advantages of a liberal education, and in your hands are the keys to a treasure-house in which are richest stores. Use well your opportunities. Be assured there are no shelves so laden with the rarest and most precious writings, as those which contain the literature of the Church of Jesus Christ; and because by possessing them you will increase in godliness as you increase in Christian intelligence and knowledge, because your character will become more beautiful and strong as you become familiar with the writings of the best divines, we exhort you to leave the mere pretty trivialities of the press, and read the great thoughts of great Christians. The time is too short to be spent on inferior books. But, beloved, there is one fact of especial interest and importance in its bearing on intelligent piety: the best Book is open to us all. There are many streams at which we may drink where the water is pure, clear, and deep, but the fountain from which they all flow is the Word of God, and that Word we all have. Brethren, suffer us with great affection and earnestness to exhort you to acquire a more full and accurate knowledge of Holy Scripture. It will greatly enrich and adorn your life. In the conflict of opinions in the world it will help you to stand in the fight, and do valiant things for Christ: 'the sword of the Spirit..is the Word of God.' We are convinced that the most satisfactory answer to the many questions which are now raised concerning the Bible and its truths, will be found in the Book itself; and that those who are most thoroughly acquainted with its unity of purpose and teaching will be least tempted to abandon the only authoritative rule of faith and practice. We cannot prescribe the manner or the times of your reading, but in such particulars all who seek Divine guidance will be taught of God. But we suggest that in all the public ordinances of God's house, the congregation should accustom themselves to follow the lessons read by the Minister.

Leaders will do well to impress upon the members of their Classes the teaching of our Lord and His Apostles in the very words of Scripture, and encourage all to compare 'spiritual things with spiritual,' in the writings of inspired men. But it would not be an unprofitable practice to trace out the various shades of meaning and the different aspects of doctrines, and especially the exhortations to holiness that abound in both Testaments. The danger of too large a number among us has been to rest contented with early experience, and a limited acquaintance with Scripture. Familiar with favourite texts, and not without knowledge about many doctrines, they are not deeply read in Holy Writ; conversant, perhaps, with the narratives of the four Gospels, they have little more than glanced over some of the Epistles of the Apostles, and thus remain destitute of the rich blessings which they secure who set themselves to master the arguments and teachings given under the inspiration of God by St. Paul and his fellow Apostles. It is not helpful to robustness of spiritual life, that men who are accurate in the knowledge of passing events, and able to appreciate the works of famous authors, should, through carelessness and want of application, have but a dim and vague apprehension of the doctrines of Christianity and the 'things that accompany salvation.' It would be profitable if meetings for Bible-reading were more frequently held, and all the members present were encouraged to contribute something to the elucidation of the passage chosen, or to bring it to a practical bearing upon daily life.

The more general establishment of Bible-classes would be followed, we believe, by great good. Not only would personal piety be promoted, and individual Christians become more intelligent, but in many places the difficulty would be solved with reference to the source from which we may secure thoughtful and instructed young men for the important work of Local Preachers. We have had much anxious thought about the supply of this Class of office-bearers. As a Church we cannot afford to do anything that would tend to a departure from the early characteristic of Methodism,—the setting the laity to speak and work for Christ; nor should we fail to do all in our power to fit our Local Preachers to perform their work with the greatest efficiency. They have done blessed work in the past, and there is a wide field before them still. We shall rejoice if, by establishing special classes, our brethren are able to train up young men for the good work, and we would urge upon the educated young men in our Societies the giving of themselves to the work of calling sinners to repentance and preaching the Gospel of the grace of God. Do not let us forget that when God raised up Methodism, He used it to free the Church from restrictions under which the Clergy alone were allowed to preach. In Methodism, as in the primitive Churches, every Christian's mouth is opened. We press upon such of our brethren as, though well qualified to act as Local Preachers, stand aloof from that service, the duty of consecrating themselves to a work that demands and deserves 'the best gifts' that can be devoted to it. In our work we can find a place for every man, and shall be glad indeed when we can find a man for every place.

Methodism has always had a mission to the masses, and it has ever been our care to make our own people feel that every individual Methodist has such a mission. But in all her history Methodism never had a more distinct summons to direct, persistent, earnest work among the crowds of Englishmen, and in their homes and business-places, than to-day. Apart from the utter ungodliness of multitudes of our fellow-countrymen, there are many special calls to this work. We specify one. In the growth of Ritualism and in its modes of operation, we see a source of danger to the national safety and religion. In it we meet an enemy of great power and fierce hostility to the Gospel, not only because of its own inherent evils, but because it directly, and almost necessarily, leads to Popery. Its doctrines and displays are false and offensive; its tenets and its tactics are alike mischievous. That it finds shelter in, and derives emoluments from, the Established Church is mournful and alarming; but we would earnestly direct your attention to the fact that it relies for extension, not only on services that charm the senses and the fancy with sweet sounds and glaring shows and ornamental accessories, but more especially on the continuous, plodding, daily work of clergymen, laymen, and women in the homes and haunts of the people, and on the diligent instruction of children. Ritualism has secured from its devotees an immense amount of personal consecration to toil. Every day ten thousand nimble feet move in obscurity, and ten thousand tongues whisper in quiet places, in furtherance of the errors of a sect that seeks to put a human priest in the place of the One Mediator, and to substitute a crucifix for the living Christ. Brethren, in the face of the danger threatened by Ritualism to true spiritual life, and to the civil and religious liberties of the nation, and remembering with what enthusiasm, devotion, and self-denial its adherents labour, we call upon you to consecrate yourselves fully to the service of the Saviour, in direct personal work among your neighbours; to visit them in their houses; to speak to them on the roads, in the intervals of business, in your journeys; to invite them to the sanctuary; to tell them the truths of the Gospel. Do not rest until you find some way in which you can render regular, personal service to the Lord and to the Church of your choice. Such work will do far more to resist sacerdotalism than verbal protests or legislative enactments. These words we address to you as Methodists: as to your duty as citizens we say little now, for we trust that the national conscience is so true, and the national will so well known, that our rulers will maintain the Protestantism of our country unimpaired.

Let us not overlook our duty to the young. Consider the evil tendencies of the times, and the forces strongly antagonistic to our work. In communities where Methodism is strong, as well as in those in which it is weak, there is a determined effort to injure our future by dealing with the children of to-day. Let us strive to secure, as widely as we can, for our own children and for the whole rising generation, a sound and liberal education. This will be a great blessing to any village, town, or city. But let us be alert in preventing, as far as possible, schools supported to any extent by public money, being abused for the oppression of the religious poor, or the proselyting of our youth. We may do a great and good work in this direction, both by our own Day-schools and by our influence on and with School Boards. We have heard with much thankfulness that so many of the sons and daughters of our people continue to offer themselves as candidates for admission to our Training Colleges for teachers. We invoke God's blessing upon them. So long as we can supply our fair proportion of men and women to serve the Master in the great field of education, we shall do a good work; and we trust that our young people will continue to aspire to the high, honourable and most useful office of Christian educators,—a class on which the destinies of the nation greatly depend.

In our Address to you last year, we spoke of our gratification in the success of our Connexional Sunday-School Union, then recently formed. That prosperity continues, and, we hope, indicates an increased interest in Sunday-school work. We are glad to see and hear so much, but are persuaded that in this department of our Church work there is a revived intelligence and devotion much greater than statistics indicate. To our beloved co-workers in our Sunday-schools,—workers also together with God, we give words of good cheer. We beseech you to dedicate your hearts fully to the Lord, and to become diligent scholars in His school, and learners of His Word, that so you may be more successful teachers. You live in His Church, rich from of old in priceless stores of knowledge, wisdom, experience, and truth, out of which you may draw freely, so as to fit you adequately and blessedly to equip young soldiers for Christ. Prize your privileges. Be prayerful, loving, regular, enthusiastic in your work. Aim at one object,—the early conversion of each scholar in your class. Men may do good external works in Christ's name in many ways,—by voice, by pen, by purse,—and nothing done for our Master fails of its reward; but the destroying hand of time will touch no little even of that. Most of it will not be seen after many days; but the work that secures conversion will endure the test of eternity, and the labourers that work in our schools help to enrich the Church with its rarest dower,—the consecrated hearts of the young. We therefore assure our beloved friends—the Sunday-school Officers and Teachers—of our warmest sympathy and earnest prayers.

Our attention has been directed to the important subject of the Pastoral Oversight of the Young. During the past year a Committee has considered it, and we have received its report. That report, after being carefully revised by a larger Committee, will be submitted to the District Meetings in May; and the subject will receive, we hope, the anxious attention of the next Conference.

The commercial depression of the past two or three years has caused many of you to suffer great loss, and some of you even to feel the want of the necessaries of life. Brethren, we sympathize deeply with you and your households. We pray that He Who can fill the storehouses will provide for your wants, and that soon all willing workers may have enough and to spare. For your patience in suffering, for the faith that has given you consolation, we give praise unto God; and while we plead with Him for His continued blessing upon you, we also bespeak in your behalf the kindly sympathies, and the delicate attentions of Christian love from those of our brethren on whom the storm has beaten less violently.

The subject of Lay Representation in the Conference, which occupied so much of our attention last year, has at the present Conference been further considered, and a plan adopted which, we have reason to hope, will give great satisfaction to our people, and will conduce to the permanent harmony and efficiency of our Connexional organization, and therefore to the spiritual peace and progress of our Church.

We desire again to call your attention to the great evil of Intemperance, with reference to which we have taken several important steps. In 1874 we expressed our conviction that the influence of Wesleyan Methodism in opposition to the evils of Intemperance should be consolidated and further developed, and we appointed an influential Committee to consider and suggest some Connexional organization in harmony with our acknowledged discipline. That Committee has carefully prepared elaborate schemes for the formation of Bands of Hope and Circuit Temperance Organizations, which we have this year heartily and unanimously adopted, and directed to be printed in the Minutes. These schemes are based upon the principle that the great evils of intemperance cannot be effectively arrested except by the earnest co-operation of total abstainers and non-abstainers. We hope and pray that all who shall hereafter take an active part in the Temperance work of Methodism may imitate the spirit of generous conciliation in which our new regulations have been prepared, and the cordial unanimity with which we have adopted them.

Our Ministerial death-roll is long, and contains the names of men who, far from having been 'born to be forgot,' were masters in our Israel. No fewer than three Ex-Presidents have gone 'through th valley of the shadow of death' since our last Conference,—Dr. Samuel D. Waddy, Dr. William W. Stamp, and the Rev. George T. Perks, M.A.; Ministers who secured the entire confidence and warm love of their brethren, and who rendered most valued service to our Church. Dr. Waddy's name will be long mentioned with respect in hundreds of households whose heads were under his care in their youth. His services to the cause of Education in Methodism cannot be over-estimated; nor will his masterly discourses cease to be remembered by those who heard them. Truly a great man and a prince has fallen in our Israel. In Dr. Stamp the Conference has lost a trusted and sagacious counsellor, an able administrator, and a man of God. Both these excellent brethren had lived beyond threescore years and ten; but Mr. Perks was cut down suddenly in his prime, and our loss thereby has been very great. We shall ever cherish his memory. Genial in social intercourse, a good speaker, a superior preacher, cautious and safe as an adviser, powerful in prayer, diligent in duty, he will be remembered with affection both by preachers and people. And others of our brethren have passed away over whose names we would gladly linger. They have left us for a larger life, for fuller knowledge, for better service. Their death reminds us that we too are mortal. We would ponder the lesson, and resolve to dedicate ourselves anew to God, and increase our efforts to do His will among you, and work more earnestly than ever; for surely 'the night cometh when no man can work.'

And you, beloved, will consider thoughtfully the brevity of this mortal life, the possibility of an early call hence, the immense amount of work yet to be done for Christ, and the need of that personal 'holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord.' Let us all be earnest in the life of piety, and pray, and trust, and toil; so that when we have to pass through the valley of death all may be well, and one by one we may join the great multitude of our brethren and sisters who already dwell in heaven.

And now, brethren, having devoted ourselves afresh to the service of our Lord, and received, as we trust, from Him a new baptism of the Holy Ghost, we look for His help in our ministry during the coming year and expect larger blessings. And we are earnestly solicitous on your behalf, and desire for you His richest gifts. We pray God to endue you with 'power from on high;' to give you grace to realize the blessing of entire sanctification; and so to bless you that each of you may be made a great blessing to many others. We exhort you to holy activity in your own spiritual life, that you may grow in holiness. Be diligent in private devotion. Do not permit the many engagements of business, of social, or even of Church life, to persuade you that you cannot afford to spend much time in secret prayer, quiet Bible reading, communings with your own hearts, direct and uninterrupted fellowship with God. Remember that you must spend much time on these exercises, if you wish to fulfil God's purposes concerning you, or rejoice in the deep joy and the rich and varied experience of true saints. We would also beg you to recognize God's claim upon your time for active service in His work, both in the Church and in the world. Thousands of you could do very much more than you have ever attempted. Sunken talents have been the rock on which you have been in danger of foundering. Raise them; use them for the glory of God; and that promptly. Do not permit your earnestness in business, your keen strife in the competition of the times, to present a sad contrast to your indifference, coldness, restraint and lack of service in the Christian life. The successful trader and toiler should be the earnest worker for Christ. He who can speak fluently in the markets and about his craft, should not be tongue-tied about his Saviour. We doubt not that the result will be glorious, if during the next year you will bring as much zeal and directness of aim to bear upon your Christian life and work, as you do upon your business life. May God help you! He will, if He sees that you recognize the fact, that they who call Christ Saviour, must acknowledge Him as Lord and Master.

'Brethren,' we 'commend you to God, and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them that are sanctified.'

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

WILLIAM B. POPE, President,
HENRY W. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

THE ANNUAL ADDRESS

OF THE

IRISH CONFERENCE, 1877,

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1877.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren,

Our Annual Conference gives us the opportunity of again expressing our unabated affection and fraternal regard for you, and of adding another to the many links which bind us in the bonds of a loving brotherhood.

We rejoice to remember that we are one in faith and practice. We have the common possession of the faith once delivered to the saints, the one inheritance in the memory of a self-denying and godly ministry, and a common work in winning our native land to the sceptre of Christ.

We welcome to our Conference your honoured President, the Rev. Alexander M'Aulay, and his beloved companions. Some of them are well-known and well-tried friends; others we have with us for the first time, but their names have been familiar to us; all have won our increased confidence as we have met them in private, listened to their public ministry of the Word, and have been aided by them in the discharge of the business of the Conference.

We regret the absence of our esteemed brother, Dr. Punshon, owing to the lamented death of the Rev. George T. Perks.

We rejoice with you in the prosperity with which our God is blessing your labours. The abundance poured into the Lord's treasury, the erection of numerous places for public worship, the increase in your Day and Sabbath Schools, and the success which has attended your Higher School department, especially in Cambridge, are matters to you and us of devout thanksgiving. But above all we joy and rejoice with you in your spiritual prosperity. The large ingathering of souls into the fold of Christ reported at your last Conference, and the steady increase during the year, as shown by the District returns, as well as the large number of Candidates for the Ministry, are incentives to gratitude, and zeal, and faith. May the Lord God of our fathers make you a thousandfold more than you are!

We remark with pleasure that your Address refers to the fact, that you have taken steps to associate the lay brethren with you during the transaction of your financial and general business, and trust that at your Conference this measure will be fully adopted. May it mark for you and for us an era of a nobler devotion to our Master's cause!

We sorrow with you in your bereavements by the removal to the more immediate presence of God of the courteous and able Dr. Stamp in a good old age, and (with impressive suddenness) of the devoted, laborious, and liberal-minded George Thomas Perks. In them we have lost true and sympathetic friends.

The year closing has been to us one of patient and onstant labour. The attendance upon public worship was never larger or more encouraging. Yet we cannot report an increase in our membership, though in several places there has been a gracious revival, and many souls have been saved.

Our general Mission-operations are carried on with unabated vigour, and our Missionaries have, as opportunity has been presented, preached in the open air, and met with encouraging success.

Financially our position is most cheering; and, notwithstanding the great commercial depression through which we have been passing, all our Funds have been well sustained.

The Auxiliary Investment Fund, inaugurated by Mr. Alderman M'Arthur three years ago, has reached the noble sum of £16,000, most of which has been paid to the Treasurers and invested, and this year the annuitants benefit by it.

The Day and Sabbath Schools are having our more careful attention, and this year there is a marked improvement in their working condition. The Methodist College, Belfast, maintains its position as an Educational Institution, and our old-established Connexional School in Dublin was never in a more prosperous state. Plans for the new building have been selected, and it is hoped that very soon it will be in course of erection.

We have to add to the death-roll the names of four of our brethren,—Charles Wood, Robert Hamilton, John Foster, and John Nelson. They were painstaking and laborious Methodist Preachers, and died, as they had lived, in 'the full assurance of faith.' The venerable John Nelson, at the ripe age of ninety-two, gently fell asleep. He was baptized by Mr. Wesley, and sixty-eight years since was accepted as a candidate for our work. During his long career he maintained a blameless life. He faithfully served the cause of God, and won the confidence of his brethren. He was again and again chosen to the chair of a District, and was for many years Treasurer of our Chapel Fund. Conscious up to the very moment of his death, he testified of the grace of God. Amongst his last messages was this: 'Give my best love to the Conference.' He was 'an Israelite indeed, in whom' there was 'no guile.' But while we weep over the graves of the departed, and mourn our loss, we rejoice not only that they have entered in triumph the ranks of the glorified, but also in the thought that 'the torch of truth is passed on to other and devoted heralds.' Ten young men, who have completed, with credit to themselves, and satisfaction to us, their probation, have been ordained to the full work of the Ministry, and seven others have been accepted as Candidates for our work.

The question of union with the Primitive Wesleyan-Methodist Society has occupied our careful attention, and arrangements have been made by which we hope that at the Conference of 1878 this union may be effected.

This Conference will be memorable in the history of Methodism in this country as that in which our lay brethren were in our Conference, united with us in our deliberations on financial and general business. We have made a new departure in our history and a true advance in the confidence and affection of our people.

We believe that there is for us and our country a glorious future, and we are assured that we have a mission to the people. The altered circumstances of the Protestant Churches have drawn the lines more sharply between them and us, and stimulated them into greater zeal. Romanism was never apparently more powerful in this land; its organization never more perfect, and its people never less accessible to evangelistic work. Our work is therefore all the more important. We have to watch over those whom God has given us, and by careful pastoral oversight to bind them more closely to us. We have to evangelize many parts of the country where the Protestant population is scanty, and hungers for a visit from our Ministers; and, asking no man's leave, so long as our commission from God holds good, we shall preach everywhere a full salvation, and by any means strive to save some. We have a witnessing work to do;—to bear testimony on the one hand to a full, free, and general salvation by Christ against either a limited purpose in His atonement, or a limited purpose in the preaching of the Gospel; and on the other hand to maintain in this stronghold of the Papacy that there is but 'one Mediator between God and men, the Man Christ Jesus,' and that we are saved, not by works of righteousness which we can do, but by faith alone in the atonement of our Lord Jesus Christ. Full of this confidence, we consecrate afresh ourselves to the solemn and sublime work, and seeking for the unction of the Holy One to rest upon and qualify us for it, we go forth to our life-work, and pray that God may give us an abundant spiritual harvest.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

JOSEPH W. M'KAY, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE, 1877,

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1877.

Reverend and dear Brethren,

In receiving your accustomed greeting we heartily reciprocate the fraternal sentiments which it conveys; and, while renewing the expression of our continued and cordial affection, we assure you of the deep interest which we cherish in all that affects your ministerial labours.

To your Representatives, the Revs. James Tobias, Oliver M'Cutcheon, and James Robertson, we have given our best welcome. The statements which they have made have served to put very clearly before us some important features of that work which, in the name of our common Master, you are earnestly prosecuting.

Although you cannot report an increase in your membership during the past year, we are glad to learn that the soul-converting power has, in several places, signally attended the ministry of the Gospel, and that, in the regard for the worship of God, and the attention to the Word of God, which your congregations show, your expectations of spiritual blessing are encouraged.

We are deeply sensible of the peculiar difficulties with which you are beset, and especially do we bear in mind that, in the ceaseless vigilance of the Romish Church, and in those weapons of ecclesiastical intolerance which that Church has learned so effectively to wield, you find a barrier which it is hard to break through.

You speak of the past year as having been 'one of patient and constant labour.' We are fully persuaded that the circumstances amidst which you seek to make full proof of your ministry do, in a very special manner, demand the undismayed spirit of this 'patient labour.' We would remind you of His words Who graciously recognizes all such service, when He says, 'I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience.'

We regard with much interest the reference which you make to the improved condition of your Day and Sunday Schools, and to the renewed vigour which marks your Educational Institutions in Dublin and Belfast. We also learn with much satisfaction that the new building for your valuable Connexional School in Dublin will soon be commenced. We are convinced that this important department of Christian labour well deserves, and will amply remunerate, all the attention and care you can bestow upon it.

Your mention of honoured brethren—especially the venerable John Nelson—who, after having earned 'a good degree,' have passed away to their rest and inheritance above deeply affects us. We also have to record the removal of many distinguished and beloved brethren. It is not often that in the same year we have to mourn over such men as Dr. Stamp, Dr. Waddy, Alfred Barrett, and George Thomas Perks; not to mention others, who may not have been so widely known, but who were held in high esteem, and whose names awaken precious memories of faithful service.

We are much gratified to hear of the success of the Auxiliary Investment Fund inaugurated by Mr. Alderman M'Arthur. You, too, will rejoice to know that the Rev. John Rattenbury, in his effort to supplement the allowances from the Worn-out Ministers' Fund, has met with so generous a response from our people, that of the sum of £100,000 proposed to be raised, upwards of £90,000 has been already subscribed.

The measures which you have taken to effect a union with the Primitive Wesleyan-Methodist Society have met with our cordial sympathy. We are gratified to find that, in all probability, this important object will be accomplished at the next Conference; and we trust that your most sanguine hopes of increased strength and usefulness will be fully realized.

Your reference to the introduction of lay brethren into your Conference during the transaction of 'financial and general business,' has been received by us with great satisfaction. We also have made arrangements which will associate our lay brethren with us in our own Conference, when financial and general affairs are under consideration. We anticipate that both you and ourselves will reap many advantageous results from this change in our economy.

During the year we have, in various places, rejoiced in the increased prosperity of the work of God. Upwards of nine thousand members have been added to our Societies, and our people have freely united with us in our efforts to extend the kingdom of Christ.

An unusually large number of Candidates have offered themselves for the work of the Ministry; and, of these, one hundred and forty-three have been accepted by the Conference.

Cheered by numerous tokens of the presence and blessing of our common Head, and feeling the solemn responsibility resting upon us as His commissioned servants, we would go forth, with you, to the labours of another year, in the spirit of humble and entire self-dedication to Him.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

HENRY W. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE

OF THE

METHODIST CHURCH IN FRANCE AND SWITZERLAND, 1877,

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1877.

Honoured Fathers and Brethren,

The sympathy expressed in the Letter which your last Conference so kindly addressed to us, affected us deeply on account of the intelligent acquaintance with our true position which the sentiments expressed in it so clearly manifested. And those feelings have been deepened by the genial presence and kindly words of the two honoured and beloved brethren who were appointed to represent British Methodism at the sittings of our Conference this year. Although the gushing feelings and glowing words of the Rev. Dr. Jobson were somewhat restrained by the necessity of interpreting his address into our own tongue, yet we felt the warmth of his cordial sympathy, and received more than one practical proof of his brotherly kindness and charity. The Rev. W. Gibson, B.A., is our old and tried friend. Of him it will be sufficient to say that should he be appointed by the British Conference to that official relation to us which, according to the Resolutions of the Missionary Committee, one of your Ministers will be appointed to hold, Mr. Gibson will receive a hearty welcome, and be sustained by our cordial co-operation in the execution of the plans which have been devised for the consolidation and extension of our work. The resolution passed by our Conference and entrusted to your Delegates will give you ample assurance of our determination to carry out the development of a sound Methodist organization in France, and to forsake not 'the assembling of ourselves together,' for the purpose of regular Christian communion and oversight.

We have to thank you for the liberal help afforded to our Theological Institution. It would seem as if, just as you give us the means, God gives us the men. Five young students have been admitted into the Institution at Lausanne during the present year. At our South-Eastern District Meeting, where three of these students were presented in the usual manner, we were struck with the fact that each represented a different nationality: one was from Switzerland, one from France, one from the Channel Islands. All had been brought to God by the labours of French Methodist Ministers, two of whom were present to hear from the lips of the young candidates this testimony to the power of the Divine word as preached by them in faithfulness and love. The same coincidence occurred when two probationers were presented for ordination. Both of them had been awakened under the ministry of one of our brethren, now a Supernumerary, and one of them had found peace under the ministry of a beloved brother who is now labouring in Paris. Surely Methodism in France is not a dry tree; a holy seed is in it; the Spirit of life has not forsaken us!

Nor are these the only encouragements which your God and our God has given us during the year. We have nothing striking to report, but we are thankful to say that there is some increase in the number both of our hearers and members. In some Circuits the increase has been large; but, owing to unfavourable circumstances in other Circuits, the net increase is smaller than we had hoped. Evangelistic efforts have been made vigorously in certain neighbourhoods, and crowned with success. And doors of usefulness open before us in various places, much faster than we can possibly enter them. Voices reach our ears on almost every hand, some whispering with trembling, 'We know that the Lord has given you the city;' and others with the imploring cry, 'Come over and help us'

Your speediest help cannot come too soon, nor your utmost help too abundantly for the needs of our position.

We were informed by your Delegates that not only on the part of some leading official men, but to a large extent throughout British Methodism, there is a great and growing sympathy for our struggling, suffering cause. We believe that this testimony is true. And we desire, through the organ of the British Conference, to express our gratitude and to prefer our claims. We believe that you love us too well to desert our side in our endeavours on the one hand to uproot the superstitions, to unmask the falsehoods, and to resist the tyranny of Popery, and on the other hand to rescue souls from the killing influence of that vague, misnamed liberal Christianity, in which there is nothing of that Christ in whom we have believed.

We do not look for success in our efforts to any of those ecclesiastical modifications, which, in common with yourselves, we regard as just and beneficial, and adopt with frank cordiality. We know that the wisdom of men is but foolishness, and the might and power of man but impotence, if the Spirit of the Lord of Hosts be not poured upon us. We desire to 'give ourselves continually unto prayer,' and to seek our victories over man by first prevailing with God.

We need much prayer, for our difficulties are many and great. You know them to some extent, and we have often referred to them in past Addresses. We need not dwell upon them again, although some of them have been more than usually severe. A blight from God has smitten many of the wealthiest districts in France, reducing some of our most prosperous friends to a state of poverty. But He who made the heavens and the earth will not forsake us, nor be angry for evermore with our suffering friends. We also look up to God, that it may please Him to bring about the establishment of complete religious liberty in this country, and that His hand may avert any new dangers by which our present position may appear to be threatened.

Death, which has made large inroads amongst our members and hearers, has not been permitted to break, during the last twelve months, the ranks of our ministry. For this great mercy we praise God. But we have heard how many have fallen amongst you. The deaths of Dr. Waddy and Dr. Stamp affected us with sympathy for your losses. But the sudden death of the Rev. George T. Perks was to us a most startling event. Known personally to many of us, by his visit to our Conference and to the South of France, in frequent communication with us on matters relating to our work, admired by us for his superior abilities, beloved by us for his noble and amiable qualities, his death was to us as to you a subject of sincere and deep grief May the Lord restore to you in your rising ministry the abundant gifts and graces of the departed! May He stimulate us to unremitting faithfulness and zeal by the remembrance that the 'Son of Man cometh at an hour' that we 'think not!'

We have appointed as our Representative to your Conference the Rev. William Cornforth. We have also nominated as the President of our next Conference the Rev. James Hocart, Sen., and respectfully request you to confirm his re-appointment.

We devoutly pray that the great Head of the Church may pour out upon you abundantly the Holy Spirit.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

J. P. COOK, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1877

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH IN FRANCE AND SWITZERLAND, 1877.

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN,

WE have received with the liveliest satisfaction the report of your position and prospects as contained in the Address of your Conference, and as declared to us both by your Representative and by the brethren who were deputed to visit you, the Revs. Dr. Jobson and W. Gibson, B.A.

It is an especial gratification to us that so many young men have offered themselves for your ministry, and that in every instance they are your own spiritual children. The Church of God needs, above all earthly things, the mighty utterances of living men, whose lips the Lord hath touched with fire. We cannot conceive any brighter augury of success for your work than such a gift from heaven as this. And we earnestly pray that you with us may ever have a goodly succession of pastors and teachers, who shall be able to reason 'out of the Scriptures,' to 'convince the gainsayers,' and to 'feed the flock of God.'

In another feature of your work we also recognize a token for good. Your Address expresses your 'determination to carry out the development of a sound Methodist organization in France, and to forsake not the assembling of yourselves together for the purpose of regular Christian communion and oversight.' The fellowship of believers one with another has ever proved a source of strength, of knowledge, and of love, to those who have heartily and conscientiously maintained it. We know that the perversion and grievous misrepresentation by the dominant religion of an undoubted Christian duty has caused you peculiar difficulties in carrying out this important part of our economy; but we doubt not that as this means of grace becomes better understood it will be as warmly appreciated and as diligently resorted to by your people, as it has long been by English Methodists.

We have learned with unaffected sympathy the difficulties you find in meeting the urgent claims, and in entering the opened doors that present themselves in various parts of your country. The sacrifices and sufferings of your Ministers and people in maintaining your work touch us deeply. That, amidst such struggles and needs, many of your friends should suffer from the heavy temporal calamity which has fallen upon some districts is indeed painful. But He who is often pleased by the ministry of suffering, at once to call to higher enterprise and to qualify for more vigorous effort, will, we doubt not, so aid and sanctify in this time of need, that you shall be constrained to acknowledge the wisdom and the goodness of His hand.

The heavy losses which our Ministry and Churches have suffered during the past twelve months, referred to so sympathetically in your Address, have filled us with profound sorrow. In the clear intellect, the high character, the unwearied devotion, and the able services of Dr. Waddy, Dr. Stamp, and Mr. Perks we have long devoutly rejoiced. God has called them from us, but their memory is very precious, and their influence will abide.

To your Representative, the Rev. W. Cornforth, we give a very hearty welcome, both as the messenger of your Church and as one of ourselves, who has laboured amongst you faithfully and well. We have pleasure in appointing the Rev. James Hocart, Sen., President of your next Conference, in accordance with your request.

To the future of your work we look forward with unqualified interest and lively faith. The difficult and troubled experiences through which your country is now passing, the prevalence of that system of superstition and priestism which has never failed to relax the moral fibre and to subvert the religious liberty of those over whom it has sway, the influence of that so-called 'liberal Christianity,' which, by its unwise and unwarranted concessions, betrays the faith,—all these, if they make the need supreme, make the occasion great. We rejoice most heartily to hear of your firm resolve to maintain the doctrines of Methodism, and to promote the establishment and extension of its institutions. In our desire to render you every assistance in carrying out this resolve, and with a view to the consolidation of your work, we have designated as the Representative of our Foreign Missionary Committee amongst you the Rev. W. Gibson, B.A., who is to us a brother greatly beloved. You have already in anticipation given him the promise, which we are glad to receive, of your hearty co-operation and support. We believe that this arrangement may constitute an epoch in the history of French Methodism. If your present purposes be carried out, and in the spirit of a true evangelization the large towns be entered and claimed for Christ, whilst care is taken that the rural districts shall be in no wise overlooked, we dare not doubt that the issue will be glorious. The time seems to have come when, as God's servants, you are called to go up and possess this land. 'Be strong and of a good courage,' and He who is 'the shield of your help, and the sword of your excellency,' shall give it to you for a possession.

We cordially unite in your prayer that the Head of the Church may pour out His Spirit abundantly on us all, and we fervently hope that to you and us this year may be one of unequalled blessing.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,
HENRY W. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1877

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE AUSTRALASIAN WESLEYAN-METHODIST CHURCH, 1875.

Reverend and dear Brethren,

If between you and ourselves there is the uttermost separation of geographical distance, there exists also that bond of fellowship which neither space nor circumstance can alter; for, besides the charity which makes it easy for us to keep our traditional attitude as the friends of all—especially of them that 'are of the household of faith'—our hearts cherish towards you a feeling of the most intimate kinship, thinking of you, as we do, as those who still belong to the home-circle, albeit you have made for yourselves a home elsewhere. Your successes and your cares never cease to be ours also; wherefore we have received with thankful and loving welcome your message sent at your last session of 1875.

When this our greeting reaches you, it will find you assembled once more, after a three years' experiment of those organic and administrative changes, whereby you have modified our Church polity so as to give it a more efficient adaptation to the requirements of your wide-spread field of operations. We heartily wished you Godspeed in the beginning of this endeavour to further the work of the Gospel in your hands, and now await, with the deepest interest, the results as they will be reported to you.

As we expected none other things from you, so have we received to our great comfort your declaration, that, in all matters of faith and doctrine, you refuse to admit any change, and have borne unflinching witness against the loose unbelief, which vainly seeks to conciliate the carnal mind instead of demanding its reconciliation to God. With such a history as your records already hold, and in sight of the wonderful harvests garnered from your Mission-fields, you may well be strong in maintaining, that that Gospel needs no adaptation to differences of time or place or culture, which has ever been 'the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth.'

In referring thus to your Mission-work, we cannot but express our almost jealous solicitude for its prosperity, not as implying any doubt of your earnestness and wisdom therein, but as recalling the strong hold it acquired upon our affections while it was under our own care. Few scenes of Missionary toil, from 'the beginning of the Gospel,' can show such rapidly gained and firmly held success as your Polynesian Missions. We watch carefully, but in faith, the effect produced by certain political changes as modifying the conditions of this great department of Christian service; and our hearts have been excited into liveliest sympathy and gratitude as we mark the continuance amongst you of that sacred boldness which does not shrink from carrying its work of mercy into places of unknown peril; so that the explorations of science and the adventures of commerce find themselves, as they have done so often before, forestalled by the holy enterprise of the Gospel. We trust that the day is very near when Christian zeal will so administer the temporal abundance of your Colonial Churches, as to give you the satisfaction of sustaining and enlarging your Missions by your own unaided resources.

In the messenger of your Church to us, the Rev. James Buller, we have welcomed one who has long been held by us in high esteem, while we have recognized in him, on account of the eventful scene of his long labours, a fitting representative of godly work done under those peculiarly various conditions which extensively affect your operations. We have derived much satisfaction also from our intercourse with his honoured companion, the Rev. James Bickford, whom we esteem both for his personal excellencies, and for his varied and long continued labours in the cause of Christ.

It has given us much pleasure to accede to your request, that we would appoint one of our Ministers as our Representative to your next General Conference; and you will be glad to learn that the Rev. Gervase Smith, D.D., has consented, at our earnest solicitation, to undertake that service, and to visit, as far as practicable, the several Colonies connected with your Conference.

For ourselves, we know how fully, and how gratefully, you share our joy in those spiritual riches wherein our Lord is giving us increase: and we thus call upon you to render your thanks with ours to Him who enables us to be faithful in holding, and earnest in delivering, the old truths; who gives us to see our Societies enlarged by thousands of converted people, preserves our Church in unity and concord, and raises up amongst us, in larger numbers than we have ever known before, men for the work of His ministry.

And now, dear Brethren, with all possible love, and with warmest desires for your wellbeing, we bid you farewell, trusting in God that, throughout your time of assembling, you may never be without the clear tokens of His presence and favour, in Whom you and we are one, and that at all times God may, on your behalf, 'fulfil all the good pleasure of His goodness, and the work of faith with power: that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in Him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.'

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

HENRY W. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1877

TO THE NEXT

GENERAL CONFERENCE

OF THE

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH SOUTH, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

Reverend and dear Brethren,

It has afforded us no ordinary pleasure to receive amongst us at our annual Conference the two Brethren who were accredited to us as your Representatives, Bishop Marvin and the Rev. E. R. Hendrix. Our interest in the occasion and object of their visit to the Old World would of itself have insured them a cordial welcome, as messengers of the Churches; but a still deeper feeling has been awakened by the earnest and affectionate salutation borne by them from your Church to ours, and by the tidings which they have brought of your prosperity. Most heartily, dear Brethren, do we reciprocate your Christian greeting, and join in your thanksgivings for the success that has followed your labours.

We rejoice in the many tokens of a broad and deep Christian culture amongst the members of your Church, in the prosperity of your educational institutions, and in the earnestness of your endeavours to maintain and diffuse pure and elevated literature. Above all, we were filled with thankfulness as we heard your Representatives speak of the happy results of the trials through which your country has passed, the deepened piety of your Church at home, and the revival of zealous effort in Missionary labours abroad. May He who has thus blessed the times of trouble and distress send far more abundant blessing in these times of peace! The accounts which Bishop Marvin has given us respecting your Missionary work in Mexico, in Africa, in China, amongst the Germans in Texas, and amongst the Indians, were to us full of interest. We look forward to great results from your labour in these fields, some of which are open to yourselves alone. We are persuaded that with you, as with ourselves, zealous Missionary effort abroad will ever be fraught with blessed influence on Churches at home.

As to ourselves, we gratefully acknowledge that during the past year the good hand of the Lord our God has been upon us. In many places we have been permitted to witness a remarkable revival of religious power. Our annual returns show that, though our losses by death and by emigration have been very great, the number of members in our Societies has been increased by nine thousand during the year. The number of Candidates offering themselves for the work of the Ministry has been larger than in any former year of our history. Our Theological Colleges are filled with earnest young men preparing for home and foreign spheres of labour. Our Foreign Missions have been well sustained, though the range of our operations has not been greatly enlarged during the year. The working of our various educational institutions has been successful, and in every department of Christian labour we have, through the Divine blessing, to record encouraging results.

Many circumstances have concurred to impress us very deeply with a sense of our responsibility for maintaining in its purity, and for declaring with increased fervency and force, the 'message' of truth which from the beginning the Methodist Churches have received and proclaimed. The pretensions of an infidelity which claims to occupy as its own the fields of philosophy and of science, the organized conspiracy of Ultramontanism against our liberties and our faith, the ritualistic and sacerdotal spirit that widely prevails, and the insidious errors that are finding their way into many Churches of our land, fill us with solicitude, and impel us to greater zeal in the diffusion of sound doctrine. We are satisfied, dear Brethren, that in these feelings and resolves you are one with us, recognizing with equal fulness of conviction these peculiar and weighty responsibilities. You will unite with us in fervent prayer to the 'One Lord,' that all our Churches may be knit together in 'one faith.'

Having this end in view, we would gladly strengthen the bonds of fraternal intercourse with all that 'hold the Head,' and especially with all branches of the Methodist Church. We greatly rejoice that in your own land the Churches of the North and the South are coming into closer fellowship. We shall gladly embrace every opportunity of proving the reality and the depth of our brotherly feeling. There are many difficulties which prevent us from acceding to your request that we should appoint a Representative to attend your Conference next year. We trust that in the future such an appointment may be found practicable.

You will have our earnest prayers, dear Brethren, that a special blessing may rest on your General Conference. With warm Christian affection and high esteem, we commend you to God and to the word of His grace.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

HENRY W. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

OF

TO THE

PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS OF THE WESLEYAN-METHODIST CONFERENCE ASSEMBLED IN BRISTOL, AUGUST, 1877.

Christian Brethren,

We, the Associated Ministers of the Congregational, Baptist, and Presbyterian denominations in Bristol, beg to present to you our fraternal greeting in the name of our common Lord and Saviour.

We heartily welcome you to this ancient city, associated as it is so intimately with the early labours and successes of your honoured Founder, and where he built, in 1739, the first Methodist chapel.

We remember with much thankfulness and joy the great work your Societies have done toward the evangelization of the people of this land, and we fully appreciate the fact that in many of our villages you have kept the light of Gospel truth steadily burning in times when, but for your efforts, the darkness would have been almost as dense as among the heathen.

We are perpetually reminded in our public worship of the obligations under which we, in common with the whole Church, are laid by the hymns of the two Wesleys, in some respects unsurpassed in Christian hymnology, and which are as dear to the bodies of Christians we represent as to your own people.

We congratulate you on the large accession to the membership of your Church during the past year, and we share with you the joy which we are confident you all experience to-day in the fulfilment, to so large an extent, of the desire expressed by your late President when he entered on his office. We pray that during the ensuing year you may receive a still richer outpouring of the Holy Spirit, resulting in a riper Christian life among yourselves and a greater awakening among the masses whose spiritual welfare you so earnestly seek.

While sincerely admiring the practical union of the Churches in Christian fellowship and enterprise, which is secured by your organization, we have watched with the deepest interest the course your discussions have taken on the subject of lay representation; and though it would be unbecoming in us to express any opinion on a question which relates to your internal government, we cannot but hope that the result of all your deliberations will be so to strengthen the hold of your Church on the affections of its members, and so to increase its usefulness on those without, as to convince you that the Spirit of wisdom has presided over your counsels.

We sympathize with you in the annoyances to which your members are at times subjected from the bigotry and intolerance of some of the Clergy of the Established Church, and we rejoice in the assurance that we have you as our resolute and earnest coadjutors in opposing all pretensions to priestly power, and in preserving to future generations the Christian liberty which we ourselves enjoy.

We trust, dear Brethren, that the meetings of this Conference will be productive of much good; that the God of all wisdom will direct you, that whatever differences of opinion there may be, there may be oneness of heart, and that you and we alike may be led to pray more fervently that we all may be one in Christ, as Christ and the Father are one.

We are, dear Brethren, yours in Christian love.

Signed by the direction and on behalf of the Associated Ministers,

F. W. GOTCH, LL.D.
GEORGE WOOD, B.A.
PETER RUTHERFORD.
W. WALKER JUBB.
WILLIAM R. SKERRY, Hon. Secretary.

APPENDIX II.

MEETING OF THE MISSIONARY COMMITTEE OF REVIEW,

HELD IN BRISTOL, JULY 24TH, 1877.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. Osborn; seconded by Mr. Thomas F. C. May, of Bristol; supported by the Rev. George Chapman, late of South Africa, and the Rev. Dr. Jobson:

1. That this Committee, whilst recording its sense of the great loss which the Wesleyan Missionary Society has sustained in the sudden death of the senior Secretary, the Rev. George Thomas Perks, M.A., would gratefully cherish the memory of his great personal virtues, ripened scholarship, arduous and abundant labours, marvellous influence for good, and wise and conscientious administration of our economy as a Society, and devoutly prays that this solemn event may be sanctified to his sorrowing family and friends, and the Church generally.

Moved by the Rev. T. W. S. Jones, of Naples; seconded by Mr. E. Richardson, of Newcastle; supported by Mr. T. W. Pocock:

2. That this Committee would recognize, with profound gratitude, the numerous evidences of the growth of a healthier public opinion as to the value of Christian Missions to the heathen, and the need of greater definiteness and vigour in the prosecution of Protestant Missions in Europe.

Moved by the Rev. W. Burgess, of Madras; seconded by Mr. W. Dingley, of Sherborne; supported by the Rev. S. Whitehead, of China:

3. That this Committee regards the development of a vigorous Native Agency, the encouragement and growth of self-sustaining Mission Churches, and the organization of Mission Churches into aggressive central Missionary Societies, as of paramount importance, both as it respects the vitality of the Native Churches and the realization of the hope of the world's evangelization.

Moved by Mr. J. S. Budgett; seconded by the Rev. W. Hirst; supported by Mr. C. W. Rippon, of Manchester:

4. That this Committee is gratified to learn that, notwithstanding the commercial depression of the country, the ordinary income of the Society has suffered to so slight an extent; but, in view of any diminution of the funds, would urge the adoption of such means as shall seem desirable, whether by the revival and more vigorous working of old organizations, or by other methods, for the permanent maintenance of the Missionary income.

Moved by the Rev. Gervase Smith, D.D.; seconded by the Rev. John Farrar; supported by Mr. W. Pearce, of London:

5. That this Committee recommends that the thanks of the Conference be presented to the Rev. Dr. Jobson and Mr. James S. Budgett, the General Treasurers; to the Rev. Dr. Punshon and the Rev. John Kilner, the General Secretaries; to the Rev. William Arthur, M.A., Honorary Secretary; and to the Committee of Management, for their diligent and faithful services during the past year.

APPENDIX III.

I.—ANNUAL MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE SCHOOLS' FUND,

HELD IN BRISTOL, JULY 20TH, 1877.

PRESENT, the Rev. A. M'Aulay, President of the Conference, in the Chair; the Rev. Dr. Williams, Secretary of the Conference; the Ex-President; the Rev. F. Payne and Mr. John Meek, the General Treasurers of the Schools' Fund; the Rev. John Harvard and the Rev. Charles W. Prest, the General Secretaries of the Schools' Fund; the Rev. G. Stringer Rowe and Mr. Mewburn, the Treasurers of the Children's Fund; and the Rev. James D. Tetley, the Secretary of the Children's Fund, and others.

It was reported to the Committee that the number of Ministers' children on the Fund during the past year has been 786: in the Schools, 270 boys and 127 girls; receiving educational allowances at home, 389 boys and girls. The cost has been £22,026. 11*s.* 6*d.*; and the deficiency to be provided for by the Children's Fund has been £8,049. 1*s.* 9*d.* This is £2,291. 13*s.* 9*d.* more than last year. This deficiency grows, and the accumulated surplus of the Children's Fund, hitherto relied upon, is exhausted.

Under these circumstances, and having in view other Connexional needs, the Committee requested the Conference to appoint a large mixed Committee, to meet during the year, and to consider the whole question, financial and otherwise, of Wesleyan-Methodist Education, other than primary, with a view to the solution of the difficulties which at present attend the administration of the Schools' Fund.

The Committee appointed last year in relation to Income and Expenditure reported as follows:—(1.)

'That, having regard to the present and prospective circumstances of the Connexion, it is not desirable to recommend any change at present; but that it be represented to the Conference that unless successful efforts be made to increase the income from collections and subscriptions, the present and future deficiencies will probably have to be met, in part at least, by a charge upon parents, either for clothing, or in some other way.'

(2.) 'That a Committee be appointed by the Conference, consisting of the officers of the Schools' and Children's Funds, and a representative from the Governing Body of the School for Boys, and each Local Committee of the Schools for Girls, who shall meet at the close of each year, and review the expenditure of the year, make an estimate of the probable expenditure of the ensuing year, and report to the Conference.'

It was unanimously resolved,—

1. That having heard the Reports of the Governing Body, and of the Governors and Head Master of the School for Boys, together with the Reports of the Local Committees of the Schools for Girls, and the Reports of the Examiners at all the Schools, this Committee expresses its hearty satisfaction with the general results, and especially with the working of the new system under which the School for Boys is now administered; and this Committee recommends that the thanks of the Conference be given to the Governing Body, with its Treasurer and Secretaries, and to the Treasurers, Secretaries, and Committees of the Schools for Girls, for the very valuable services which they have rendered during the year.

2. That this Committee recommends also that the thanks of the Conference be given—

(1.) To the Rev. F. Payne and Mr. John Meek, the General Treasurers; the Rev. John Harvard and the Rev. Charles W. Prest, the General Secretaries, for the diligent and efficient discharge of the duties of their respective offices during the year.

(2.) To the Rev. John H. Lord and the Rev. George Fletcher, the Governors of the two Branches of the School for Boys; and to Mrs. Lord and Mrs. Fletcher, together with the Ladies having charge of the Schools for Girls, for their kind attention to the comfort of the children under their care during the year.

II.—SCHEME FOR THE MANAGEMENT OF THE KINGSWOOD AND WOODHOUSE GROVE SCHOOL.

I.—THE GOVERNING BODY.

1. The School and School-property shall be managed by a Governing Body, to which shall be transferred the powers as to the management of the Schools and School-property now possessed by the former Committees of the Kingswood and Woodhouse Grove Schools. This Governing Body may, under the direction of the Conference, procure incorporation, and if they do so the School-property shall be vested in the body so incorporated. This Governing Body shall consist of Ministers and laymen.

2. The President, Ex-President, and Secretary of the Conference;
   The General Treasurers and the General Secretaries of the Schools' Fund;
   The General Treasurers and the General Secretary of the Children's Fund;
   The Chairman for the time being of the Leeds, Halifax and Bradford, Bristol, and Bath Districts;
   The Governors and Head Master of the School for the time being;
   shall be ex-officio Members of the Governing Body.
   There shall be twenty-four other Members, to be called elected Members.

3. The first elected Members of the Governing Body shall be appointed by the Conference of 1875, and shall hold office until the Conference of 1878.

4. The twenty-four elected Members shall retire from office at the times and in the proportions following:—

At the Conference of 1878, eight of the elected Members, to be determined by ballot among themselves, unless they shall otherwise agree, shall go out of office:—

At the Conference of 1879, eight of the remaining number of the elected Members, to be determined in like manner, shall go out of office:—

At the Conference of 1880, the remaining eight shall go out of office. In each instance the places of the retiring Members of the Governing Body shall be filled up by the Conference; and at every subsequent Conference one-third of the elected Members of the Governing Body, being those who have been longest in office, shall go out of office, and their places shall be supplied in like manner. No Member of the Governing Body retiring from office shall be eligible for immediate re-election except in special cases. The Members who are to retire in rotation shall hold office until replaced.

5. Of the Members thus elected by the Conference, one shall be nominated every three years by the Masters of the School, other than the Head Master.

6. One shall be nominated annually by the Associates of the School. All pupils of Kingswood, New Kingswood, or Woodhouse Grove School, who shall have left before the date of this Scheme, and all pupils of this School who shall hereafter receive a certificate of honour or merit from this School, shall, if annual Subscribers to the funds of the School, be called Associates.

The mode of nomination under this and the preceding clause shall be fixed by the Governing Body. The Conference shall not be bound to accept a nominee under either of these two clauses.

7. Every Member of the Governing Body must be a Minister in full connexion, or a Member of the Wesleyan-Methodist Society. No Master of the School, other than the Head Master, shall be a Member of the Governing Body.

8. A Member of the Governing Body shall vacate his office:—

(1.) By death;

(2.) By voluntary retirement, to be signified by him to the Governing Body in writing;

(3.) By resolution of the Conference removing him from office;

(4.) By becoming lunatic or bankrupt, or by the liquidation of his affairs; or (5.) By neglecting, for one year, to attend any Meeting of the Governing Body, or any Sub-Committee thereof.

Vacancies under this clause shall not be filled up until the period when the Member vacating office would have retired in rotation.

9. The Governing Body may act, notwithstanding vacancies in their body.

10. Subject to any regulations which may be made by the Conference, the Governing Body may fix their own times and places of meeting, their mode of summoning Meetings and transacting business, their quorum and procedure. They may appoint Sub-Committees with such powers as they think fit. They shall keep minutes and accounts, and may appoint a Vice-Chairman, who shall act in the absence of the President of the Conference. They shall also appoint a Secretary and a Treasurer, and may appoint any other officers.

11. The Accounts of the School up to the end of June in each year shall be audited in the month of July in that year, by a professional Auditor to be appointed by the General Committee of the Schools' Fund. No Member of the Governing Body shall be an Auditor. A copy of the Balance-Sheet so audited shall be immediately forwarded to the General Secretaries of the Schools' Fund.

II.—THE SCHOOL AND ITS MANAGEMENT.

12. The Governors and the Head Master shall be the chief officers of the School. The Governors shall be appointed and removed by the Conference on the recommendation of the Governing Body or otherwise. The Head Master shall be appointed by the Governing Body, and may be removed by the Conference after six months' notice, without assigning cause.

13. Each Governor shall be a Minister in full connexion with the Conference; and if suspended from his office as a Minister, shall thereby vacate the office of Governor. If a Governor die, or be suspended from his office as a Minister, or be incapacitated for the discharge of his duties in the interval between the sessions of the Conference, the Governing Body shall make due provision for the temporary discharge of the duties of Governor.

14. The Governing Body may dismiss the Head Master without assigning cause on six months' notice; but the resolution dismissing him must be passed at two consecutive meetings of the Governing Body, held at an interval of not more than four weeks, or less than two weeks. Within a month from the second meeting, the Head Master may lodge an appeal to the Conference with the President. The dismissal shall not take effect pending the appeal, but shall take effect immediately on the confirmation by the Conference of the dismissal, if the six months have elapsed.

15. Nevertheless, for urgent cause, the Governing Body may, by resolution passed at a Special Meeting duly convened for that express purpose, and affirmed by not less than two-thirds of the whole existing Governing Body, suspend the Head Master from his office, and make temporary provision for the discharge of his duties. Full notice and opportunity of defence, both against such dismissal and against such suspension, shall be given to the Head Master.

16. Every Head Master, previously to entering into office, shall be required to sign a declaration in the Minute Book of the Governing Body, in the following form:—

'I, , declare that I will always, to the best of my ability, discharge the duties of Head Master of the Kingswood and Woodhouse Grove School during my tenure of the office, and that if I am removed by the Conference, or the Governing Body, according to the constitution of the said School, I will acquiesce in such removal, and will thereupon relinquish all claim to the Mastership and its emoluments, and will deliver up to the Governing Body, or as they direct, possession of all their property then in my possession or occupation.'

17. The Governors and Head Master shall reside in the dwelling-houses assigned for their respective residence. Each shall have the occupation and use of such house and any other property of the Trust of which he becomes occupant in respect of his official character and duties, and not as tenant, and shall, if removed from office, deliver up possession of such house and other property to the Governing Body, or as they direct. He shall not, except with the permission of the Governing Body, permit any other person to occupy such house or any part thereof.

18. The Governors and Head Master shall give their personal attention to the duties of their respective offices, and none of them, during his tenure of office, shall accept or hold any office or appointment which, in the opinion of the Governing Body, may interfere with the proper performance of his duties. But this limitation shall not apply to any appointment made by the Conference.

19. No officer of the School shall receive or demand from any boy in the School, or from any person whomsoever on behalf of any such boy, any gratuity, fee, or payment, except such payments as are prescribed or authorised by the Governing Body.

20. The Governing Body shall have the general superintendence and management of the School, and may make any regulations not inconsistent with this Scheme. They shall prescribe the general subjects of instruction, the relative prominence and value to be assigned to each group of subjects, the division of the year into School terms and vacations, the School-hours, the number of pupils, and the maximum number of holidays to be given in the terms. They shall take general supervision of the sanitary condition of the School-buildings and arrangements, and make all necessary repairs, additions, and improvements. In particular, the Governing Body may, out of such funds as may be placed in their hands for the purpose, enlarge the School-buildings so as to accommodate such number of pupils as the Conference may, from time to time, direct. They shall determine what number of Assistant-Masters shall be employed. They shall every year assign the amount which they think proper to be paid for the purpose of maintaining Assistant-Masters and other Teachers, and a proper plant or apparatus for carrying on the instruction given in the School.

21. Subject to the rules prescribed by or under the authority of this Scheme, the Governors shall be responsible for the religious instruction and oversight of the School. Subject, as aforesaid, the Governors shall also superintend the domestic management of the School.

22. Subject to the rules prescribed by or under the authority of this Scheme, the Head Master shall have under his control the choice of books, the method of teaching, the arrangement of classes, and generally the whole educational management of the School.

23. The Governor and Head Master jointly shall have the power of giving holidays, not exceeding the maximum number of holidays to be given in the terms.

24. Subject to appeal to the Governing Body, the Head Master shall be the supreme executive authority in respect of School-studies and discipline in School-hours, and the Governors in other respects; but the system of discipline shall, as far as possible, be the same throughout, and shall be arranged by the Governor and Head Master in concert. The Governor and Head Master jointly may remove a boy from the School, but his parents or guardians may appeal to the Governing Body for his restoration.

25. The Governor and Head Master shall jointly have the power of appointing and of dismissing any Assistant-Master or other Teacher, and shall determine in what proportion the sum assigned by the Governing Body for the maintenance of Assistant-Masters and other Teachers, or of plant or apparatus, ought to be divided among the various persons and objects for the aggregate of which it is assigned; and the Governing Body shall pay the same accordingly.

26. Any matter on which the Governor and Head Master shall not agree, shall be referred to the Governing Body.

27. The Governors shall receive such payment as the Conference, after taking into consideration all the circumstances of the case, shall direct.

28. The Head Master shall receive such payment as the Governing Body, from time to time, may appoint.

29. Subject to the provisions established by or under the authority of this Scheme, and to the regulations of the Conference from time to time, the School shall be open without charge to the sons of Wesleyan Ministers, or of deceased Wesleyan Ministers.

30. If the number of applications for admission should exceed the number of vacancies, the order of admission shall be decided by the Governing Body, having regard to the special circumstances of each case.

31. No boy shall, without special leave of the Governing Body, be admitted into the School under the age of ten years, and no boy, without such special leave, shall remain in the School beyond the end of the School term in which he attains the age of nineteen years. And the Governors and Head Master shall make regulations, subject to the approval of the Governing Body, for the withdrawal of boys from the School in cases where, through idleness or incapacity, they have fallen considerably below the standard of position and attainment proper for their age.

32. No boy shall, without special leave, remain more than six years in the School. Subject to the veto of the Conference, special leave to remain for any further period may be given by the Governing Body on the recommendations of the Governor and Head Master. Such further period shall be granted either by way of Exhibition, or on such payment as the Governing Body may think fit.

33. Every applicant for admission shall be examined, by or under the direction of the Head Master, who shall appoint convenient times and places for that purpose, and give reasonable notice to the parents. Such examination shall be graduated according to the age of the boy, or other circumstances, at the discretion of the Governing Body. No boy shall be admitted to the School except on the terms of undergoing such examination, and being found fit for admission. The Governing Body shall call for a certificate of health, and may, in case of need, call for a certificate of character.

34. There shall be, once in every year, an examination of the School by Examiners appointed for that purpose by the Governing Body, and paid by them, but otherwise unconnected with the School. The Examiners shall report to the Governing Body on the proficiency of the scholars, and on the position of the School as regards instruction and discipline, as shown by the result of the examination. They shall also mention the name of the boy who has shown the highest attainments, and the names of any other boys who, in their judgment, are worthy of praise or substantial reward. But they need not report any name if, in their judgment, the result of the examination is wholly unsatisfactory.

35. The Governors and Head Master respectively shall make Annual Reports to the Governing Body as to the general condition of the School, and as to any special occurrences during the year. They may also mention the names of any boys who, in their judgment, are worthy of praise or substantial reward, having regard both to proficiency and to conduct.

36. The Scholarships now given at the two Schools shall be attached to this School. The Conference Scholarships shall continue to be given.

37. The Governing Body shall make provision for such further Scholarships and Exhibitions as the funds of the School, or any funds specially given for the purpose, will allow, and, subject to the terms of such gifts, may fix the terms of election to all Scholarships.

38. The School shall be divided into two departments, an Upper School and a Lower School. Subject to the directions, from time to time, of the Governing Body, the Upper and Lower Schools shall be so arranged that the pupils pass from the Lower to the Upper School at an age of about thirteen years.

39. The Upper School shall be divided into Classical and Modern Departments.

40. Subject to any directions, from time to time, of the Governing Body, after consultation with the Governors and Head Master as to matters within their respective provinces, the subjects of instruction shall be—

In both the Schools.—Thorough English education, Biblical instruction, History, Geography, Singing, and Drawing.

Lower School.—Writing, Latin, French, Arith-

Upper School—Classical Side.—Latin, Greek, French, German, Mathematics, and Physical Science.

General.

41. The Governing Body may appoint a Steward or Stewards, and a Matron or Matrons, and fix their salaries and duties.

42. The Governing Body may receive donations or endowments for the general purposes of the School, or for any Scholarships, Exhibitions, or other special purposes of the School.

43. If the Conference shall, at any time, resolve to admit to the School boys not the sons of Wesleyan Ministers, the Governing Body may admit such boys on such terms as they, subject to any Resolutions of the Conference, shall think expedient. In that case the Governing Body may extend the School, either on the hostel or house system.

44. The Governing Body shall make, in the month of July in each year, a Report to the Conference, on the state of the School; such Report to be accompanied by the Auditor's Report.

45. The expenses of the School shall be defrayed by the Governing Body out of such moneys as shall, under the authority of the Conference, be paid over to them by the General Committee of the Schools' Fund.

46. The Governing Body may, with the sanction of Conference, alter this Scheme.

MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE OF REVIEW ON CHAPEL AFFAIRS, HELD IN BRISTOL, JULY 23RD, 1877.

PRESENT, the Rev. A. M'Aulay, President of the Conference, in the Chair; the Rev. Henry W. Williams, D.D., Secretary of the Conference; the Rev. Messrs. Edwin H. Tindall and Henry J. Pope, Secretaries of the Chapel Committee; the Rev. Messrs. John Bedford, Dr. Jobson, Dr. Punshon, Dr. James, Dr. Gervase Smith, and others.

Also, Mr. Samuel R. Healey, one of the Treasurers of the General Chapel Fund, Sir Francis Lycett, Messrs. T. P. Bunting, John Berrie, John Dyson, T. F. C. May, and others.

The Rev. Edwin H. Tindall read the Report for the year 1876–7, of which the following is an abstract:—

The Income from all Sources is £9,794. 4*s*. 0*d*.; being an increase on the year from ordinary sources of £144. 7*s*. 8*d*.

The Subscriptions and Collections for the 'North Wales Chapel Fund' amount to £618. 8*s*. 7*d*.; being an increase on the year of £20. 8*s*. 7*d*.

The Subscriptions and Collections for the 'South Wales Chapel Fund' amount to £31. 8*s*. 8*d*.

I.—BUILDING DEPARTMENT.

118 Chapels, at an estimated cost of £185,578; 15 Ministers' houses, £15,634; 25 School Rooms, £20,889;

92 Alterations and Enlargements, £47,621; 96 Modifications, £30,474; 43 Organs, £13,426, have been sanctioned by the Committee. The temporary debt sanctioned is £55,479, being $21\frac{7}{10}$ per cent on the outlay. The aid promised by the Committee to new Chapels is, in Grants, £2,635; and in Loans £9,333.

Sales.

The Committee have sanctioned the sale of 37 Chapels, 5 Schools, 6 Ministers' houses, and 17 other Trust Properties. 36 Chapels and 3 Schools are to be replaced by more commodious erections.

Erections completed.

In the following cases the conditions agreed upon with the Committee have been observed:—78 Chapels, costing £142,283; 14 Ministers' houses, £13,136; 12 School Rooms, £7,738; 58 Alterations and Enlargements, £34,486; 41 Organs, £10,978. In 56 cases the debt is larger than the amount allowed by £10,548.

There are also 22 cases for which Connexional sanction was not sought, and on which the outlay is £12,686, and the debt 36 per cent of the cost.

During the year the Committee have paid towards new Chapels,—Grants, £2,470; Loans, £6,020.

II.—RELIEF DEPARTMENT.

Grants.

To the Trustees of 72 Chapels £3,154 has been paid. On 47 of these Chapels no debt now remains.

Loans.

The Loan instalments received during the year, have amounted to £8,356. 9*s*. 6*d*. on the Relief Fund account, and £3,871 on the Erections'-Fund account. The Loans now in operation are 512. The North Wales Committee have advanced £1,090 in Loans.

III.—LOCAL EFFORTS.

The sums paid off by local efforts and surplus income amount to £25,429. 16*s*. 5*d*.

Contributions to Circuit Funds.

2,898 Trusts have contributed £37,685. 19*s.* 5*d.*, being an increase of 99 Trusts, and £2,239. 5*s.* 2*d.* in contributions.

IV.—SUMMARY.

The total amount of debts discharged is £57,551, making £1,175,028 in the last 23 years.

The total sum contributed in Great Britain, in the last year, as far as ascertained, is £277,862.

V.—GENERAL MANAGEMENT OF TRUST ESTATES.

The returns include particulars relating to 6,578 separate Trust Estates. There are 3,450 Trusts returned as free from debt, and 4,676 as insured against loss by fire.

VI.—LEGAL AFFAIRS.

An opinion has been obtained from the Solicitor to the Board of Inland Revenue to the effect that Instruments appointing new Trustees under the Model Deed powers require only one ten-shilling stamp. As one class of Instruments alone is affected by this decision, the Committee deem it important further to pursue the subject, and a friendly case is now being prepared for that purpose.

The following Resolutions were adopted:—

Moved by the Rev. Dr. Punshon; and seconded by Mr. Page:

1. That this Meeting is gratified to find, from the Report now read, that, notwithstanding the continued commercial depression, so many new erections have been commenced during the past year. It likewise views with satisfaction the completion of so large a number of cases in which the conditions of erection have been fulfilled, especially in view of the greatly enhanced cost of building since some of these undertakings were commenced.

Moved by the Rev. W. T. Radcliffe; and seconded by Mr. W. W. Pocock:

2. That, considering the financial difficulties which beset the erection of Chapels in destitute localities, the Meeting would be glad if the limited means at the disposal of the Committee for aiding such cases were increased. It is, however, encouraged to find that a larger sum than in any previous year has been appropriated to the Erections' Grants' Fund, and earnestly hopes that a more liberal support of the General Chapel Fund will place still larger resources at the disposal of the Committee for this branch of its operations.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. Jobson; and seconded by Mr. W. M'Arthur, M.P.:

3. That the thanks of this Meeting be presented to the District Chapel Secretaries and Committees, to the Circuit Chapel Secretaries, and to the Ministers and Trustees who have acted with them, for their valuable services during the year; also to Messrs. Samuel R. Healey and Richard Haworth, the Treasurers; to the Rev. Messrs. Edwin H. Tindall and Henry J. Pope, the General Secretaries; to the Rev. John Bedford, Secretary of the Board of Trustees for Chapel Purposes; and to the Committee, for their diligent and faithful services.

APPENDIX V.

METROPOLITAN WESLEYAN CHAPEL BUILDING FUND.

THE following Statement was read by the General Secretary:—

The Committee has endeavoured during the year to prosecute its work with vigour and fidelity, though in the face of more than ordinary difficulties.

I.—SITES.

Committees have been appointed to inspect sites in thirteen Metropolitan Circuits. Several of these have been purchased by the help of the Fund, and others are still under the consideration of the Committee. Sixteen sites are available for use as soon as the means in the various Circuits and the resources of the Fund will allow.

II.—ERECTIONS.

1. On the GREENWICH site, recently acquired, a temporary structure has been raised, which is now used for public worship.

2. Commodious Chapels are now nearly ready for opening at LEYTON, in the Clapton Circuit, and BROCKLEY, in the Deptford Circuit.

3. HAMPSTEAD.—Five years ago, taking advantage of one of our rules, the friends here built the shell of what will eventually be a very beautiful chapel, providing only four hundred sittings in the front part of the structure, with school and vestry accommodation in the rear. Three hundred pounds were therefore kept back from the Committee's grant until the six hundred additional sittings were supplied. Already improved and increased accommodation is required. An appeal has been made to the Committee; and, in the somewhat exceptional circumstances of the case, it has been resolved: 'That if two hundred and fifty additional sittings, making altogether six hundred and fifty sittings, be provided, the Committee will sanction the payment of £125 of the £300 reserved; will grant £150 from the interest on Mr. Heald's Gift (£100 from this source having been already granted), and in consideration of the fact that more than the required instalments of the Loan have been repaid, will make an additional Loan of £175, on condition that the entire Loan be repaid within the ten years from the first instalment.'

III.—PAYMENTS.

1. Ordinary Fund, £1,800.
2. Special Fund, £4,450.

IV.—REPAYMENTS OF LOANS, £1,648. 5*s*.

There are now 13 cases in which the entire Loan has been repaid.

V.—INCOME.

The Income from Ordinary sources has been £3,017. 3*s*. 10*d*.; and for the Special Fund £4,039. 5*s*. 8*d*.

VI.—PUBLIC SERVICES.

The Conference has enjoined the making of Annual Collections in all the Metropolitan Chapels on the Lord's day. In a few cases the import of this regulation has not as yet been fully carried out; only one collection having been made in the principal places of worship, and in some of the smaller Chapels none at all. The Committee begs the kind and considerate attention of the Ministers and friends to this subject. It is affectionately suggested that special attention be called, both in sermons and appeals, to the moral necessities of the Metropolis, and to the financial requirements of the Fund.

With regard to Public Meetings, the Committee deeply regret that, owing to the indisposition of several members of the deputations, and other causes, there have been repeated disappointments; and in a few instances the Meetings which were arranged in the Financial District Committees have not been held.

The Fund has therefore suffered loss; but the Committee is thankful to report that notwithstanding these untoward circumstances, the Collections and Subscriptions are in advance of those of last year.

VII.—SPECIAL REGULATIONS.

During the year several Special Regulations have been made by the Committee, the most noteworthy of which are the following:—

1. That unless there are special circumstances to prevent, provision shall be made for at least 650 sittings on the ground floor of each new chapel; and that as large a proportion of these sittings as possible shall be fixed seats, or such as may be let.

2. That in every instance in which it is proposed to erect a portion of the premises which, when completed, shall provide (as the rule requires) 1000 sittings, the plans of the complete premises, in addition to the plans of the portion to be built immediately, shall be presented to the Committee for their approval.

3. That DUPLICATE PLANS, or satisfactory tracings of the premises, the completion of which is to be deferred, shall be delivered to the Secretary immediately after the plans have been approved by the Committee; and no alteration of, or departure from, such plans shall be allowed without the previous consent of the Committee.

4. Unsettled Cases.—It having been stated to the Committee that in several cases, though more than eighteen months have elapsed since the opening of chapels, when, according to our rule, the first repayment of the Loan should be made, the final schedules have not been presented, and consequently the cases have not been completed;—It is hereby declared that the delay in settlement ought not to interfere with our established rule; and it is resolved that, in every such case, the overdue instalment or instalments shall be deducted from the sum to be paid when the final schedule is presented.

5. Borrowing Money on Note.—It having come to the knowledge of the Committee that, in several instances, during the erection of the building, large sums of money have been borrowed on Note and at Interest: seeing that this practice has led to most serious delay in the final settlement of such cases; and remembering that one reason which led the Committee to sanction the payment of £1,500 of the grant during the erection, was to prevent this; the Committee hereby expresses its conviction that, whenever a temporary loan is required, such loan should not be taken up on the joint Note of the Trustees or the Building Committee, without the knowledge and consent of this Committee.

During the year the Society has sustained heavy losses in the removal of friends and supporters. In the provinces Mr. Thomas Hazlehurst, of Runcorn, has been taken away in the midst of life; the Rev. William Sugden, of Oakworth, in early declining years; and Mr. William Dyson, of York, in extreme but happy old age. In London, the Committee has sustained a heavy loss in the death of one of its most active and useful members, Mr. Sidney Bryant Hodge; and still more recently, and almost as suddenly, in the removal of a Minister justly endeared to us all, the Rev. George Thomas Perks, M.A.

The following Resolutions were then adopted:—

Moved by the Rev. John Bedford; seconded by Mr. Barlow:

1. That this Meeting desires to express its conviction of the increasing claims of London upon the thoughtful sympathy, the prayers, and the liberal gifts of the Methodist people; and, at the same time, rejoices in the measure of success with which the work of the past year has been crowned.

Moved by the Rev. W. J. Tweddle; seconded by Mr. Berrie:

2. That the Meeting offers its thanks to Sir Francis Lycett and Alderman M'Arthur, M.P., the General Treasurers; to the Rev. Gervase Smith, the General Secretary; to the Revs. J. A. Armstrong and Thomas Allen, and Mr. John B. Reynolds, the Assistant-Secretaries, for their services during the past year.

APPENDIX VI.

MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE HOME MISSION AND CONTINGENT FUND, HELD IN BRISTOL, ON

MONDAY, JULY 23RD, 1877.

PRESENT, the Rev. Alexander M'Aulay, President of the Conference; the Rev. Dr. Williams, Secretary of the Conference; the Rev. Dr. Smith, Ex-President of the Conference; the Rev. John Bond and Mr. John Vanner, the Treasurers; the Rev. John W. Greeves, the Financial Secretary; and many other members of the Committee.

Most of the following Gentlemen, chosen at the May District Meetings to be members of this Committee, were present; viz., First London, Sir Francis Lycett; Second London, Mr. James E. Vanner; Bedford and Northampton, Mr. Frederick Howard; Kent, Mr. Henry Page; Norwich and Lynn, Mr. James Floyd; Oxford, Mr. John H. Mason; Portsmouth, Mr. Charles Moody; Channel Islands, Mr. John Francis Giffard; Devonport, Mr. Joseph Shepheard; Cornwall, Mr. John Rowse; Exeter, Mr. James Bohn; Bristol, Mr. Lewis Williams; Bath, Mr. William Tonkin; Swansea, Mr. William Morris; South Wales, Mr. John Williams; North Wales, Mr. Thomas Lewis; Birmingham and Shrewsbury, Mr. John Field; Macclesfield, Mr. William S. Allen, M.P.; Liverpool, Mr. Henry R. Bowers; Manchester, Mr. Tom Milburn; Bolton, Mr. William Tunstill; Halifax and Bradford, Mr. John Holmes; Leeds, Mr. Israel Roberts; Sheffield, Mr. George Wilton; Nottingham and Derby, Mr. George Alcock; Lincoln, Mr. Walter T. Small; Hull, Mr. Aaron Mason; York, Mr. Jonathan Dunn; Whitby and Darlington, Mr. George Horsley; Newcastle, Mr. Edward Richardson; Carlisle, Mr. Thomas Bateson; Isle of Man, Mr. Henry T. M'Iver; Edinburgh and Aberdeen, Mr. John Pickering; Zetland, Mr. Hugh Hughson.

The list of Grants, recommended by the District Committees for Extraordinaries, was revised and adopted by the Committee.

The Report of the Committee of Management was submitted; and, being printed and in the hands of the Committee, was taken as read.

Moved by the Rev. John W. Greeves; seconded by Mr. James Barlow, of Bolton; and supported by Mr. John H. Mason, of Newbury:

1. That the Committee receives with satisfaction the Report now presented; endorses the request of the Committee of Management that they may be allowed another year in which to complete their Report on Lay Agency, and on the changes desirable in the Organization and Administration of the Fund; and adopts their recommendation that, in future, Grants made by the Committee to increase the Allowances of Ministers shall not be confined to the Assisted Circuits of the Connexion.

Moved by the Rev. Joseph Hargreaves; seconded by Mr. James Floyd, of Bury St. Edmund's; and supported by Mr. William Tunstill, of Reedyford, and Mr. William Price, of Cardiff:

2. That the Committee is thankful for the spiritual success of the past year, as shown in the net addition of 9,351 to our membership in Great Britain, and of 28,063 persons who are on trial; yet, while surveying the ungodliness and intemperance which prevail in the land, and the scepticism on the one hand, and the Romanism on the other, which obtain among those from whom evangelistic effort might have been expected, feels that there never was a time in the history of our country when the earnest, self-sacrificing, prayerful Home-Mission work of Methodism was more needed than at present.

Moved by the Rev. Henry W. Holland; seconded by the Rev. Oliver M'Cutcheon; and supported by Mr. Henry Page, of Walmer:

3. That, in view of the large number of Circuits which, though they have had the services of a single preacher for four years and upwards (some of them many more than four), have failed to fulfil the obligation to provide for a married Minister;—of the legislation which, by allowing a Student's third year in the Theological Institution to be counted as the first of his itinerancy, practically sanctions his marriage when he has only been three years in Circuit work;—and of the number of married Ministers who are consequently without the usual provision of a House; the Committee is of opinion that this is a subject which requires the prompt and careful consideration of the Conference and the Connexion.

Moved by Mr. Thomas F. C. May, of Bristol; seconded by the Rev. Thomas Nightingale; and supported by Mr. William Tonkin, of Frome:

4. That the Committee is gratified to hear of the progress effected by District Sustentation Funds, and of the advantages accruing from them; approves of the suggestion of the Committee of Management that the rules for the distribution of such Funds shall be reprinted in the Minutes of Conference; and repeats the recommendation that in all Districts a Sustentation Fund be established, and that those Districts which have or can obtain a surplus should send it to the General Treasurers, in order that it may be used for the benefit of Districts less favourably situated.

Moved by Mr. William Sissons, of Hull; seconded by Mr. John Field, of Hill Top; and supported by Mr. Joseph Edge, of Burslem:

5. That the thanks of this Committee be given to those Ministers and friends who have advocated the claims of our Home Missions during the year; to those who have given valuable personal labour to our Home-Mission Work; to the subscribers and collectors; and to those young persons and children who have so largely aided the Home-Mission Fund by Juvenile Associations.

Moved by the Rev. George Alton; and seconded by Mr. James S. Sutcliffe, of Bacup:

6. That the thanks of this Committee be presented to the President of the Conference; also to Mr. John Vanner and the Rev. John Bond, the Treasurers; to the Rev. John W. Greeves, the Financial Secretary; and to the Committee of Management, for their valuable services during the year.

APPENDIX VII.

N.B.—1. The Norwich and Lynn District, in addition to the £560, is allowed to distribute double the amount of increase in the total contributions to the Fund raised in the District during the year ending at the Conference of 1876.

2. The Cornwall District, in addition to the £162, is allowed to distribute the increase in the total contributions to the Fund raised in the District during the year ending at the Conference of 1876.

DISTRICT SUSTENTATION FUNDS.

The following Report was presented:—During the year 1876 the amount received by the Home-Mission Committee, as the surplus of District Sustentation Funds, was £260. 6*s*. This sum was contributed by the following Districts:—

Newcastle	50	0	0

This amount, less £10 which remains for distribution this year, has been paid by the Committee of Management, on the pro ratâ principle agreed upon at the last Conference, (see Minutes, 1876, p. 287,) as follows:—

Bedford and Northampton	22	5	0
Norwich and Lynn	26	0	0
Portsmouth.....	21	10	0
Channel Islands.....	2	10	0

Bath	32	15	0
Swansea	14	15	0
Lincoln	20	5	0
Edinburgh and Aberdeen	38	10	0

The Committee then proceeded to consider what Surplus would probably be available for distribution this year, and the claims of the Districts requesting assistance from such Surplus, and resolved, That the aggregate Surplus remitted to the General Treasurers be distributed by the Committee of Management, on a pro ratâ principle, in proportion to the amount actually raised and applied during the past year by means of Sustentation Funds in the several claimant Districts.

APPENDIX VIII.

MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE WORN-OUT MINISTERS' AND MINISTERS' WIDOWS' AUXILIARY FUND, HELD IN THE OLD MARKET STREET CHAPEL, BRISTOL, ON THURSDAY, JULY 19TH, 1877.

The Rev. Alexander M'Aulay, President of the Conference, in the Chair.

PRESENT, the Rev. Dr. Williams, Dr. Smith, Dr. Punshon, Dr. Jobson, Dr. James, John Rattenbury, Henry H. Chettle, John Farrar, John Bedford, John Hartley, Henry L. Church, and Thomas Nightingale; also, Messrs. James Barlow, Samuel Budgett, William M'Arthur, M.P., Thomas Pethick, T. F. C. May, William Tunstill, Alfred Hall, and William Hunt.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. Punshon; seconded by Mr. William M'Arthur, M.P.:

1. That this Committee rejoices to hear that so liberal a sum has been promised to the New Investment Fund, and that so large a proportion has been paid and invested; and is truly thankful to God for His continued blessing upon the labours of the Rev. John Rattenbury, and for the prospect of the successful completion of his object; and recommends that the allowances to Widows be increased upon the scale following: viz.,—

The sum of ten shillings per annum being allowed for each year that the husband travelled, a further sum of eleven pounds per annum shall be added, in every instance, to the amount so calculated.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. Jobson; seconded by Mr. Thomas Pethick:

2. That the Committee is gratified to learn that the direction of the Conference,—'that a public Collection be made in all our chapels on behalf of this Fund,'—has been acted upon by a large majority of the Circuits, and that in some congregations two Collections have been made.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. Williams; seconded by Mr. T. F. C. May:

3. That this Committee is encouraged to hope that in those Circuits in which the public Collection is now applied to make up the deficiency in the Class-contributions, an effort will be made to raise the quota of 6*d.* a member from the Classes, so that the public Collection may go to the direct augmentation of the Fund.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. Smith; seconded by Mr. James Barlow:

4. That this Committee is thankful to learn that the recommendation of the last Conference, 'That all the Ministers, including Preachers on trial, not appointed as Ministers of Circuits, but separated or engaged to other service, shall have a sum paid for them by the Department of service to which they are appointed, equivalent to that which is provided for the Circuit Ministers by the Class-contributions,' has been accepted by all the Departments, and that they have resolved to act upon this recommendation of the Conference, year by year.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. James; seconded by Mr. William Tunstill:

5. That in view of the constantly increasing claims upon this Fund, both regular and special, the Committee would kindly urge the Superintendents and their colleagues to careful and earnest exertions to maintain and augment the Annual Income by private subscriptions.

Moved by the Rev. John Farrar; seconded by Mr. Alfred Hall:

6. That this Committee recommends that the thanks of the Conference be presented to Mr. John Napier and the Rev. John Rattenbury, the General Treasurers; to the Rev. Henry H. Chettle, the Secretary; also to the District Treasurers, and the Circuit Treasurers, for their services during the past year.

Moved by the Rev. John Bedford; seconded by Mr. Samuel Budgett:

7. That the cordial thanks of this Committee be presented to those friends who, during the past year, have generously aided this Fund by special donations; to those Executors who have paid sundry legacies to this Fund; and also to those Trustees who have contributed to it from their Chapel Income.

Moved by the Rev. Henry L. Church; seconded by Mr. William Hunt:

8. That the thanks of this Committee be presented to Mr. Greaves Walker and Mr. Richard H. Townend, for their services as Auditors for the past year; and that they be appointed for the next year.

Moved by the Rev. John Rattenbury; seconded by the Rev. Henry H. Chettle:

9. That the following Gentlemen be recommended as the Lay Members of this Committee for the next year:—Mr. H. J. Atkinson, London; Mr. E. M. Bainbridge, Newcastle; Mr. James Barlow, Bolton; Mr. James S. Budgett, London; Mr. Isaac Holden, Oakworth; Mr. William M'Arthur, M.P., London; Mr. William Mewburn, Banbury; Mr. Thomas Pethick, Bristol; Mr. John Radmall, London; Mr. George Smith, Leeds; Mr. James Wood, LL.B., Southport.

APPENDIX IX.

MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE OF REVIEW OF THE WESLEYAN THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION, HELD IN BRISTOL, JULY 21ST, 1877.

The President of the Conference in the Chair.

THE Minutes of the Meetings of the General Committee were read by the Rev. W. J. Tweddle.

The Reports of the Governors and of the several Examiners were taken as read.

A Financial Statement was read by the Rev. John Farrar.

Moved by the Rev. R. N. Young; seconded by Mr. William S. Allen, M.P.; supported by Mr. George Alcock:

1. That this Meeting receives the Reports of the Governors and Examiners now submitted, and recommends that the thanks of the Conference be given to the Tutors and Governors of the several Branches; to the Treasurers and Secretaries, and to the Examiners, for their efficient and acceptable services.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. Jobson; seconded by Mr. Napier; supported by Mr. J. H. Mason and several others:

2. That this Meeting regrets to learn that the Governor of the Headingley Branch feels compelled to retire from office; records its grateful sense of the value of the faithful and efficient services which, as Tutor, and as Governor at Abney House, Richmond, and Headingley, the Rev. John Farrar has rendered to successive classes of Students for our Ministry, and of the ability with which he has served the Connexion, during many years, in this and in other departments of Methodism; and devoutly prays that his life may be long spared, and so enriched with spiritual blessing, that through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ 'at evening time it shall be light.'

Moved by the Rev. B. Hellier; seconded by Mr. W. W. Pocock; supported by Mr. S. R. Healey:

3. That, recognizing the importance of having a trained and educated Ministry, this Meeting hears with concern that, during the last ten years, so large a proportion as one-third of the total number of Candidates have entered upon Circuit-work without having passed through the Institution, and recommends the Conference seriously to consider whether some plan cannot be devised whereby all Candidates for our Ministry shall pass through a regular course of theological and general study.

APPENDIX X.

MEETING OF THE EDUCATION COMMITTEE OF REVIEW,

HELD IN BRISTOL, JULY 20TH, 1877.

PRESENT, the Rev. Alexander M'Aulay, President of the Conference, in the Chair; the Rev. Dr. Williams, Secretary of the Conference; the Rev. Gervase Smith, D.D., Ex-President of the Conference; the Rev. J. Bedford, Dr. Jobson, Dr. James, Dr. Punshon; the Rev. Theophilus Woolmer (A), one of the Treasurers; the Rev. J. H. Rigg, D.D., and the Rev. G. W. Olver, B.A., Principals of the two Training Colleges; the Rev. C. H. Kelly, Secretary of the Connexional Sunday-School Union; the Rev. G. O. Bate, Secretary of the Education Committee; and other Ministers, who, together with numerous laymen, attended in response to invitations issued in accordance with the Resolution of the Conference, 1876.

1. An Abstract of the principal proceedings of the Education Committee during the year was read. It included the following matters: (1.) Measures taken for circulating information respecting the Education Act of 1876. (2.) The withdrawal of the regulation under which Teachers in Public Elementary Schools were prohibited from serving as duly accredited Local Preachers. (3.) Correspondence with the Education Department in reference to a Minute under which it was proposed to take new powers to refuse Grants to Schools deemed to be unnecessary. (4.) Correspondence with the Education Department in reference to expensive and undesirable alterations of School-premises required by H.M. Inspectors, which resulted in the issue of a Circular checking such requirements in future. (5.) Information respecting alterations of Westminster and Southlands Training Colleges premises, the efficiency of the Tutorial Staff and instruction of the Colleges, and the supply of Candidates for training. (6.) The annual Examinations of Pupil-Teachers in Religious Knowledge. (7.) The Visitation of Day Schools by Mr. Bell and Mr. Mawbey. (8.) Grants to Schools. (9.) Minute on the decease of the Rev. G. T. Perks, M.A.

2. Statistics of Wesleyan Training Colleges, Day Schools, and Sunday Schools were presented. (See pages 330, 331.)

3. The Secretary of the Connexional Sunday-School Union read an Abstract of its proceedings during the year. (See pages 332, 333.)

4. In the absence of the Principal of 'The Children's Home,' who was on his voyage to Canada, the Rev. George W. Olver presented the Report of that Institution during the year. (For an Abstract see pages 334–336.)

5. The Rev. Theophilus Woolmer (A), presented a Financial Statement.

The following Resolutions were unanimously adopted :—

Moved by the Rev. Henry W. Holland; seconded by Mr. James E. Vanner, of London; and supported by the Rev. John Clulow:

1. That this Committee, while recognizing with gratitude to God the success of the Connexional Sunday-School Union, expresses an earnest hope for its continued advancement and increased usefulness, and records its conviction that, in order to this, it is absolutely necessary to secure a larger and adequate amount of money for the Outfit and Capital Fund, and commends this matter to the immediate consideration of the Conference and the Connexion.

Moved by the Rev. Frederic Greeves; seconded by Mr. Tom Milburn, of Staleybridge; supported by Mr. Samuel Budgett, of Bristol:

2. That this Committee learns with gratification that during the year the number of Wesleyan Day Schools under local Committees has been maintained, that the number of Scholars in attendance at them has been increased, and that the general condition of our Day Schools, as reported to the District Meetings, is satisfactory. The Committee also receives with pleasure the Reports upon the Examination of Pupil Teachers in Religious Knowledge, together with information that the number and eligibility of Pupil Teachers who have come forward for training in the two Colleges have been such as to furnish an adequate supply of Students who are likely, after training, as Teachers in Wesleyan and other Schools, to render valuable service by their religious influence and teaching, as well as by conducting schools with general efficiency.

Moved by Mr. Jonathan Dunn, of York; seconded by Mr. John Beauchamp, of London; supported by Mr. George Lidgett, of Blackheath:

3. That this Committee expresses its satisfaction with the statement now presented respecting the Children's Home. It rejoices to hear that the debt has been considerably reduced, and still more that the moral and religious objects of the Home have been, to an encouraging extent, secured. The Meeting commends this undertaking to the continued sympathy and enlarged liberality of the Christian public.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. Rigg; seconded by Mr. John Vanner, of Banbury:

4. That the very cordial thanks of this Committee be presented to the Rev. Theophilus Woolmer (A), Mr. Frederick Howard, and Mr. William Vanner, for their services as Treasurers. The Rev. Theophilus Woolmer having found it necessary to retire from the office of Treasurer of the Education Fund, which he has held during the last six years, this Committee deems it proper to record its deep and grateful sense of the great value of his services to the department during the period named. Eminent business-ability, assiduous attention to all details of expenditure, sound judgment, and unfailing courtesy have, in a remarkable degree, been united in Mr. Woolmer; and his separation from the official service of the department entails a loss which the Committee believes that it will be difficult to supply.

The Reports upon the condition of the Day Schools received from the Circuits through the District Meetings were, with a few exceptions, very satisfactory; in not a few instances all the Schools in Circuits were reported to be thoroughly efficient and prosperous.

Seven Schools were reported as having been transferred to School Boards during the year. In five cases out of the seven, transfer was the alternative to closing; and in one of the remaining two, transfer was adopted as the most convenient means of securing to a parish schools which had been built and furnished by the liberality of two gentlemen; the remaining case was one which had been in progress for two years. Ten Schools were reported as having been closed during the year: all these, with one exception, were small uninspected Schools. Fifteen New Schools or Departments were reported as having been opened during the year.

* Slight inaccuracies in these items for 1876 (Report, p. 34) are corrected in these figures.

† This decrease in the number of Schools in which Catechism is taught is probably only nominal. It is believed to arise from the use in many Schools of the 'Tablets,' instead of books of Catechism. Taking into account Catechism learned from 'Tablets,' there is most likely an actual increase of the Schools in which the Catechisms are used.

IV.—CONNEXIONAL SUNDAY-SCHOOL UNION.

CENTRAL AGENCY,—2, LUDGATE CIRCUS BUILDINGS, LONDON, E.C.

ABSTRACT OF REPORT.

THE Committee is able to report very favourably of the general work and success of the Union.

The only item that has caused anxiety is that of the Outfit or Capital Fund. Of the £10,000 needed, barely £3000 has been realized. An earnest appeal to the liberality of Sunday-School supporters is made on behalf of this important Fund.

The Publications of the Union have had a large sale.

More than two hundred Meetings, Conventions, etc., have been attended, during the year, by the Rev. Charles H. Kelly, the Secretary, and several other gentlemen have represented the Union at many other Meetings.

The Library Grant Orders have made a great demand on the resources of the Committee: eighty-four thousand one hundred and twenty volumes have been issued in this department, and great good has been accomplished thereby.

The following figures will partially illustrate the position and work of the Union:—

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT

THE CHILDREN'S HOME.

DURING the year just closed the work of this Institution has progressed steadily. There has been no extension of its operations, beyond the receiving of a few additional children into houses already occupied. The resolution of last year, to avoid any extension of the work until the debt was paid, has been adhered to, and must be observed for some time to come.

The Financial Statement is satisfactory as compared with that of last year. In July, 1876, the liabilities amounted to £10,000. During the summer months, as is usually the case, the income was not sufficient to meet the weekly expenditure, so that by the 1st of October the debt had increased to £11,000.

Resolute attempts to grapple with this debt were then made, and the result is that the debt is reduced by about £4,000. It now stands at £6,200, and towards this amount subscriptions are promised, payable next year, amounting to £2,000. The new chapel and schools at the London Branch have been completed at a cost of more than £2,000.

The Branches of the Home are still four, viz. :—

Bonner Road, London; Edgworth, in Lancashire; Milton, next Gravesend; and Hamilton, in Canada.

In connection with the London Branch the very important departments of the work known as Missions and Training School are still carried on.

In the CHILDREN'S HOME there are now resident four hundred and fifty children, of whom three hundred and four are boys, and one hundred and forty-six are girls.

At the London Branch, 213; at the Lancashire Branch, 97; at the Milton Branch, 125; at the Hamilton Branch, 15.

The Missions conducted by the young men of the 'Training Department' have been well worked during the year. The Children's Mission still maintains its hold upon the children of the neighbourhood, and is doing a good work of moral elevation. Nearly one thousand children have, during the year, been under teaching and influence in this Mission. Every Sunday in the winter there is an attendance of more than five hundred, and in the summer of about three hundred.

The TRAINING DEPARTMENT is being steadily and quietly developed. During the year one young man has entered the ministry in Canada. There are now in this department twelve probationers and pupil officers.

The work of the LANCASHIRE BRANCH has been carried on vigorously and successfully. In its several houses sixty-five boys and thirty-two girls are domiciled. Sixteen children have been sent out from this Branch during the year, and twenty-four boys and twelve girls have been admitted. Its moral and religious condition is satisfactory. Truth, honesty, purity, industry, and obedience, mark the general conduct of its inmates. Serious transgressions are rare, because the good preponderates greatly, and delinquents—boys or girls who have been rescued from vile associations and influences—soon feel that their wrong doing is out of place and out of accord with the tone and life of the family and Institution. The Committee has recently been cheered by the conversion of several of the elder girls, and evidence is not wanting that some of the elder boys have given their hearts to God, and desire to walk in the way of His commandments.

Since the establishment of the Certified INDUSTRIAL BRANCH at Milton, near Gravesend, one hundred and twenty-eight certified cases have been received. Of this number, fifty-seven have been charged before the magistrates as being uncontrollable by their parents, forty-two have been charged with stealing, or keeping the company of reputed thieves, and the remaining twenty-nine with wandering or begging. Six of this number have left under the following circumstances :—

Two as reported last year; one has been transferred to a Roman Catholic Industrial School, through application by the father; two others have been discharged, their term having expired, and one has been placed out on license. The number of certified cases thus remaining in the Institution is one hundred and twenty-two, besides which there are five voluntary cases; the total number at present in the Home being one hundred and twenty-seven.

Canadian Branch.—But little has been done in the way of emigration this year. The commercial depression prevailing in Canada, and other causes, led the Committee to refrain from sending out any party in 1876; but last spring twenty-six fine lads were sent. The reports of the two hundred and seventy-five boys and girls who have been placed in situations in Canada continue to be of the most satisfactory character. Very few are doing badly;—most of them well, and not a few are doing well in the highest and best sense of the word.

APPENDIX XII.

EXTENSION OF METHODISM IN GREAT BRITAIN.

The following Abstract is taken from the Committee's Report:

1. The contributions promised to this Fund have now reached the sum of £41,051. Of this amount £15,714 has already been paid; of which £14,000 has been invested. The Cash actually received during the year has amounted to £2,808. 0*s.* 4*d.*, and the Expenditure has been £564. 0*s.* 5*d.*

2. On Thursday, July 12th, the Committee met for the purpose of making some distribution of Grants from the Fund, and resolved—First, That applications be considered with a view to the distribution of £8,000 between the present date and the Conference of 1878. Secondly, That Grants be made not exceeding a maximum of fifteen shillings per sitting; that each application be considered on its own merits; and that payments be made only pro ratâ for the sittings actually provided. Thirdly, That in any case of the proposed substitution of a new for an old chapel, special regard shall be had to the actual extension of the provision to be made for Methodist worship and to the circumstances of local urgency.

3. Since the establishment of the Fund at the Conference of 1874, 214 applications have been made to the Committee for help; and though a few of these have been withdrawn, more than 200 still remain on the lists. Of those considered by the Committee, some few were remitted for further inquiry; others were postponed until a future Meeting; while to 29 cases there was allotted the sum of £4,250—that is, an average of about £146 each. The total number of additional sittings provided by these 29 chapels is 9,677.

4. The following Resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

Moved by the Rev. Dr. Jobson; seconded by Mr. Tom Milburn:

1. That this Meeting thankfully recognises the liberality of those friends, by whose contributions to the Fund for the 'Extension of Methodism in Great Britain' the sum of £41,050 has been raised, and rejoices to hear that the Committee has been able to begin the distribution of Grants. It earnestly invites the co-operation and support of all the friends of Methodism, that assistance may be rendered to this most important Fund, commensurate with the claims of 'necessitous localities,' and with the work of 'extending Methodism by means of Home Missions and other evangelistic agencies.'

Moved by the Rev. John Bedford; seconded by Mr. John H. Mason, of Newbury:

2. That this Committee recommends that the thanks of the Conference be presented to Sir Francis Lycett and Mr. William Mewburn, the Treasurers; to the Rev. Theophilus Woolmer (A), the Secretary; and to the Committee of Management, for their services on behalf of the Fund during the year.

APPENDIX XIII.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT UPON THE EXAMINATION OF PREACHERS ON TRIAL, PRESENTED TO THE CONFERENCE, 1877.

The Examination was held in accordance with the directions of the Conference, on April 4th, 1877. The arrangements were satisfactorily carried out; and the thanks of the Conference are due to the Examiners and the District Examination Secretaries for their services.

228 Probationers were examined; 23 others, for various reasons, did not attend the examination.

The general results of the Examination of the Probationers of each year were as follows:—

First Year.—43 Probationers were examined: of whom one wrote two Papers; 33 wrote three; and 9 wrote four. 137 Papers were written: of these, 21 were marked 3+; 38 gained higher marks; 76 gained lower marks than 3+; and 2 were failures.

Second Year.—56 Probationers were examined: of whom 4 wrote two Papers only; 5 wrote three; 25 wrote four; and 15 wrote five Papers. 198 Papers were written: of these, 35 were marked 3+; 88 gained higher marks; and 75 Papers obtained lower marks than 3+.

Third Year.—59 Probationers were examined: of whom 4 wrote two Papers; 6 wrote three; 26 wrote four; and 23 wrote five Papers. 251 Papers were written: of these, 40 were marked 3+; 99 gained higher marks; and 112 Papers obtained lower marks than 3+.

FOURTH YEAR.—70 Probationers were examined: of whom one wrote two Papers; 4 wrote three; 43 wrote four; and 22 wrote five. 299 Papers were written: of these, 54 were marked 3+; 156 gained higher marks; and 89 obtained lower marks than 3+.

On a comparison of the results of the Examination of 1877 with those of the Examination of 1876, it is matter of regret to find that in each year of probation there is a falling off in the proportion of 1877 Papers which obtained the mark of 3+ and upwards. The falling off is least in the Papers of the Fourth Year, and it is greatest in those of the First Year.

APPENDIX XIV.

RESOLUTIONS OF THE COMMITTEE OF EXIGENCY ON THE BURIALS' ACTS CONSOLIDATION BILL.

1. That, while approving of the object of the Burials' Acts Consolidation Bill, so far as it relates to the making of further provision for the closing of burial-grounds which are either too full or injurious to health, this Committee is of opinion that the Bill, as a whole, does not meet the equitable claims of Wesleyan Methodist parishioners and others not in communion with the Established Church, and the Committee is therefore compelled to offer to the Bill its most strenuous opposition.

2. The Committee is of opinion that the provisions of the Bill, if adopted by the Houses of Parliament, would lead to the needless multiplication of burial-grounds in rural districts, and to a corresponding waste of public money, and would further tend to excite and perpetuate a spirit of irritation which it is most desirable to avoid.

3. The clause of the Bill which provides for the burial in the parish churchyard of a deceased person whose friends object to the service of the Church of England, without the performance of any religious service, or of any other ceremony, is regarded by the Committee as utterly unsatisfactory.

4. In view of the recognised right of every parishioner to be buried in the churchyard of his own parish, the Committee is of opinion that, while the vested interests of the Clergy of the Established Church should be regarded, no measure will satisfy the just requirements of all parties concerned which does not provide for the burial in the parish churchyard of persons not in communion with the Established Church, by any duly recognised Minister, and with any appropriate religious service which the friends of the deceased may prefer.

The above Resolutions were embodied in a Petition from the Committee of Exigency to the House of Lords against the provisions of the Bill, and also in Petitions from the Ministerial members of the several District Committees in Great Britain.

APPENDIX XV.

RESOLUTIONS OF THE CONFERENCE,

ADOPTED IN FORMER YEARS, AND NOT INSERTED IN THE PRINTED 'MINUTES.'

THE Conference directs that the following Resolutions relating to Ministerial Administration, which have not appeared in the printed Minutes, shall be printed in the Minutes for the present year as an Appendix, as having been adopted by the Conference in the several years named:—

1856.—That the Assistant Secretaries of the Conference be instructed to require, that the official Copies of the District Minutes shall include the entire Minutes of all Meetings of the District Committees held during the year, and be transcribed according to the order of time in which such Meetings shall have been held.

1858.—That in order to possess an explicit record of pledges made to the Conference by Circuits applying for additional Ministers, and engaging to receive and support Married Ministers at a time specified, the Treasurers and Secretaries of the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund be instructed to prepare a form of pledge to be filled up and signed by the Circuit Stewards, countersigned by the Superintendent, and presented at the Conference when the application is made; and that these authenticated pledges be preserved with the other documents of the Conference.

1866.—The Conference accedes to suggestions from certain Circuits, that the arrangements between Ministers and Circuits may not be set aside in deference to claims preferred by Circuits in Conference towns at the time the Conference is being held there.

1868.—That the Chapel Committee has a claim on the Superintendent for all necessary information respecting Chapel Affairs within his Circuit; and that the functions of the Chapel Committee being administrative, not disciplinary, it is at liberty to receive and reply to all legitimate communications, while, as the general rule, its official correspondence and action should be carried on through the duly-constituted Circuit authorities.

1869.—The Conference resolves that while a Student continues in the Theological Institution, even although he is regarded as having travelled one year, his name shall not appear in the printed Minutes, and that he shall not be subject to the jurisdiction of any District Committee, but only to that of the authorities of the Institution and of the Conference.

1872.—In the case of any Minister whose name is on the Journal only, the Conference shall, in each case, define his position, both in relation to the District Meeting and to the discharge of Ministerial functions.

1873.—That in the case of Probationers who have been a year in Circuit work, and are received into the Theological Institution, and subsequently appointed to a Circuit by the Conference, the first year spent in Circuit work shall be reckoned as the first year of their probation.

1873.—After each National Census complete returns must be obtained, as soon as possible, as to the accommodation provided in all Wesleyan-Methodist Chapels and Preaching-places in Great Britain, suitable forms for the purpose being provided by the Chapel Committee.

APPENDIX XVI.

SCHEMES FOR BANDS OF HOPE AND CIRCUIT TEMPERANCE ORGANIZATIONS.

I.—BANDS OF HOPE.

OBJECTS.

Bands of Hope are intended to educate the young in the principles and practice of sobriety.

It is a generally recognised fact that many scholars, on leaving the Sunday-school, do not unite themselves with the Christian Church, or even become members of religious congregations; and it is believed that this lamentable defection from Christian ordinances is largely owing to prevalent drinking customs. It is proposed, therefore, to raise a barrier against the influence which those customs exert, by the establishment of 'Bands of Hope,' the specific object of which shall be to train our youth in habits of abstinence from all intoxicating liquors.

Among the kindred objects designed to be secured by Bands of Hope are,—The regular attendance of our young people upon public worship; the inculcation of the moral duties of industry, honesty, truthfulness, cleanliness, kindness; the discouragement of the practice of smoking; and the creation of disgust for all bad or offensive habits,—Sabbath-breaking, swearing, gambling, and such like. Basing all moral duties upon the authority of Holy Scripture, the Band of Hope, with its special organization and appliances, is adapted to be an important auxiliary to the Sunday-school and the Church, and thus to supply a need which has long been felt and acknowledged.

PRELIMINARY STEPS IN FORMING A BAND OF HOPE.

The Conference has sanctioned 'the formation of Bands of Hope in connection with Sunday-schools, under the supervision of the Ministers of the Circuit and the local Sunday-school Committees;' and has directed that 'the number of such Bands of Hope shall be annually reported to the Conference.' (See Minutes, 1875, page 210.) It is therefore the duty of the promoters of this movement—

First,—To obtain the sanction of the Superintendent of the Circuit.

Secondly,—To bring the proposal to establish a Band of Hope before the Teachers' Meeting and before the Committee of the School; so that it may be worked in harmony with the other arrangements of the School, and that its efficiency and usefulness may be secured.

Thirdly,—To make application, through the Superintendent Minister, for the use of a room in which the meetings of the Band of Hope may be held.

GENERAL RULES.

The following Regulations are proposed as the basis of Management for each Band of Hope:—

I. It shall be conducted in distinct and avowed connection with the Wesleyan-Methodist Society, the increase and welfare of which it shall seek to promote in every practicable way.

II. The general Management shall be entrusted to a Committee, consisting of—

(1.) All the Ministers of the Circuit.

(2.) A Treasurer.

(3.) A Conductor, Secretary, and Registrar, who shall be Members of Society, and, by preference, Officers or Teachers in the Sunday-school.

(4.) Six or more persons, of whom it is desirable that one-half, at least, should be Abstainers.

The Officers and Committee to be elected annually by the Sunday-school Committee.

(The Committee to meet once a Quarter, or oftener if necessary, for the transaction of business.)

III. The Band of Hope Meeting shall be held regularly, and begin and end promptly at the time announced, always with singing and prayer. No ordinary meeting should be prolonged beyond an hour and a quarter.

IV. The speakers at such meeting shall be connected with our own or some other branch of the Christian Church.

V. The following shall be the form of DECLARATION adopted :—'I agree to abstain from all intoxicating liquors, as beverages.'

VI. Children above the age of seven years shall be eligible as members; children under that age may be enrolled as candidates, without making the Declaration.

OFFICERS.

1. PRESIDENT.—The Superintendent of the Circuit, or one of his colleagues, shall be ex-officio President; but it may be desirable to elect a Conductor, whose duty it shall be to attend every meeting, arrange the programme, receive the speakers, and in other ways see that the business of each meeting is properly carried out.

N.B.—It is understood that the arrangement of the programme and all the other details of every meeting are under the control of the Superintendent of the Circuit and the Committee.

2. SECRETARY.—The Secretary shall take Minutes at Committee Meetings, prepare Reports, conduct correspondence, and make arrangements for meetings.

3. REGISTRAR.—The Registrar shall keep account of officers and members of the Band of Hope, register admissions and attendance, record reasons for absence and withdrawal, fill up the Declaration-cards, and supply tickets of membership.

[In many places it may be necessary that the offices of Secretary and Registrar should be held by the same person.]

THE BOOKS necessary for the Secretary and Registrar are—a Minute Book, to contain the record of the proceedings of the Committee; an Admission-Book, for entering name, age, address, etc., of the Children received; and an Attendance Register, for showing the regularity with which the Members attend the meetings.*

MEMBERSHIP, ETC.

Any child above seven years of age desiring to become a member, whose parents do not object, shall write his or her name under the following Declaration:—'I agree to abstain from all intoxicating liquors, as beverages.'

A Declaration-book shall be provided and kept for that purpose.

When the Declaration has been kept for three months, the young person will be an acknowledged Member, and should purchase the Card of Membership.

Especial care should be exercised in the admission of members. The greatest pains should be taken to ascertain that the child understands the nature of the engagement into which it desires to enter. The plan of visiting the child's parents or guardians should be adopted in every case where application is made for admission.

* The good and cheap Admission-Book and Attendance Registers published at the Wesleyan Conference Office, and which may also be obtained at the Wesleyan Sunday-School Union Depôt, 2, Ludgate Circus Buildings, London, E.C., answer admirably for the two latter purposes.

THE CONDUCT OF THE BAND OF HOPE.

Every Meeting should be commenced with devotional exercises. There should be two or three short addresses. Singing should be regarded as an important feature in every meeting. If any recitations be introduced, nothing vulgar or theatrical should be allowed.

In conducting Bands of Hope, it should ever be remembered that the sentiments and music introduced will linger in the memory, and influence the feelings and character, throughout subsequent years; hence they should always be pure, refining, elevating. The singing should be lively; the speakers should seek, not only to interest and amuse, but also to instruct, and thus to build up character on the basis of Christian principle,—ever bearing in mind that 'the harvest answereth to the seed.'

N.B.—No sale of literature shall be permitted on the Lord's day.

AUXILIARY AGENCIES.

The efficiency of Bands of Hope may be greatly promoted by the introduction of carefully selected literature; by the formation of a singing class; by the discreet supervision of all festival arrangements; by the collection of small subscriptions from those who are able to become paying members; and, in many cases, by the establishment of a Penny Bank.

RELATION TO THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL.

As the religious character and harmonious working of the Bands of Hope will depend largely upon their close connection with the Sunday-school, it is very desirable that they should, as far as possible, be countenanced and promoted by the Superintendents, Officers, and Teachers of the several Schools with which they are associated.

THE CHIEF AIM.

In order to secure the blessing of Almighty God, the Band of Hope should be carried on in the spirit of faith and prayer; the children should be clearly taught that Total Abstinence is no substitute for Scriptural conversion; and the whole organization should be constantly regarded as only a means to the great end of winning souls for Christ, and of retaining them within the fold of His Church.

II.—CIRCUIT ORGANIZATIONS FOR THE PROMOTION OF TEMPERANCE.

TITLE.

Every such organization shall be called a 'Wesleyan-Methodist Temperance Society.'

PRINCIPLES.

1. Every Wesleyan-Methodist Temperance Society must recognise the principle, already sanctioned by the Conference, of the co-operation of Abstainers and Non-abstainers.
2. In the formation of such Societies the Superintendent Minister shall be first consulted, and his concurrence obtained.
3. Every such Society shall use the forms of Declaration hereinafter contained.

OBJECTS.

To promote Temperance, and to remove the Causes which lead to Intemperance. The following are the special objects which these Societies should seek to secure:—

1. The Diminution of the number of Licensed Houses for the Sale of Intoxicating Liquors, and the shortening of the Time during which they may be open each day.

2. The suppression of Beer-houses throughout the Country.

3. The closing of Public-houses during the whole of the Lord's day, except for the accommodation of bonâ fide travellers.

4. The curtailment, by appeals to the Licensing authorities, of facilities for the Sale of Intoxicating Liquors.

5. The refusal of Dancing and Music Licences to houses licensed for the Sale of Intoxicating Liquors.

6. The removal from Public-houses of Benefit, Friendly, and Burial Clubs, and the discontinuance of the payment of Wages at such houses.

7. The discouragement of the use of Intoxicants in 'Toasts' and 'Drinking of Healths;' in social calls and 'Treating'; in business and commercial transactions; and in 'Footing' and similar customs.

8. The encouragement of Refreshment Houses and Reading Rooms, in which strong drink shall not be supplied.

9. The entire disuse of Intoxicating Liquors in connection with Sunday-School Festivals and Excursions, and on similar occasions.

10. The reclaiming of those who have 'erred through strong drink.'

11. The educating of Public Opinion on the foregoing objects; and the sending of Petitions to Parliament, when deemed desirable by the Connexional Committee on Temperance.

12. The encouragement of Special Prayer for the Divine blessing upon the Temperance movement.

MANAGEMENT.

1. The Superintendent of the Circuit shall be ex-officio Chairman of the Committee of Management; but may, when he shall see fit, appoint one of his colleagues to act in his place.

2. The Committee of Management shall, if practicable, be composed of Abstainers and Non-abstainers. Two-thirds, at least, of this Committee shall be members of the Wesleyan-Methodist Society, and the remainder regular attendants on the Wesleyan-Methodist ministry.

3. The Ministers of the Circuit shall be ex-officio members of the Committee; the other members of the Committee shall be elected by the Members of such Society at their Annual Meeting.

4. The Committee shall at its first meeting elect a Treasurer and a Secretary. The Committee shall meet as frequently as circumstances may require, and, if no Minister be present, shall elect some other member to preside.

MEMBERSHIP.

1. All persons who shall sign and observe either of the following DECLARATIONS shall be regarded as Members:—

Abstaining Members.

I hereby agree to abstain from all Intoxicating Liquors, as beverages; and will endeavour to promote the objects of this Society.

Non-Abstaining Members.

I hereby agree to exert myself for the suppression of Intemperance, and will endeavour to promote the objects of this Society.

2. Members shall be requested to contribute towards the expenses of the Circuit Organization.

OF THE

WESLEYAN-METHODIST MINISTERS AND PREACHERS ON TRIAL

IN

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN STATIONS UNDER THE BRITISH CONFERENCE.

* The figures at the beginning of the lines mark simply the year in which each Minister entered on his work; and those at the end of the lines denote his first, second, &c., annual appointment to his present Circuit.

N.B.—In cases in which a second name in brackets follows the name of the head of a Circuit in Great Britain, it is the postal direction for the head of such Circuit; as Birstal, (Leeds); and where a residence other than the head of a Circuit is followed by a second name in brackets, or the two names are included in brackets, the second is, in like manner, the postal direction for such residence.
